

New Laws Affect Operation of Cars And Trucks in Ore.

Three laws changing driver's license provisions in Oregon and two affecting motor vehicle regulations requested by the state department are now in effect, having been signed by the governor, Robert S. Farrell Jr., secretary of state, disclosed today.

The new laws:

1. Provide that persons 16 to 18 years of age may obtain restricted chauffeur's licenses.
2. Extend current driver's license period from June 30, 1945, to June 30, 1945.
3. Repeal outright the law requiring examination of applicants for renewal of driver's licenses.
4. Eliminate the need for an affidavit of use in registration of farm trucks.
5. Provide a flat fee of $1 for a continuous trip permit to move an unlicensed vehicle.

The chauffeur's license act and the farm affidavit act carried the emergency clause and are now in effect.

Under the amended law, persons 16 to 18 years of age, who obtain the written endorsement of the sheriff and county judge of their county of residence, may apply for permits to operate commercial vehicles. Formerly such permits were not available to anyone under 18 years of age. Persons who are granted these permits, however, are not permitted to operate school busses, motor busses, emergency vehicles or taxicabs.

All persons who hold the 1941-1943 driver's licenses may continue to drive with these licenses till June 30, 1945, Farrell explained. Those who are not now licensed, however, must pass the standard Oregon driver's license examination before receiving their permits. Persons 70 years of age or older, who apply for renewals, must take the examination till after June 9, the date the law eliminating the examination requirement becomes effective.

In 1941 the legislature enacted a law requiring every driver to submit to the examination at least once every four years. This, Farrell said, would have meant that upwards of 400,000 licensed drivers in Oregon would have been required to take the examination this summer. Elimination of this provision was deemed necessary as a war measure, due to shortage of help available for conducting these examinations and handling the renewal period.

Farmers who register farm trucks now are not required to provide an affidavit, sworn before a notary public, concerning the use of the vehicle, the secretary of state said. This is expected to make vehicle registration much simpler for farmers in this state.

The new law enabling persons to obtain permits to move an unlicensed vehicle for a flat fee of one dollar becomes effective June 9. Previously a fee of one-twelfth the regular registration fee was charged for all commercial type vehicles.

LORANE GRANGE MEETS

At a meeting of the Lorane grange last Thursday evening, grange members agreed to donate the ground back of the grange hall for a victory garden. Paul Rautage was obligated at the meeting. Mrs. Vera Pike, lecturer, had charge of the program. Cleaning and leveling the grounds at the grange hall was discussed by the membership.

Track Meets to Be Held

News that will gladden the hearts of local track enthusiasts was received by Coach Curtis French, Monday. The State Athletic association has definitely decided to hold the district and state meets, although the Hayward relays have been called off for the duration.

Both the state and district meets this year will be held in Eugene the latter part of May. Coach French hopes to schedule dual meets with Springfield and Roseburg.

Because of bad weather the track squad has been held at its daily workouts in the gym.

Student Body Election April 9

Primary elections for the student body officers for the year of 1945-1946 will be held April 9. The candidates are as follows: President, Howard Harpole; Richard Chambers, Kenneth Hanson; vice president, Mary Gasper; Elvin Howell, Dick Balch; secretary, Sara Bjorset; Mildred Collier, Joan K'ing; Joan Short; treasurer, Elma Pollock; business manager, Richard Chambers and Elvin Howell; advertising manager, Stanley Daugherty; Bob Bauer, Keith Wooley; editor, Kay Taylor and Vivian Pollock.

Tryouts March 25

The final tryouts of the local public speaking contest were held Thursday, March 25. The results were: Neil Hammond and Lucille Tonole for radio speaking; Bob Daugherty for extemporaneous speaking; Miss Parks, Mrs. Wolff and Mr. Grannis were the judges and selected these three from several students. The contestants and Mrs. Wolff will leave Friday morning for Eugene, where the contest will be held on the University of Oregon campus.

