VISIT MARTHA BANFORD TENT

Mrs. Mabel Doleman, Mrs. Jessie May, and Mrs. Lauretta Safley attended a meeting of the Martha Banford tent of the Daughters of the Union Veterans, held in the Eugene armory on Wednesday evening. During the business meeting, Mrs. Doleman announced that only three states in the nation had instituted new tents. Of these three states, Oregon has received a loving cup for having been the first to institute a new tent. The new tent organized was the Ida May Whiting tent of Cottage Grove. This cup was presented to the department president Ora Cox at the national convention held in Des Moines, Iowa recently. Following the business meeting, those members of the Martha Banford tent who have had birthdays during the last three months were honored and refreshments were served. Mrs. Safley again wishes to announce that any woman interested in joining this organization may call her at 36F5. Those eligible include daughters, granddaughters, and great granddaughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL B. & P. W. CLUB

The executive council of the Business and Professional Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Alice Breedlove last week in order to compile a program calendar for this year. The theme for the national program is "Toward Victory and Beyond." The local organization will direct its activities toward the fulfilling of this national objective.

The executive council consists of the officers of the organization and following chairmen of committees: Program coordination, Grace Cowan; legislative, Yola Baldwin; international, Ilma Thum; educational, Myrtle Gleason; public affairs, Elizabeth Mills; membership, Lenora Langston; health, Gurea Arnold; music, Helen Hardy; publicity, Adelia Hatch, and finance, Myrtle Neet. Following the business meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Cowan and Mrs. Breedlove. The Business and Professional Women's club will meet in the club rooms for a regular meeting on Wednesday evening, Oct. 4, 7:30 o'clock.

RECEPTION FOR TEACHERS

Highlighting the social activities for the week was the reception Tuesday evening by members of the Methodist church which was given in the parlors of the church complimenting the teachers of the local high school, Jefferson and Adams schools and their wives and husbands. Baskets of fall flowers were arranged about the room with Mrs. E. E. Cone in charge of the decorations.

In the receiving line were Mrs. S. L. Muckin and Mrs. C. N. Land. An evening of musical and guessing get-acquainted games were enjoyed with the Rev. Frank E. Brown, Principal Robert Graham and Mrs. Alvis Wicks, the entertainment committee. Following an evening of games, refreshments were served with Mrs. E. E. Cone chairman. The refreshment table decorations were in keeping with the season, being an attractive basket of harvest fruits and vegetables arranged by Mrs. Fred Vohs Jr. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Frank E. Brown and Mrs. Arthur Weinkauf and those serving cookies were Mrs. Robert Graham, Mrs. Damon Scott and Mrs. Harry Lewis.
