PUSH THIS COMMUNITY PROJECT

Several months ago through the suggestion and courtesy of Max Bird, a very attractive road sign made by the sign shop of the Umpqua national forest was secured for Cottage Grove. Materials for the sign are here, but for lack of help the sign was never erected. Perhaps as civic signs go they are not as effective as in the days when there was no gas rationing nor restriction on the use of tires. But the war can't last forever and the sign or signs we should say will serve a purpose now and a better one once the normal traffic is resumed on the highways.

A few people are holding the bag on little bills connected with the sign and they should be cleared up and the signs erected. This is one project the Chamber of Commerce could push to a conclusion and it should be done. The job could be done with voluntary labor.

PENALIZING THE INDUSTRIOUS

W. L. Baker, Hebron farmer, in talking to the Lions club last week touched on a subject that should receive increasing attention and this is with regard to a solution of one of the problems connected with taxing real property. Said Mr. Baker: "Every time a property owner cleans up his premises, repairs or paints his house, he increases the property value of the neighborhood just that much and he should not be penalized for the improvements made in the form of higher taxes." If a property owner is prideful enough to want his place to look better and proceeds to make the necessary improvements, then whatever value he has added to the property should not be assessed to his property alone. We heard one fellow say he was not going to paint his house because taxes would be increased. Even so, this is a weak excuse. If everybody took the same attitude, we might still be living in Indian teepees or caves. The thing to do is to remove the excuse by changing our tax system to a more equitable one.

WALLACE OUTLINES THE PEACE
(J. E. Jones)

Vice President Wallace appears to have taken a bunch of leaves out of Woodrow Wilson's records in appealing to the Nation to create a world-wide new democracy when it begins establishing the basis of peace that will follow the present war. He has laid down basic principles that call for the permanent disarmament of the Axis. He suggests a World Council and an International Court that would be able "to preserve the liberty, equality, security and unity of the United Nations—liberty in a political sense, equality of opportunity in international trade, security against war and business depression due to international causes, and unity of purpose in promoting the general welfare of the world."

In Washington where Mr. Wallace is best known he is regarded as an idealist, a near-dreamer, and a very fine man. He expresses ideas and convictions very much like those voiced by Wendell Willkie, except that he uses a gentle switch instead of a big stick.

But there's something doing—and those columnists and commentators who have pointed to Wallace as having flown a "trial balloon" for Messrs. Roosevelt and Churchill and the spirit expressed in the Atlantic Charter are getting pretty close to whatever may happen.

Once upon a time I heard an officer in the Navy predict that in years to come that the World would agree: "We have tried everything, and nothing has worked, let's try that plan left by Woodrow Wilson—it never has been tried—and maybe that's the right answer."

A STRONGER GOVERNMENT FORMING

The Constitution provides that the President shall "from time to time give to the congress information of the state of the union, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient."

There is nothing in the situation to justify the belief, which has appeared in so many newspapers and been voiced over the radio, that the 78th congress is "openly hostile to the President." When you come to analyze the situation you will find that the Administration and congress are in unity concerning measures to win the war.

Then what is the trouble? The answer is that the old congress lacked proper judgment when it transferred so many of its powers to the president, the result being that he passed on these powers to bureaucrats. Republicans and democrats have declared war on these little dictators—and no one defends them.

Operetta Scheduled for February
"Purple Towers," the annual high school operetta will be presented twice as the operetta was last year, with two casts. The costumes will be in keeping with the victory project as the boys will wear overalls and the girls sunbonnets. The entire glee club will take part.

Mental Marvel Entertains
William W. Lord, the mental marvel, entertained the high school studentbody Wednesday at 9:00 a. m. at a pay assembly sponsored by the Letter Girls.

Mr. Lord can write two long letters on unrelated subjects (one with each hand), conduct a conversation and work out a mathematical problem all at the same time. He has been featured many times in Ripley's "Believe It or Not." This entertaining, stimulating, thought-provoking man was brought by national assemblies.

One-Act Play
The Footlighters are to present a one-act play, entitled "Mario's Well," under the direction of Mrs. Julia Shick for the assembly today.

The cast of characters is: Mario, Richard Letsom; Marianno, Edith Gamet Wilson; Cippo, Delbert Miller; Beppe, Michael Quaglia; Rosena, Kay Taylor; Clementina, Gerry Kimble; Cecco, Earl Bridwell; Nino, Vance McCoy; Ermino, Ben Hickey; Bastiano, Charles Johnson. Every other member of the Footlighters is a citizen in the Italian village.

The plot centers around the inquisitive, contentious neighbors who try to "help" a man dig his well.

Awards to Football Squad
Howard Jenkins was awarded the Twin Oaks trophy and Neil Hammond awarded the letterman's trophy by Coach French January 8 at the award assembly sponsored by the boys' federation. The boys who won their letters were: Stanley Daugherty, manager; Merlyn Vashinder, Kenneth Hansen, Darrel Jenkins, John Edwards, Dean Addington, Arnold Earnshaw, Albert Hamilton, Howard Harpole, Norman Aubrey, Bob Daugherty, Bob Dugan, Jack Kennedy, Leo Roberts, Lee Krause, Neil Hammond, Howard Jenkins and Clyde DeWitt, the only freshman to win a letter.