Radio Conference

A teachers' radio conference was held Monday at 2:50 p. m. in room 10. Teachers from near grade school districts and high school were present. This radio conference is in place of the annual Oregon State Teachers' association meeting.

The main topics of the program were on "Educational Legislation" and "Curricular Planning for the Post-War Period."

Three discussion groups were led by Mr. Grannis, Mr. Bagniol and Mrs. Grace Cowan, respectively, for one hour after the program.

The afternoon was ended with refreshments and a social hour in the home economics department.

Speaker on National Defense

Charles Boliver, from the state department, spoke on national defense March 25, at the high school auditorium.

Mr. Boliver gave the figures of production a year ago compared to what we are producing now. He mentioned amazing things which will probably be invented after the war. He then told about the work of airplane spotters, the filter centers, army information center, warning center, patrol center and how they work together.

A movie showing air-raid wardens in action was shown. He told about mustard and Lewisite gases, and proper control in gassed areas. He showed us a gas mask and explained how it was constructed. He also explained how "rubber cows" work.

Mr. Boliver spoke to the assembly, then continued his talk to history, social economic and social science classes.

Classes in disposal of bombs, what to do in gassed areas, and so will be organized soon.

Dr. Kratt Speaks

Dr. Theodore Kratt, dean of music at the University of Oregon, spoke on music appreciation Friday in the high school auditorium.

Dr. Kratt said "music is a language composed of the melody (thought) harmony, rhythm and tone color."

In the future Dr. Kratt hoped there would be legislation against song stealing, low admission costs to concerts and better appreciation of American composers.

Dr. Kratt played a simple melody, changing the rhythm to demonstrate what a difference it made in the song.

From melodies submitted by three students he chose one by Helen Smith, and composed a song from it.

Mrs. VanNortwick Speaker

Mrs. Hazel VanNortwick was the guest speaker at the last girls' league meeting. Her topic was "The Art of Charm." Other numbers on the program were a vocal solo by Ann Armstrong and a piano solo by Shirley LaBlue.

An all-girls party was scheduled for April 2. It was decided to have four candidates for May Queen from the senior class, with a princess from each of the three lower classes.

First Half Volleyball

The first half of the intramural volleyball schedule ended in a three-way tie for first place with seniors, juniors and freshmen all having two games won and one lost. With two games played in the second half both the seniors and freshmen have been knocked from first place, leaving the juniors in the lead. The sophomores won from the seniors in the first second-half game and the juniors won from the freshmen in the second game.

School Briefs

"Son of the Swastika," written by Geraldine Kimble, sophomore, which is scheduled for open house will also be presented Friday, April 2, at the assembly.

The boys' federation were entertained Friday with a movie, "Target for Tonight." It was an English war picture concerning a British Air Squadron, "F" for Freddy, and a bombing raid on a German town. It told of the careful British planning of the raid so that every plane got back safely.

Billy Hopman, a graduate of last year, and his sister Eva, also a former student of this school, visited here Friday. Bill had just returned from Pecos, Texas, Thursday, where he has been training for the air corps. He seems to like the work very much and will return to Pecos April 2.

An all-girls girls' league party will be held in the high school gymnasium Friday, April 2, at 7:30 p. m. The party will consist of an informal get-together for all high school girls. The program will be games and dancing.

Boys who are planning on taking the A-12 army examination or the V-12 navy examination for officers training will do so Friday, April 9, from 9 a. m. to 11 a. m.

Tryouts for the senior play "Lost Horizon" will be held Monday, April 5, after school. All students who try out must be able to practice every weeknight after school.

Jewelers Help

Three tons of jewelry dies, originally costing over $250,000, were contributed to the scrap drive by a manufacturing jeweler in New York city.

Silk Creek

Supt. Silas E. Fairham of Salem will preach at the Silk Creek church next Sunday, April 4 at 10 o'clock. Everybody in the community is invited to attend this Sunday morning service.

