YOUR COOPERATION PLEASE

To complete the social calendar, found on the society page of the Sentinel, our society editor has to make from one to a dozen calls each week on many of the scheduled events. As the war goes on we of the Sentinel have more to do, less people to do it and less time to do it in. The situation that confronts us means that as much as we may dislike to, we are going to have to discontinue some of our news gathering activities. Hereafter, only one call for each club or organization represented in the calendar will be made. A dozen telephone calls for one item not only takes too much time, it ties up telephone service too long and bothers too many people. Clubs and organizations can help by designating one person to give this information.

Many have been very helpful in mailing in items. Continue the good work. We appreciate your cooperation.

Let us remind you too, that Wednesday is the deadline for any sort of advertising. The earlier you get your copy in, the better service we can give.
