COUPLE UNITED CHRISTMAS EVE.

A lighted Christmas tree and lighted tapers in candelabras on either side, made a beautiful setting Christmas eve for the wedding of Miss Edith Gamet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Gamet, to Pvt. Ralph L. Willson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Willson of Coquille. The ceremony took place at McMinville at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Perry, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom, with the Rev. Hicks officiating before a small group of relatives.

The bride's dress was a floor length white silk crepe and her corsage was violets and roses. Her only attendant was Violet Willson who wore a floor length dress of light blue silk and a corsage of gardenias.

Owen Willson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

No Longer Serious

Seventy years ago failure of the rains meant serious famine, with death tolls of from one to five million. Today, the railways and the vast irrigation system have removed the threat of famine. Since 1900, there has not been a serious famine although there have been failures of rainfall that formerly would have meant the death of millions.

Women Voting in AAA Elections

Wives of co-operating farmers have been given the right to vote in AAA elections, and national leaders of the AAA recommend placing women on local and county AAA committees. The policy is adopted in recognition of the work being done in farm lots and fields by women whose husbands and sons are in the armed services or are in factories producing munitions of war.

Lightning Rods

Properly installed and well-maintained lightning rods on farm buildings are practically 100 per cent effective in preventing damage from lightning. Inspect lightning rods regularly.
