LEGION AUXILIARY MEETING

Following the covered dish dinner and program of the American Legion and Auxiliary Monday night at the Odd Fellows hall, the ladies met in the parlor for a short business meeting. Mrs. Mae Whitcomb of Portland, department secretary, was present and talked to the group on important phases of Auxiliary work with special emphasis placed on "Poppy Day" to be held in May, the proceeds from the sale to be used exclusively for child welfare work. Mrs. Whitcomb stressed the importance of building up a fund for post-war needs.

All Auxiliary members were asked to aid in the recruiting of women in the armed service especially in the nurses cadet corps. It was advised that any girl could contact Auxiliary members who will see that she is advised through the proper headquarters. Mrs. Whitcomb answered questions regarding Auxiliary work.

Mrs. Philip Bukowski asked members to bring scissors and pliers to the April meeting as it is necessary to work on the poppies to be made into wreaths for service men's graves in this area. Twelve hundred lapel poppies made by veterans in government hospitals have arrived to be sold on "Poppy Day."

FAMILY GET-TOGETHER

Relatives of Frank Chapman gathered at the Chapman home Sunday for a potluck dinner and family get-together, honoring Mr. Chapman who is leaving March 22 for the navy. His brothers and sisters presented him with a leather waterproof naval kit and writing portfolio as a going away gift.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. James Chapman and family, James, Brenton, Orval, Daisy Ann and Lurtis; Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman and family, Lauretta, James and baby Judith; Earl Chapman and Miss Irene Gresham, daughter of Mrs. George Chapman; Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bain, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kingsley and son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chapman and sons, Bobby and Jimmy. Mrs. Lauretta James remained over until Monday when she went to Dorena and visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bales.

WOMEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The Women's Bible class of the Methodist church met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. G. Arnold. Eight members and two guests, Mrs. Harry Wynne and Miss Beverly Cockerill, were present. A covered dish dinner was served at the noon hour. At the business meeting, 27 calls on shut-ins were reported and one bouquet given out. Devotionals were led by Mrs. J. R. Hendricks. A quilt was tied for Mrs. Arnold and special work for the Red Cross was discussed.

MEETING OF D. OF H. LODGE

The Degree of Honor lodge held a short business meeting Monday night at the Eagles hall. At the close of the lodge meeting, the committee, Wilda King and Merl King, served refreshments. Carnation club was announced for March 27 at the home of Glenda Bushell with Bernadine Layng co-hostess. The next regular meeting will be April 10.

MRS. WICKENDOLL, MRS. KULM CO-HOSTESSES

Mrs. George Wickendoll and Mrs. Arthur Kulm were co-hostesses to the Women's Service Guild of the Methodist church Thursday evening at the Wickendoll home. The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. Robert Graham and the program in charge of Mrs. Wickendoll. At this time Mrs. Damon Scott was elected chairman of the cheer committee.

A project of the Guild for this year is the purchasing of choir robes which have arrived and will be worn by the choir members for the first time on Easter Sunday when the cantata, "Life Eternal," is presented.

A special guest of the Guild was Mrs. Walter Austin of Detroit, Michigan, a houseguest of Mrs. Arthur Weinkauff. Following the meeting, the evening was spent in sewing and refreshments were served by the hostesses. March 23 will be the next meeting and will be at the home of Mrs. Scott.

MOTHER'S CLUB REPORTS

At the meeting of the London 4-H Mothers' club yesterday at the club house, it was reported that $55.00 was received from the pie-cake walk held recently half of which will go to the school and half to the club. It was reported that E. A. Danielson, Mr. Allen and Mr. Burphor of Oregon State College will meet with the group on April 4. Another social was announced for the last of April at which time Mr. Danielson will show pictures as part of the entertainment. Tickets were given to members to sell on the quilt which will be raffled off at the social. Red Cross material was given out to the members at this time.

The Union Local No. 2917 contributed $150 to the club to be applied on the new club house. Guests of the club were Mrs. Bert Newton, Mrs. Ollie Powell and Mrs. McCullough. This was an all day meeting with a covered dish luncheon at noon. There will be a special meeting Friday, tomorrow, to complete the quilt. The next regular meeting will be March 29.

