LEGIONNAIRES PLAN DEFERRED FROLIC

Among the latent issues discussed at the regular monthly meeting of the American Legion Monday evening was the matter of holding the New Year Frolic, postponed at the first of the month on account of the high waters. Members decided to hold the frolic or dance at some future date and that anyone holding a ticket could either use the ticket at the coming event or get a refund. For the information of the public, the monies collected over expenses would be used to pay the dues of any Legionnaire of the post on active duty. As there are several, the post hopes to have the cooperation of the public in this endeavor.

It was the consensus of opinion among the post membership that it would wait for a clarification of the service officer situation in regard to Thomas Collins and so tabled and post action.

Due to an oversight no mention was made of the American Legion's support of the milk fund drive and this notice is given to ask members of the post to sponsor a post offering to the Lions club.

It was also announced that the committee on entertainment would again function for the coming dance.

A resolution for the education of the war orphans was ordered referred to the state department for action.

The next regular meeting will be February 15th. A fine turnout was had at the meeting Monday evening despite the weather.

WATCH OUT FOR CALCIUM CHLORIDE

Complaints in alarming numbers are being received by the Office of Defense Transportation and the Portland Better Business Bureau from motorists who have used anti-freezes containing calcium chloride, according to a statement issued today by Lyle L. Janz, manager of the Portland Better Business Bureau. The longer these brine solutions stay in cars, the more damage will be done to many of the nation's automobiles, Janz warned.

Herman O. Sites, district manager of the Office of Defense Transportation stated that his office is being flooded with complaints, not only from this area, but the entire Pacific region and pointed out that due to the critical shortages of parts and materials it is vital that every car owner immediately determine the nature of the anti-freeze now in his automobile cooling system.

Millers Hand C. G. 2nd Season Defeat

The Springfield Millers handed Cottage Grove its second league setback in as many starts as they romped through the Lions 35-18 here Friday night.

The Lions got off to a slow start as Springfield pushed in 8 points before the Lions could score, that on a free throw by Elfving. As the first half ended Springfield had an eight point advantage over the Lions making the count 14-6. Led by Cowan, Dowell and Stratton Springfield increased its lead to 24-10 while holding the Lions to one lone field goal by Elfving. In the last half it was a matter of time. With Springfield holding a safe lead, the Millers slowed down but still managed to outscore the Lions 11-8 in the last quarter as the game ended 35-18. The game was a fast-moving affair with few fouls called on either team. Cowan, Miller forward, was easily the most outstanding man on the floor. Connecting with four fielders and five free throws out of six attempts, led the Millers with 13 points. Howard Harpole and Gordon Elfving showed well for the Lions. The lineup:

Bonus meats in the menu

There's no need of too much worry about making your meat allowance stretch when there are all those delicious bonus meats that can be had (at least at this writing). I speak of sundry meats such as liver, heart, kidney, pigs' feet and all those extras that don't come in on the meat quota.

As far as nutritional value goes, they have everything that other meats have, and in most cases, more too. Liver, heart, and kidney are right on top of the list when it comes to contributing iron to the diet. They're vitamin foods, too, for they contain vitamins A, B, C, and some D.

If you've built up a psychological resistance toward them, it is most likely because you've probably never tried them. But if you like chicken gizzards, then you're bound to like these bonus meats.

MOCK GIBLET NOODLES—Saute small pieces of liver or kidney or pre-cooked heart in hot shortening. Make a sauce out of the pan drippings or use mushroom sauce and add meat and sauce to hot noodles. Don't pass judgment on sundries until you've tried this dish.

SPANISH KIDNEY—Remove white centers and tubes of kidneys, slice into thin slices, brown quickly in hot shortening along with chopped onion. Cover with tomato sauce or canned tomatoes and steam for about 15 minutes. Serve with rice or spaghetti.

LIVER BURGERS—Grind uncooked liver, using the coarse knife of the grinder, add about 1/2 as much bread crumbs, chopped onions and seasonings to taste. Add enough beaten egg or evaporated milk to bind mixture. Shape into patties and fry quickly Grand with whole kernel corn.

Almost everyone likes a mystery—almost everyone enjoys the thrilling excitement of tracking down a criminal with an ace detective. But some are a little ashamed to admit reading mysteries. Well—you needn't be.

Maybe you didn't know that many college professors, bank presidents, great scientists, captains of industry, even the President of the United States all like their mysteries. In fact, millions of Americans are reading more mysteries today than ever before. Why?—Mainly because these fast-paced, easy-reading stories are both relaxing and refreshing. It is for them—and for you—that we are publishing

Ellery Queen's Mystery Magazine

Edited by Ellery Queen, famous detective of the radio, the movies, and best-seller books, it is devoted exclusively to the best in detective crime short-story literature. And we mean literature. The fact that a story owes its plot to crime and detection need not prevent its being well written. Short detective fiction that is well written is not too readily available. But we are finding them—in books, in magazines, in the files of famous authors—and by arrangement with other publishers as well as with authors, we reprint in the approved Reader's Digest manner the best detective fiction to be procured.

Such masters as Dashiell Hammett, Agatha Christie, Stuart Palmer and Ellery Queen are to be found in it. But stories are selected on their merits, not on authors' names. Tough and suave, casual and swift, comic and tragic, they are mingled with refreshing variety and stimulating change of pace. Rare gems, fit for the most critical, delightful to the most naive. You will find the new magazine well printed—sharp and clear, kind to the eyes. You will find the size same as The Reader's Digest—convenient to hold, to handle, to slip into your pocket. You will find the cover as pleasing to look at as a book jacket. And you will find the contents the most satisfying quarter's worth of good entertainment you have found in many a day.
