Ginger Weds Private Briggs

Hollywood got a double surprise last weekend, for no sooner did Ginger Rogers announce her engagement to Private Jack Briggs, USMC, than she married him. The ceremony took place Saturday in Pasadena.

WEELDREYER-TERVEEN

(Donna, Texas, News-Advocate) Marriage vows were spoken by the Rev. L. Hoeffner on Tuesday, December 29th at 7:30 in the evening for Miss Esther Terveen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Terveen, and H. H. Weeldreyer of Cottage Grove, Oregon.

The home of the bride's parents was the scene of this wedding which claimed much interest here. Poinsettias, holly and fern decorated the reception rooms. An improvised altar at one end of the long living room was decorated with poinsettias, harmonizing colored gladiola blossoms, and ivy.

Mrs. B. F. Taylor, sister of the bride, accompanied Mrs. Lawrence Terveen for the pre-nuptial solo, "Because" and gave Mendelssohn's wedding march for the entrance of the bridal party.

Mrs. Taylor wore a gold ensemble and had yellow gladiola blossoms in a corsage while the soloist wore pink gladiola in corsage with her royal blue costume.

The bride who entered with her sister, Mrs. C. M. Holland as matron of honor, wore a heavenly blue two piece jersey dress and a ribbon hat of matching color. Her accessories were black and white swansonia formed her corsage. The matron of honor wore a dusty rose ensemble with black accessories. Her flowers were gerbera daisies.

The groom wore a suit of blue, with a white rose bud fastened in the lapel. He was attended by Lawrence Terveen, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother in a blue print jersey dress and corsage of talisman roses was assisted in serving the refreshments by another daughter, Mrs. Hikko Brown. She wore callandra in corsage on her black suit.

The bride's lace laid table was centered with a large three tiered wedding cake. White tapers and poinsettias flanked the confection. A salad plate with coffee was served after the bride had cut her cake.

Forty Donna friends and relatives, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Taylor of Wasco, Texas, and Miss Emily Margerum of Palacios, Texas were guests.

The bride is a graduate of Donna high school, and Arts and Industries College in Kingsville, Texas. She had been a member of the Penitas, South Palm Garden and Donna school faculties.

After January 15, Mr. and Mrs. Weeldreyer will be at home in Cottage Grove, Oregon, where the former has a tire repair shop. They will make the trip to their new home by car.
