RECREATIONAL ROMP BIG SUCCESS

The Recreational Romp at the armory Saturday night was well attended and a big success with 150 teen age boys and girls dancing to the rhythm of Herschel Davis' five piece orchestra. The dance was sponsored by the summer recreation program of which Robert Graham is director. The amount realized from the dance and coke bar was $42.00, of which $26.00 was taken in for admission at the door and $16.00 at the coke bar. The money was used to help defray expenses.

Patrons and patronesses for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Husted, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lombard, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ferrin, Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. Damon Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham, Miss Eileen Inlow, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Malcolm and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beidler. A number of other parents were present watching from the balcony.

The armory was gaily decorated with crepe paper lattice work of yellow, purple, green, pink and blue around the balcony, in the coke bar and over the door, with sport silhouettes in keeping with the Summer Recreational Program. Miss Irene Schaffer was in charge of decorations and is to be complimented for her work.

The coke bar was a big attraction and success, the pop and sandwiches sold well. The coke bar was planned and operated by Miss Jane Beidler and Miss Pat Kelly.

During the intermission a short program was presented to an appreciative audience. Miss Joan King sang "Time Waits for No One" and "San Fernando Valley." Miss Irene Schaffer and Miss Betty Bagley played "Tschalkowski's Concerto" as a two piano duet and "Holiday for Strings." Also at this time Marvin Schaffer was awarded $5.00 for having brought in the most new members. Robert Graham announced there would be more of these dances in the future, the next one to be a Sadie Hawkins dance the first part of August.

COLORFUL HANDWORK

The Middle Americans had no knowledge of the potter's wheel. Their graceful jars and vases were built up by coiled strips of clay, then smoothed into final shapes. Intricate designs and figures in clay were modeled entirely by hand.

Filling An Important Need

Laundry service is filling an important need now, even though it isn't classed as critical by the WPB—Good service provides first of all service for those unable or too busy to do their own laundry work and second the hard to get items are laundried with care to preserve the life of the fabric.

Of course we can't give you as quick service as in normal times, but we are doing our best to provide dependable service day in and day out. You'll have to give us more time to get your things back to you. Remember in sending your cleaning to send hangers too.
