OREGON 4-H GIRL EARLY WINNER

Oregon's first major winning for the year in the 4-H club field has just been announced by the national committee on boys' and girls' club work. Harriet Phyllis Kempton of Lane county has placed in the blue award group in the western extension section in the farm accounting record contest. Her achievement entitles her to a trip to the twenty-first national 4-H club contests this fall.

Oregon is again participating in all of such national contests, according to H. C. Seymour, state 4-H club leader. Most of these contests have been given a wartime emphasis this year.
