KEGLEY-BABCOCK

At an impressive candle light service held Sunday evening at the Silk Creek Adventist church, Miss Margaret Babcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Babcock of Silk Creek, became the bride of Richard Kegley of Walla Walla, son of Elder and Mrs. Richard Kegley of Montana. Elder Paul Bartholomew officiated.

The bride wore a floor-length dress of white satin with lace trimmed sweetheart neckline, long puffed sleeves and beaded waist. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a garland of Japanese orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink rose buds and gardenia.

Mrs. Marian Dewey, sister of the bride was matron of honor. She wore a pink taffeta formal and carried a bouquet of pink rose buds. Bridesmaids were Misses Katherine Walker, dressed in mauve formal and Zelda Darnell in peacock blue, both carried bouquets of rosebuds. Merlyn Dewey was best man and ushers were Keith Babcock and Gordon Mooney. Walter Wheeler acted as Bible bearer.

Mrs. Genevieve Sargeant sang "Love's Awakening" and "At Dawning," accompanied by Mrs. Alice Gildersleeve at the piano.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Dewey. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Mr. and Mrs. Kegley cut the bride's cake.

The young couple will make their home at Walla Walla where Mr. Kegley will finish his ministerial training.

FORMER RESIDENTS WED

Two well-known and popular young people, former residents of Cottage Grove, Elizabeth Janette Whitney and Clifford Hiner Jr., were joined in marriage by the Rev. C. E. Kingsley of the First Baptist church of Martinez, California, September 19th, 1942. After a short honeymoon, spent at Santa Cruz, California, they returned to Martinez, where they will make their home for a time. The bride is the only daughter of Harry Whitney of Martinez, who is a former resident of Cottage Grove. The bride attended high school here but finished the course in the Martinez high school. The groom is a graduate of our high school, following which he was employed in the machine shop of his father, Clifford Hiner Sr., for an apprentice term and is at present enjoying a good position as draftsman in the navy yard at Vallejo, California. These young people have a large circle of acquaintances here who wish to extend hearty congratulations and good wishes.

COUPLE WED LAST SUNDAY

The wedding of Miss Rosabelle Anna Maguire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Maguire, to Chester G. Rearick, son of Mrs. Charles Rearick of Cottage Grove, was an event of September 20. The Rev. Ross Knott officiated at the ceremony held in the Young Women's Christian Association building at St. Johns.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin dress and carried a white Bible with a shower of bouvardia. Her white tulle veil was lace edged.

Miss Pearl Etta Maguire, the bride's sister and only attendant, wore a frock of pink and blue chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of pink and white asters.

Delmar L. Rearick, the bridegroom's brother, acted as best man and ushers were Pat Maguire and Roy Hizzon.

Mrs. Harold Hunsaker and Miss Trina Orty assisted at the reception which followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Rearick will make their home at 424 S. 14th street, in Corvallis.
