HAPPY SEVEN 4-H SEWING CLUB

The Happy Seven 4-H Sewing club held a special meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of their leader, Mrs. Joe Gleason. This was an extra meeting to give the girls a chance to catch up on their sewing after which they enjoyed a potluck supper. The club will meet again next Monday at the home of their leader.

High in Food Value

Distillers' by-products from alcohol are high in food values for animals and poultry, and there are more of them now since alcohol production has been increased and shifted to meet war needs.

SPRING'S DRESSMAKER TOUCHES

Easy-to-wear spring suits in checks or stripes of the sort used for men's wear are tailored with feminine detail. A bright scarf for the street, and a pretty blouse for the cocktail hour, go equally well with the brown and white wool checked suit shown. Note the coachman's cut of the jacket and the turnback cuffs showing the sleeves. The two-piece dress, right, is one of the season's popular lumberjacket styles in checked navy and white. The blouse is boldly buttoned with mother-of-pearl discs, and the skirt has a drawing waist. A smart and becoming business crepe, this dress is also practical for spectator sports and travel.

SPRING is no longer the "short" season of the fashion calendar. It starts excitingly in February, with a violet wool dress or a trim cardigan suit showing under your fur coat—and it continues, with a ray tulip print or the all-occasion little navy or black crepe with low, bow-trimmed neckline, into June. This is a spring more than any other to get the most out of your new clothes, and to have your fling with such strongly contrasting combinations as red and green or black and turquoise or saffron and bright blue. It's a spring to live in beige with black... to enjoy the practicality of a sleeveless jumper and many blouses... and the smartness of clean-cut stripes and tiny checks. You'll love the long-bodied or lengthening torso line of the new middy and tunic dresses, all designed with hipline interest but with fitted waists. You'll be pleased with the two-piece effect of dresses which are almost always one-piece.

But what's most important to you and to me is the assurance from the Office of Fashion Information of the New York Dress Institute that the majority of dresses suits are designed to be worn straight from the office or street into the cocktail hour. It's all done with an important, table-top blouse—tying in a soft bow at the throat, or fastening with jeweled buttons, or cut in front like a weskit. Most of the suit jackets are lined with either the solid, bright color or the print making the blouse.

Again, many a short dinner or dancing dress, bare at the top, has its tailored jacket or bolero for afternoon covers-up... and the season's short wool "drama" coat on flared or boxy lines, goes with anything and everything, and with short or long skirts.

Look for lots of glitter this season, even in April's sunshine. One New York designer tailors a grey flannel suit with a jacket "striped" in tiny white sequins, for instance. Short after-dark prints are embroidered with sequins around the low necks, and on the sleeves and hems.

Hems also go peekaboo, with flounces of lace, or flare out over ruffled-edged petticoats. Camisole bodices are back, and the peekaboo midriff continues.

ATTEND CONCERT IN EUGENE

Mrs. Cecil E. Caldwell and several of her pupils attended an outstanding program of operatic music Tuesday evening at the University School of Music in Eugene, given by pupils of Sigurd Nilssen. The auditorium was filled to overflowing with music lovers who had turned out to hear Marie Rogndahl, who had just returned from New York where she had taken part in the "Hour of Charm" radio program on April 2.

Eight others appeared on the evenings program, rendering numbers which gave the performance variety and contrast. For the final number, Mr. Nilssen appeared with Margaret Zimmerman in an act from "La Forza del Destino" by Verdi, both singing in costume.

Following the program the girls enjoyed the privilege of meeting the performers and their instructor. Those attending were: Helen Axley, Phyllis Englund, Robirda Flaten, Maxine Hite, Doris Long, Joan Metcalf, Clara Morel, Carol Naish, Patricia Scott, Helen Smith, Jeannette Workman.

LA COMUS 1:00 O'CLOCK DESSERT

A 1:00 o'clock dessert was served the La Comus club Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Maude Wheeler at her home. Guests of the club included Mrs. Ed Hoyt, Mrs. Nelson Durham and Mrs. Roy Mueller. Following the dessert the afternoon was spent with cards with Mrs. C. J. Kem receiving high score. The hostess presented each member with a camellia corsage. The next meeting will be April 25 with Mrs. G. B. Pitcher entertaining at her home.

PLANS COMPLETED

At the Townsend club meeting Monday night plans were completed for the "Odds and Ends" sale to be held Saturday at the Mountain States Power Company. The Flash Bulletin was read at the business meeting. The next meeting will be a social meeting.