DISTRICT MEETING OF STAR CHAPTERS

A social event of Friday evening was the district meeting of the Creswell chapter of Eastern Star and the local chapter No. 4 held in the Masonic temple at which time Dr. June Martin of Marshfield, worthy grand matron, made her official visit. Preceding the joint meeting of the chapters, a 6:30 covered dish dinner was served with Mrs. Knaffle Haynes chairman.

Those escorted to the East and honored were Dr. June Martin; Mrs. Jesse Mortenson, worthy matron of Creswell chapter; Jesse Mortenson, worthy patron of Creswell chapter; Ilma Thum, grand chaplain; Mary Workman, grand representative of Kentucky and Mrs. W. P. Reese of Creswell, member of the international temple fund committee. Dr. Martin is a member of the educational committee of the general grand chapter. A degree by the local officers was conferred on the worthy grand matron and gifts were presented her by both chapters.

Initiation was held for Lois Byrne with the Creswell team putting on the initiatory work. Short speeches were given by the visitors and members and an instructive talk by Dr. Martin. Announcement was made that the next meeting will be mens night and committees appointed for refreshments and entertainment.

FRIENDS ENTERTAINED AT INFORMAL PARTY

HOSTESS CHIC

Courtesy New York Dress Institute

Entertaining is fun, however restricted your menu, if you look fresh and pretty in spring's hostess costumes. These smart pajamas in red crepe with white stripes, cleverly combined, are two-piece with a wide waistband on the trousers. For more formal home parties, the same New York designer shows a three-piece suit of tuxedo-styled trousers with jacket in black wool and a criss-cross white pique gilet. And another, even dressier idea, is the short, flared black satin coat which doubles as a tunic over a slim black satin skirt, for dinner at home.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY GROUP

The ladies of the Missionary Society of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. George Hardy on Thursday afternoon. Spring flowers were used about the rooms.

Mrs. Brown, wife of the Evangelist Roy L. Brown, led the devotion, reading Psalms 119: 1-7, her theme being "The Word of God." Her presentation was very helpful and deeply appreciated by those present.

Mrs. H. H. Weeldreyer presented the study "Living Together" from the book "For All of Life." Prayers were offered by Mrs. O. H. Pickens and Miss Lena Zondron. Mrs. W. C. Martin acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Frank White, who is visiting her husband with the Seabees in Maine. Mrs. Hardy favored the group with the song "Near to the Heart of God" accompanied by Mrs. Mobley. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Pickens and Bobbie Mobley.

BOOK REPORTS BY MEMBERS

Two book reports were given Tuesday night by members of the Tuesday Evening Study club at the library. Mrs. Dan Hamant reported on "American Indian Today" written by Charles Eastman, a Sioux Indian. "Arrows Into the Sun" by Jonree Lauritzen was the book reviewed by Mrs. Clyde Roberts. The club will meet again March 28 at the library.

1:00 O'CLOCK DESSERT

The La Comus club was entertained Tuesday at a 1:00 o'clock dessert by Mrs. Anna Swanson. The afternoon was spent with cards with high score going to Mrs. G. B. Pitcher, Mrs. J. P. Graham and Mrs. Ralph Saltman were guests of the club. March 28 will be the next meeting and will be a 1:00 o'clock covered dish dinner at the home of Mrs. C. J. Kem.

CLUB ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

The thirty-third anniversary of the Social Twelve club was observed by a 1:00 o'clock luncheon and election of officers Thursday with Mrs. H. B. Ferrin hostess at her home. A huge birthday cake with lighted candles formed the table centerpiece with other table decorations carrying out the St. Patrick's day motif. All members of the club were present and one guest, Mrs. C. S. Dillman, a house guest of Mrs. Ferrin. Election of officers was held at the business meeting at which time Mrs. R. S. Drenner was elected president; Mrs. C. F. Hoskins, vice president; and Mrs. Ernest Christensen, secretary and treasurer. The next meeting will be April 1 at the home of Mrs. Pete Nelson with Mrs. Nanny Smith hostess.
