Lost Horizon Tryouts.

Tryouts were held April 5 and 6 for the play "Lost Horizon" by James Hilton, which is this year's senior selection. This is a more serious play than seniors have attempted before and will require much work and artistic talent. Over twenty seniors have tried for parts. The play will be directed by Julia Shick.

Speaking Contest

Lucille Tonoli and Neil Hammond entered radio speaking and Bob Daugherty entered extemporaneous speaking in a state-wide public speaking contest held Friday and Saturday, April 2 and 3, at the University of Oregon.

Students from all over the state attended. The day was composed of debates, discussion groups, radio speaking and extemporaneous speaking.

Mrs. Wolff went with these students to Eugene, and Friday evening they attended a banquet at Seymour's cafe in honor of the "public speaker."

The finals were held Saturday afternoon and evening and were broadcast over KOAC. No one from Cottage Grove attended the finals.

League Party

The girls' league sponsored a party April 2. They played games, danced and tumbled. Neil Hammond and Bob Daugherty crashed the party dressed as girls. They looked out of place, though, because most of the girls wore slacks. Bob and Neil were put through the spanking machine, instructed in tumbling, treated to a double-dip ice cream cone (as were the rest of the girls) and kicked out. Mrs. Loveless, Miss Stevenson, Mrs. Shelley, Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Shick were faculty guests.

Students Entertained

The students were entertained by the dramatic play entitled "The Son of the Swastika" written by Jerry Kimble, narrated by Kenneth Franklin and presented by the Footlighters' club. This play is also to be given for open house April 9. Preceding this play, a patriotic skit entitled "For Want of a Nail" was given. The assembly was opened by Charles Cooley, vice president, who led in the pledge to the flag. The National Anthem was sung by the student body.

Basketball Letters Awarded

Harold Wicks, captain of the basketball team, was awarded the Lettermen's Trophy April 2. Basketball letters were awarded: Clyde DeWitt, freshman; Johnny Edwards, junior; Jack Montieth, senior; Marvin Kling, senior; Bob Daugherty, senior; and Gordon Elfvig, senior. Stan Daugherty and Howard Harpole were given certificates since they had received their letters the previous year. After giving the awards, Coach French expressed his appreciation to the pep club and student body for their support.

Mr. Beghtol awarded letters to the B squad: Leonard Barkemeyer, Edwin Howell, Harlan Chapman, Ben Hickey, Don Wickendal, Eston Wicks, Duwayne Carpenter, Reg Land, Jerry Mickey, John Edwards and Bob Stroup.

Kabler Speaker

Douglas Kabler, chief petty officer, radio division, U. S. navy, spoke April 1 in the high school auditorium. He is a brother of Donald Kabler, ag teacher in the high school. Douglas has been in three major sea battles, having served in the navy for the past five years. He was at Pearl Harbor on December 7.

Air Corps Exams

Army air corps examinations were taken last week at Portland by Richard and Roland Letson, Jack Montieth, Jack Kennedy, Earl Bridwell, Vernon Stout, Miller Smith and Lee Krause, all seniors.

Richard and Roland Letson, Jack Montieth and Jack Kennedy passed exams in: Mathematics, physics, English and reasoning problems. Richard and Roland were rejected in their physical tests but the others have not completed the physical test.

Annual Track Meet

The annual state track meet held this year at Eugene May 8 will be a one-day affair instead of the customary two days. This is so no problems of housing will arise. Also only first places from the district meets will enter instead of the first two as in previous years.

Juniors Win

By winning their one remaining game with the seniors the juniors can clinch the intramural volleyball tournament. They have won four games and lost one. The freshmen are next with three won and two lost. The seniors and sophomores follow respectively. Games played in the second half are as follows: Sophomores won from seniors; juniors won from freshmen, freshmen won from seniors, juniors won from sophomores.

H-Y Elects

The H-Y club met in the cafeteria Monday evening for a pot-luck supper and to elect officers. The officers elected were: president, Kenny Hansen; vice president, Howard Harpole; secretary, Ivan Hayer; treasurer, Bob Bau-

der. Plans for future meetings were made and the projects to be handled for the good of the school were discussed.

F F A Project

Fred Wright has agreed to take care of the F.F.A. boar. He will feed and care for the boar for two years after which time he will own the pig. The boar will be used for any ag members who have the care of a pig as a project. Raleigh Mapes has purchased a registered Chester White Gilt.

Club Dropped

The Newsette club has been dropped for the remainder of the year, and the juniors are now taking over the writing of stories for the paper in their English classes. The seniors still write some stories but most of the credit goes to the juniors for their work, as the seniors are now working on their senior edition of the Newsette.

School Briefs

The V-12 and A-12 examination for navy and army officer training were given at the high school April 2. Sixteen boys took this examination, two from Drain high school.

