HANSEN-WEEDREYER.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Thursday afternoon, January 1, 1942, at the Baptist church when Miss Lois Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hansen, became the bride of Glenn Weedreyer, son of H. H. Weedreyer. The Rev. H. W. Davis of Eugene read the double ring service in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore an afternoon frock of blue chiffon velvet and a gardenia corsage. She was attended by Miss Evelyn Weedreyer who wore a sheer wool dress of dusty rose with a corsage of carnations. Kenneth Hansen, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Greenery and silver bells formed the attractive decorations. Irvin Hansen, Mrs. Otho Stanley and Mrs. Mark Hynning, uncle and aunt of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly," preceding the ceremony. Miss Orleana Martin was accompanist and also played the wedding marches.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Weedreyer and Miss Martin assisted in serving.

Mrs. Weedreyer is a graduate of Cottage Grove union high school, class of 1941. Mr. Weedreyer received his education in the midwestern states and attended Linfield college. Following a trip to points in California the couple will make their home in Cottage Grove.

The following guests were present: Mrs. Ellen Hansen, Mrs. Otto Stanley and Mrs. Mark Hynning, all of Castle Rock, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Doolittle, H. H. Weedreyer, Mrs. Ida Terveen, Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Cary (Goshen), Mrs. Linnie Violette, Miss Arlene Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Landess, Miss Gail Lindamood, Miss Genevieve Mulvihill, Mrs. Glennie Frost, Miss Geneva Hollis (Eugene), Miss Evelyn Weedreyer, Kenneth Hansen and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hansen.

WOOLEY-VOHS.

Miss Faye E. Wooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wooley, became the bride of Fred V. Vohs, Jr., son of Fred Vohs of Oregon City, Sunday, January 4, at 2:30, at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. W. A. Briggs, pastor of the Methodist church, read the single ring ceremony in the presence of a few relatives and friends. Mrs. Norman Lewis played the wedding march.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a floor-length dress of navy blue chiffon trimmed with flesh-colored lace. She carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds, and was unattended. The ceremony was in front of the fireplace which was banked with greenery, pink carnations and white chrysanthemums.

An informal reception followed. The dining table was centered with a wedding cake, bouquets of pink and white sweetpeas and lighted tapers and silver holders. For her going away dress the bride wore a brown tailored suit with brown accessories. Following a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Cottage Grove.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Atwood, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson and daughter Patsy; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wooley, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Beidler, Mr. and Mrs. Paris Breedlove, Miss Gail Lindamood, Mrs. Norman Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Wooley and son Keith.
