CHURCH CEREMONY PERFORMED AMID FLORAL SETTING

An arrangement of white gladioluses, snapdragons and delphiniums made a beautiful setting Saturday, July 17, at St. Mary's Catholic church, Eugene, for the wedding of Miss Donna Safley, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Safley, Eugene, and Corporal Nick J. Hanauska, U. S. army signal corps, formerly of Woodburn. The ceremony was performed by Father Sohler at 10:00 a. m. before a large group of relatives and friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Delbert Safley, wore a suit of gray with blue and white accessories, and a corsage of orchids.

Miss Dorothy Safley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and her only attendant.

Stanley Lorange was best man for Corporal Hanauska. Ushers were Kenneth Safley and Lester Gately.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Safley. Mrs. Lester Gately, sister of the bride, cut the wedding cake and Geraldine Hanauska poured. Mrs. Delbert Safley and Mrs. Lawrence Pickert, aunt of the bride, assisted in serving.

After a short wedding trip in Oregon, the couple will be at home in Sacramento, California, where Corporal Hanauska is stationed.

Miss Safley was a former Cottage Grove resident where she attended the local schools.

BRIDAL SHOWER HONORING MISS SAFLEY

Miss Donna Safley of Eugene was honored recently with a bridal shower by Mrs. George Jacobsen and Mrs. Glen Wilson at the Jacobsen home. Those present were Mrs. Harold Spriggs, Mrs. Charles Belcher, Mrs. Henry Molino of San Diego, Miss Gail Lindamood, Mrs. Maude Wright, Mrs. Harley Gates, Mrs. Dale Gates, Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Mrs. Ren Sanford, Mrs. Frank Galdabini, Mrs. Lester Gates, Mrs. S. L. Mackin, Mrs. Ben Gerl, Mrs. Kenneth Safley, Mrs. Margaret Safley, Miss Dorothy Safley, the guest of honor and the hostesses.

Miss Safley was married Saturday to Corporal Nick J. Hanauska.

EXCHANGE DESSERT BY GUILD

An exchange dessert was enjoyed by the Service Guild of the Methodist church recently in the church dining room. Mrs. Frank Brown was a guest and was welcomed as a new member. Devotions were led by Mrs. Wayne Monroe and Mrs. Hadley Arthur was in charge of the program which was on Jason Lee and the settling of Oregon. The remainder of the evening was spent with needlework and socially. The Guild will meet again August 19.

UTOPIA PICNIC

The annual Utopia picnic was held recently on the lawn of Mrs. H. B. Ferrin with husbands and families of the members as guests. Additional invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clark, Mrs. Marion Richmond and two children, all of Los Angeles, California, houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Durham; Mrs. J. A. Powell, Mrs. Faye Stewart and two children, and Mrs. Barbara Hand.

WESTMINSTER GUILD

Miss Miriam Ferrin was hostess recently to the Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church at which time the evening was spent rolling bandages for the Chinese which was followed by a social time and refreshments. The Misses Janet and Anna Peterson will entertain the Guild at the next meeting which will be August 11.

LA COMUS DESSERT

Mrs. George Jacobsen was hostess Tuesday to the La Comus club at a 1:00 o'clock dessert with three guests present. Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Mrs. Glen Wilson and Mrs. Elsie Gerl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacobsen who is visiting here from Los Angeles. High score was received by Mrs. Jacobsen. The club decided to disband until fall.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH, SALEM SCENE OF NUPITAL RITES

St. Joseph's Catholic church of Salem was the scene of a lovely wedding Sunday, July 18, at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon when Miss Ronagene Beilke, daughter of Mrs. Clair Beilke, became the bride of Anthony J. Fraiola, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fraiola of Murray Hill, New Jersey. Father D. L. O'Connell officiated at the rites and the altar boy was Jack Suing. Singing preceded the ceremony by Wayne Muessey who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, who was given in marriage by William L. LaDue, wore a princess model white satin gown with a sweetheart neckline and a necklace of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her lace-edged fingertip length veil fell from a Juliet cap of seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses, gardenia and bouvardia.

Miss Annette Fraiola of Murray Hill, New Jersey, sister of the bridegroom, was the honor attendant. Her dress was of light green organza and she wore a tiara of gladioluses in her hair. Her nosegay was of pastel summer flowers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Phyllis Beilke, sister of the bride, and Miss Ruth Bettis. Miss Beilke wore an orchid gown and Miss Bettis wore pink, both fashioned after the bride's gown. Both bridesmaids wore tiaras of summer flowers in their hair and carried nosegays of pastel summer flowers.

Serving as ringbearer was little Billy Randall of Cottage Grove. Elmer Harold was best man for Mr. Fraiola and ushers were John Macy, Bill Hanauska and Don Barnick.

A reception followed for the members of the two families, the bridal party and close friends at the home of the bride's mother.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches, the couple will make their home in Salem.

Miss Beilke is a graduate of Salem high school and attended Linfield College and Willamette University and is a member of the Phi Beta sorority.

Mr. Fraiola is a graduate of the Summit, New Jersey, high school and this year will be a senior at Willamette University and is affiliated with Sigma Tau fraternity.