SEMI-ANNUAL CURRENT EVENT EVENING

Tuesday night was the semi-annual current event night for the Tuesday Evening Study club at the library. Each member answered roll call which was followed by a short business session. Mrs. C. J. Kem opened the program by reporting on "Is Russia a Post-war Rival?" written by Fritz Sternberg and taken from the magazine article from the Science Digest. Mrs. Charles Hall reviewed "Twenty Million Forgotten Americans" by Elbert D. Thomas, U. S. Senator from Utah which appeared in the American Magazine. Mrs. Della Richmond's article reviewed was a condensation of "Combat Rehearsal Over Florida" by Frances Vivian Drake from the American Legion Magazine. The article, "A Loggers Wife" written by Mrs. Fern Owens and printed in the Alaska Sportsman Magazine was given by Mrs. Joe Smith. This article was especially interesting to the members of the club as Fern Owens lived here and attended school when a girl and recently visited here. Mrs. Owens was formerly Fern Royer and has lived in Alaska for several years. Mrs. W. L. Workman closed the program by reporting on "Ski Training at Camp Hale" taken from camp magazines sent by her son, Pfc. Wilbur Workman who is stationed at Camp Hale.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY CLUB

The annual election of officers was held at the meeting of the P. D. G. Garden club Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Curtis Hansen. Mrs. Martin Foster was elected president for the coming year. Those assisting her will be Mrs. Albert Woodard, vice president and Mrs. S. L. Godard, who was reelected secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Lucy Bennett was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. Elmer Kent was a guest. Plans were completed for the spring plant sale to be held April 22 at the Mountain States Power Company. Mrs. Andrew Bruné, bird chairman, reported on "Jungle Garden and Bird City on Avery Island." Mrs. Knaffle Haynes was in charge of the program, the subject being "Hot Beds and Cold Frames." The rooms were beautiful with a profusion of spring flowers. Mrs. S. L. Godard presented each member with two delphinium plants. At the tea hour delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Hansen. Mrs. P. C. Christensen will entertain the club May 5.

FRIENDSHIP CLASS MEETS

The Friendship class of the Presbyterian Sunday school was entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Earl Ballow. The business meeting was presided over by Mrs. A. W. Shofstall president. The remainder of the evening was spent working on a quilt, which was followed by refreshments served by the hostess. Miss Molly Wiese and Mrs. Gaylord Davies were guests of the class.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETING

The American Legion Auxiliary met Monday night at the Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. Powell of Drain was a guest. Three new members were reported, Mrs. Finneran, Ercel Yirak and Corrine Jones.

Hester Reed, Girls State chairman, reported that "Girls State" would be held this year. The local unit voted to send a girl and finance her week's trip. This will be held at Silver Creek Falls recreational area June 11 to 18. During this week, under competent leadership, the girls will be given instruction in court proceedings, city, county and state government. The girls meet first as city units and elect officials, then as counties and finally as a state.

Girls should be between the ages of 15 and 19, have the endorsement of some unit or Post and some of the school officials and be outstanding in character and scholarship.

The National president, Mrs. Lawrence Smith of Racine, Wisconsin will be in Portland as guest speaker at the Portland Post on April 23.

Following the business meeting a joint initiation ceremony was held with the Legion. Those being initiated into the Auxiliary were Flora Koch, Eva Hatch, Ercel Yirak and Corrine Jones.

Nothing New

There is nothing new except what is forgotten.

Protect Bees
Some kind of protection from the wind is necessary for bees all year around, but it is especially needed during the winter. Many beekeepers use packing cases.

Cottage Grove, Ore.

The first J. C. Penney store in Kemmerer, Wyo., was called the "Golden Rule," a name which aptly describes the Penney way of doing business.

YOUR GOOD NEIGHBOR

for 42 Years

WHAT we like best to hear people say of us is "Penney's is a neighborly store." And that's what we do hear... often!

For at Penney's we have never outgrown the simple, friendly way of doing business that makes people feel welcome and at home.

We've never outgrown it—in all our 42 years. Back in April 1902, Mr. Penney opened his first store in Kemmerer, Wyoming—a store devoted to friendly service and thrifty prices. And the spirit of that first store has spread to every one of our stores, in over 1600 American communities.

The people who work here at Penney's are neighbors of yours and they try to act as good neighbors should. They sympathize with your likes and dislikes. They belong to this town!

And so does the store where they work! That's why shopping here is so easy, so pleasant!

In time of peace, each passing Penney anniversary was a time for celebration and ceremony.

But this year, upon our 42nd Anniversary, we celebrate simply with a reaffirmation of the Penney spirit—a determination to remain as homelike and neighborly as our many friends expect us to be.