Coach French remarked that this year the football squad was the largest ever turned out in Cottage Grove union high school.

Some of the boys will not be with us to play football next year as Dean Addington, Arnold Earnshaw and Albert Hamilton, who are either going in or are already in the armed forces. The seniors graduating are Norman Aubrey, Bob Daugherty, Bob Dugan, Jack Kennedy, Leo Roberts, Neil Hammond, Lee Krause, and Howard Jenkins.

Assembly January 22
The creative expression class, the first of its kind in this high school, is to present an assembly January 22. It will consist of outstanding original material written by the students of the first semester, including oral readings of stories, pantomimes, a burlesque operetta, streamlined Red Riding Hood, two or three poems and a monologue.

Draft Laws Explained
Boys seventeen years of age and older were called into a discussion on draft laws last Friday afternoon. Mr. Ferrin, Mr. Grannis and Mr. Davis gave suggestions and talks from information recently received from state draft headquarters. Possibilities of college work through enlistment in the armed forces were discussed.

Service Flag to Be Brought Up to Date
The home economics club is planning to undertake the job of bringing our service flag up to date with new stars. The flag now has 122 stars on it with over 150 more to be added to the constantly expanding number of students and ex-graduates of Cottage Grove union high school that are entering the service. A new flag will be necessary and many of the stars will be replaced with silver ones, in honor of the boys in action. It is much to be regretted that a few gold stars must be placed on the flag, too.

Interclass Basketball
The Gym Leaders club is going to start an interclass basketball league. Captains were appointed: Bob Dugan for the seniors, Dick Balch for the juniors, Leonard Barkemeyer for the sophomores, Wally Morelock and Cecil Martin for the freshmen. The games may be played at night, after school, or at noon with one-half game each noon. The first two games will be the seniors vs freshman and juniors vs sophomores.

Pre-Induction Course Started
The combined shop III and IV class under the supervision of Mr. Beghtol will start pre-induction courses in automobile mechanics and electricity at the beginning of the second semester. The courses are sent out by the army and planned so as to give the boys knowledge in these fields in case they must enter the armed forces.

Juniors Taking Journalism
The junior English class is taking journalism, the three remaining weeks of this six weeks period. They are being prepared so they will be able to put out the last two or three issues of the Newsette, because the seniors will be busy getting their own senior paper out.

The fourth period shorthand class is learning to make the stencils.

Sophs Lead
The sophomore class led in defense stamp sales January 7, with $68.95; the freshmen were second with $39.95; the juniors placed third with $17, and the seniors last with $13.75, making a total of $139.65.

Hammond Signs Up
Neil Hammond, senior class president, joined the naval air corps last week. He plans to finish high school, then go into basic training. After he has been in basic training for three months he will be sent to Corpus Christi, Texas, or Pensacola, Florida, for three months.

Joins Marines
Dean Addington, junior, and member of the football team, has joined the U. S. Marines, but because his father is in the hospital he will probably not be called until sometime in May. He withdrew from school last week.

School Briefs
Lee Nixon, driver of bus No. 5, returned to work January 5 after a period of four weeks' illness due to an operation.

Mrs. John Hathaway of Delight Valley drove the bus during Mr. Nixon's absence.

Latham
Mrs. Elsie Laird and son Bobbie are now living with Mrs. Laird's daughter in Kansas City. Mrs. Laird is employed. Richard Laird who is in the air corps is at Sheppard Field, Texas.

Marvyn Harris has been transferred to Bloomington, Illinois, where he is attending automobile school.

Allen Boswell entered the Latham school Monday.

Among those from this vicinity in Eugene Monday were Lyman Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Trunnell. Hugh Trunnell attended the Food for Freedom school. Those attending will visit every farm in the county to survey conditions for producing food, for need of machinery, manpower and farm transportation.

Lester Harris of Camp White, Medford, was home for the week end.

Albert Doney is now in the infantry at Spartansburg, South Carolina.

Homer Hull has been transferred to Rice, California.

Vida Beers is employed in the infant's department in a Salem hospital.

Chickenpox is in the neighborhood.

Lynx Hollow
Mrs. Hugh McCormick was hostess recently to the Community club. Ten members were present. The members voted to plan a play in the near future to raise money to buy a victory bond. Next meeting will be on January 20 at the W. M. Moore cottage. Mrs. Lyle Taylor will be hostess and work will be on the first aid unit quilts.

A farewell party was held recently by about twenty friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wolfard. Having sold their ranch in the Hollow to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wolfard, they left for Portland to visit relatives until they decide where they will settle.

Pvt. Carl Moore of Camp White at Medford spent a few hours furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Moore recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pentico left recently for Long Beach, California, to visit their son Cody who is employed at an airplane factory.

Helping hand

One reason you see so much advertising is this:

It helps people with something to sell to find customers.

It helps those folks called "consumers" to find out about things they want to buy.

All of which is another way of saying, advertising saves a lot of time for everyone.

That's why advertising pays — on both sides of the counter.