Mr. Fraiola was a roommate of Vinal T. Randall Jr. while at Willamette University and was well known here as he visited several times at the Randall home.

Those attending the wedding from here were Mrs. Vinal Randall and children Billy and Ivona, Mrs. J. A. Powell, Misses Janet and Anna Peterson and Miss Faye Nixon.

Refreshments were served in the beautifully decorated dining room by Donna Porterfield, Doris Ewing, June Malcolm, Joyce Land and Thelma Murrell.

VEATCH ANNUAL PICNIC

The Veatch annual picnic was held in the city park Sunday with a bounteous dinner enjoyed at the noon hour. The day was spent with visiting and telling of stories by each one. Our ranks are thinning out, most of us are facing the sunset of life, but let us go on cheerfully and unafraid. The old officers hold over until next year. Winnie Mosby, secretary, and Fannie E. Goude, president.

MISS BJORSET WEDES ARMY OFFICER

An impressive wedding ceremony Friday, July 16, was that of Miss Dorris Aagot Bjorset, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Georg Bjorset, and Lieutenant Jean Edmund Duffy Jr., U. S. army air force, son of Mrs. Emily Johnson Duffy of Fallbrook, California, at the home of the bride's parents. The double ring service was read at high noon before the fireplace, which was banked with white gladioluses and greenery, by the Rev. Paul Joy, pastor of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of about thirty relatives and friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white marquisette. She carried a white Bible and her paternal grandmother's Lutheran cross, with a shower of stephanotis being arranged from the Bible and cross and an arrangement of stephanotis in her hair.

Miss Sara Bjorset, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and her only attendant. Her dress was of pale green marquisette and she carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses.

Proceeding the ceremony Arthur Hendershott of Eugene played violin selections and also played the wedding marches from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn.

A reception followed at which Mrs. Clyde W. Osborne of Portland poured and Mrs. W. H. Daugherty and Mrs. Herbert Lombard served the salads at a buffet luncheon. The bride's table was centered with a bowl of pink roses.

Those present at the wedding and reception were Mrs. Emily Johnson Duffy, mother of the groom, who came north for the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sikes of Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Osborne of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Daugherty, Miss Anna Daugherty, Mrs. Norman Richards, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Blickle, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lombard, Marie and Herbert Lombard Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Workman, the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Joy, Miss Genevieve Mulvihill, Miss Anna Peterson, Miss Doris Christensen, and Richard Chambers.

Following the reception the couple left for Austin, Texas. Lieutenant Duffy being stationed at Bergstrom Field. For traveling the bride wore a brown silk print dress with beige top coat, brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bride graduated in June from the Duffy Ranch school at Fallbrook, California. Lieutenant Duffy attended University of California, Los Angeles two years prior to going into the service. He has just returned from a year of active service in the South Pacific.

AUXILIARY HOLDS BUSINESS MEETING AFTER PICNIC

A brief business meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held following the joint annual picnic with the Legion at the city park last Monday evening. Officers not previously announced after the election held at the last meeting were: Mrs. Alvis Wicks, secretary, and Mrs. Warren Daugherty, treasurer. Mrs. Wicks was secretary last year and Mrs. Daugherty has held the office of treasurer for many years.

All members present paid their dues for the coming year. It is hoped that 100 per cent membership for 1943-44 will be paid before the state convention so that report can be presented at the convention. The state convention will be held at Baker on August 20th and 21st. No delegates have been elected, due to the distance necessary to travel with driving to conventions prohibitive this year.

This will be the last meeting during the summer. A joint installation with the Legion will be held on September 20th, when it is expected that some prominent guests will be present. Place of installation has not been decided but a potluck dinner will precede the ceremonies.

Members wishing to pay their dues before convention, since chairmen will not be appointed before installation of the new president, may pay them to Mrs. Gierau, Mrs. Wicks, Mrs. Daugherty or Miss Eunice VanDenburg.

NEW OFFICERS IN CHARGE

The Rebekahs met Friday evening at the Odd Fellows hall with the newly elected officers in the chairs.

The following committees were appointed for the term: Finances, Rosa Currin, Eva Hatch and Leta Stewart; visiting, Mrs. Stella Baker, Vina Smith and Elsie Currin; flowers, Edith Sanders, Melva St. Elmo and May Thies; good of the order, Miss Eunice VanDenburg, Ina Stuart, and Lucy Bennett; decorations, Vera Ziebeck, Beatrice McCoy, and Mary Duffy; condolence, Myrtle Kent, Matilda Wallace, and Helen Sherman; non-payment of dues, Eva Aubrey, Minnie Sweet and Martha Eastham; color bearer Alma Porterfield, and reporter Rosie Lewis.

The lodge voted to have this year's district convention when convenient for the president. The chapter was draped in memory of Mrs. Zelma Groom. Staff practice was announced for Friday evening, July 23, and all staff members are urged to be present as there will be initiation at the meeting on August 6. Rosie Lewis Jr., P.N.G., was presented with a past noble grand's pin from the lodge.

An invitation was extended to the lodge by the Lorane Rebekahs to visit them on Monday evening July 26, when the president will make her official visit.