Word has been received from A/C Robert Woolcott that he has been confined to a hospital for a week while suffering from an attack of flu. Robert is stationed at Childress, Texas, where he is in training as a bombardier.

The Neighborhood Friendship club meets today at the home of Mrs. Oliver Schell.

The drive for war funds by the National Red Cross has been completed in the Silk Creek community, but the total funds collected has not been announced. Misses Hazel Hudgins, Reta Overholser, Marcia Allen and Marion Woolcott had charge of collecting the community's contributions.

Mrs. Ernest Hathaway and two small children Esther and David are making an extended visit at the home of Mrs. Hathaway's mother in Ridgefield, Washington. Loren Hibbard, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hibbard, is here at the home of his parents after receiving a medical discharge from the army. He has been stationed at Camp Roberts, California.

E. R. Darnell left Thursday for Laurewood where he visited over the week end with his wife and two daughters, Zelda and Mariel Jean.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zehner were Sunday guests at a family reunion at the home of Mr. Zehner's parents at Goshen, honoring a brother, Lester Zehner, who is home on a furlough from San Diego where he is stationed with the navy.

Mrs. Orville Hibbard is caring for her mother, Mrs. Clifton, in Cottage Grove, who is quite ill.

Mrs. Jennie Walker of Eugene is visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Babcock. Mrs. Walker is Mrs. Babcock's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Allen were Sunday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cooley in Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cooley and W. F. Allen of Cottage Grove were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Allen and family.

Mrs. Bernice Abene has returned here to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williams, after visiting with her husband who is stationed in California with the army.

ARMY OFFICER TO SHOW FILMS

Tomorrow evening, Friday, there will be an army officer here from the Eugene filter center to show films of just what would take place if an enemy plane should come over and how the situation would be handled. These pictures will be shown in the union high school auditorium at 8:00 o'clock and the public as well as all defense workers, is urged to be present. All defense workers which includes airplane watchers, fire wardens, fire watchers, air raid wardens, first aiders and police reserves are requested to be present. This is not only for the people of Cottage Grove, but for all those in the outlying districts who can possibly attend.

PENNEY'S 41st ANNIVERSARY

smart pajamas...
new clothes for the kids.

NOT just a bolt of Yard Goods, it's much more than that! It's the hundreds of useful and pretty things into which the clever fingers of women can transform it. In a sense, this simple bolt of Yard Goods symbolizes a great American business—the J. C. Penney Company.

From the outside this first Penney store looked far from impressive. Inside, though, people discovered it was different. For it set a new pattern of low-cost retail store service as neighborly and as typically American as ride-sharing and quilting bees!

Yard Goods were a major part of the stock in trade of Mr. J. C. Penney's first little store—opened 41 years ago in Kemmerer, Wyoming.

Mr. Penney didn't think "How much can I take?" but "How much can I give?" He cut out useless frills, charge accounts and deliveries; pared prices to the bone; preferred many sales at small profit to a few at large profit.

THE PENNEY IDEA GREW—TODAY PENNEY STORES DOT THE MAP!

Kemmerer took to that first Penney store! So did Moscow, Idaho later on. And Salt Lake City, Utah. And San Antonio, Texas. And today there are over 1600 Penney stores in all 48 states.

For every hundred dollars worth of sheets, or blankets, or shoes, or yard goods the Penney store sells in Peoria, Illinois or Savannah, Georgia, it pays back honest and substantial savings. For every hundred dresses, or shirts, or overalls it sells in Waltham, Massachusetts, or Stockton, California, or Chillicothe, Ohio, it pays back rich dividends in local salaries, advertising, rent and taxes.

Today Penney stores from Coast to Coast, in neighborly fashion, are helping to balance the household budgets of millions of Americans. Today Mr. Penney's 41 year old idea of success through giving, rather than taking, is still the Penney way.