All girls participating in sports are going to be very busy the next few weeks. Since school is almost out, new officers must be chosen. Also an outstanding GAA and Lettermen girl must be chosen. Every senior girl who is participating in sports looks forward to the award given to the outstanding senior girl.

Tommy Jean Hammons, freshman, entered school Monday from Los Animas county, Colorado.

Phyllis Baldwin, a member of the sophomore class, returned to school Tuesday after a week's absence, while visiting her mother in Seattle, Washington. While there Phyllis visited the Coast Guard base and went through the building. She also had the privilege of seeing "Arsenic and Old Lace" a stage play, at the Metropolitan theater, and met Boris Karloff and other New York stage players. Phyllis reports that Seattle is really a thriving metropolis, with all the war projects. She also reports having a very nice time and plans to go back as soon as school is out for a longer stay.

The seniors led the stamp sales for March 25 with a total of $70.75; sophomores were second with $9.65, freshmen $7.15, and juniors $1.75. The total amount collected was $89.30.

Cedars

Miss Viola Rohde of Portland spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rohde.

Mrs. Frankie Callison of Eugene is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hemenway.

Herman Rudolf had the misfortune of cutting his chin while cutting wood and had to have five stitches taken in it.

Mr. and Mrs. McClanahan and son Homer, of Prineville, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur McFarland. Mr. McClanahan and Homer went to southern Oregon and Mrs. McClanahan is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McFarland until they return.

About half of the pupils of Cedar school are at home with the mumps.

The Cedar Ladies club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. N. E. Compton with Mrs. Kermit Sams as hostess. A dessert luncheon was served followed by a handkerchief shower given to Mrs. Myrtle Powers who will soon leave for Seattle, Washington. A quiz program was held and Mrs. Powers won first prize, Mrs. Compton second and Mrs. Peacock third.

Skipper Infestation of Stored Meat

The best method for keeping skipper out of meat is to keep flies from coming in contact with the meat while the meat is being handled. A dark, cool, well-ventilated fly-proof smoke house is a great help in this respect. Occasional smoking of the meat during summer storage will also be helpful. Another method is to wrap the meat in paper and muslin and hang in the smoke house.

Canadian Ore Discovery

Ores of molybdenite, a valuable war mineral, have been discovered in the Province of Quebec, Canada.

WHAT A LIFE
Dr. H. A. Hagen
It's the dawn, not the dusk of democracy.

Joy that isn't shared with someone else dies young.

One good thing you can give and still keep is your word.

Yesterday: A short change artist from whom we can never recover.

If what you did yesterday seems big to you, you haven't done much today.

Too much money is liable to make a man unhappy, unless he has it himself.

Music is the only language in which you cannot say a mean or sarcastic thing.

A rich man is one who isn't afraid to ask the clerk to show him something cheaper.

True fellowship is like sound health—its value is seldom appreciated until it is lost.

Another good memory test is to try and remember what you worried about yesterday.

The man who trusts men will make fewer mistakes than he who distrusts them—Cavour.

Happiness grows at our own firesides and is not to be picked in strangers' gardens.—Douglas Jerrold.

Any man will naturally hesitate to question his wife's judgment when he remembers whom she married.

Said Expectatus: Nature has given to man one tongue, but two ears, that we may hear from others twice as much as we speak.

If a man runs after money, he's a capitalist. If he keeps it—he's a capitalist. If he spends it—he's a playboy. If he doesn't get it, he lacks ambition. If he gets it without working—he's a parasite. If he gets it after a life of hard labor—he's a fool who got nothing from life.—Fraternal Monitor.

The tombstone of a genial host bears his name and the simple epitaph: "This is on me."

Grandma says that in her girlhood days, the girls never thought of doing the things they do today, and then she added wistfully, "That's why we didn't do them."

Said the small boy: "M, maw and paw had an awful time getting married. Maw wouldn't marry paw when he was drunk and paw wouldn't marry maw when he was sober."

In men whom men pronounce as ill I find a lot of goodness still, in men whom men pronounce divine I find a lot of sin and blot.

I hesitate to draw the line, Between the two, where God has not—Miller.

"You sold me a car two weeks ago."

"Tell me again all you said about it then. I'm getting discouraged."

Mountain Guide: "Be careful not to fall here. It's dangerous. But, if you do fall remember to look to the left, you get a wonderful view."

They were training Mandy to her duties as maid. Upon answering the phone the first day, she brought no message, but explained: "Twain's nobody, 'jes a man says: 'It's a long distance from New York'; and I says, 'Yes sir, it certainly is.'"

Satan: What are you laughing at?

Junior Devil: I just locked a woman in a room with a thousand hats and no mirrors.
