BOLTON-BASH WEDDING HELD IN SOUTH

In a setting of fall flowers, Miss Jean Bash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Bash of Los Angeles, California became the bride of Merritt Bolton, G. M. I. C. son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bolton at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday, October 4, before a group of relatives and friends with the Rev. Ronald Warren Dickson officiating.

The bride given in marriage by her father was attractive in a white satin afternoon dress with accessories of white and an orchid corsage.

Miss Clarice Steadman was the bridesmaid and the bride's only attendant. She wore a dress of light orchid color.

Best man for the groom was Clarence Sprecher, cousin of the groom.

A reception followed the ceremony after which the couple left for Cottage Grove where they are visiting Mr. Bolton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bolton.

The bride was a former Cottage Grove resident and both Mr. and Mrs. Bolton attended the local high school.

On October 23, Mr. Bolton will leave for Norfolk, Virginia, to report for further duty. Mrs. Bolton will return to Los Angeles where she has been employed.

to Mr. and Mrs. Joslin, the honored guests, by their many friends present.

OUTSTANDING MEETING

One of the most outstanding and worthwhile meetings of the Business and Professional Women's club held for some time was held Monday night in the banquet room of the Rainbow cafe which started off with a 6:30 dinner. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. H. B. Breedlove, the president and was opened by the allegiance to the flag followed by the group repeating the club collect. Present besides the members and guest speakers were several visitors including Dorothy West, Margaret Conrad, Paula G. Haynie, Louise Cone, and the Misses Virginia Beckman, Ruth Lampkins, Lottie Lee Lamb and Theresa Gehmert.

Three new members were introduced to the group, Veva Collier, Beulah Morgan and Delma Graham.

Yola Baldwin, chairman of the legislative committee, had charge of the program which consisted of two solos by Miss Virginia Beckman who was accompanied by Ruth Stewart Caldwell. Gaylord Davies spoke to the members on the State School Fund Tax; the Little Townsend Bill was explained by Elmer Kent and the National Equal Rights amendment before congress was explained by Herbert Lombard.

W. S. C. S. MEETING

Hostesses for the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church Friday afternoon at the parsonage were Mrs. Ransom Cone, Mrs. R. E. Reed and Mrs. Roy Miller. The devotions were led by Mrs. J. G. Monroe, Mrs. C. N. Land had the lesson on "The Life of Clara Swain, a Missionary, in India." An interesting feature of the afternoon was a display of articles from India by Mrs. J. W. Englund, sent by her son, Cpl. Mervin Englund, who is stationed there in the armed forces.

Plans were completed for a bazaar to be held at the church on November 10th. They also made plans to serve a dinner Saturday evening to the young people of the Methodist Youth Fellowship sub-district who will have a rally here this week end.

NEW MEMBERS WELCOMED INTO WESTMINSTER GUILD

The following new members, Mrs. Orlo Bagley, Mrs. A. M. Mason, Mrs. L. C. Hart, Mrs. Edgar Rickard, Mrs. Roy Mueller, Mrs. O. E. Holmes, Mrs. R. E. Sultsman, Mrs. Harold Radway and Mrs. Oliver Romalia were welcomed into the Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Alvin J. Kammann. Besides the regular members the following guests were present: Mrs. William Baker, of Ketchikan, Alaska, Mrs. Lloyd Aldrich, Mrs. P. S. Bukowski and Miss Virginia Beckman. Mrs. Gaylord Davies was in charge of the program, which was on Alaska. Mrs. A. J. Kammann led the devotional service and spoke on "God's Care." Mrs. Davies spoke on "Our Missionary Work in Alaska Today." Mrs. Baker who has for a number of years lived in Ketchikan and has recently returned from Alaska also gave a very interesting talk on her experiences in Alaska today. Mrs. Baker and her son expect to go back to Alaska in the very near future. Mrs. Vinal Randall gave an interesting talk on the type of work the Westminster Guild does in the various Missionary Projects in the Presbyterian church and also Red Cross work. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the business meeting. The next meeting, November 7th, will be at the home of Mrs. Orlo Bagley.

EASTERN STAR COVERED DISH DINNER

The members of the Eastern Star chapter and several friends enjoyed a covered dish dinner Friday night in the Masonic temple preceding their regular business meeting with Ida Williams chairman of the dinner. At the business session, Vivian Caviness was installed as organist, by Ilma Thum, Grand Committeewoman as installing officer.

Plans were made for children's night and a social evening to be held tonight, Thursday, in the Masonic temple at 7:30 o'clock.

MRS. GODARD ENTERTAINS GARDEN CLUB

Hostess to the P. D. G. Garden club Friday afternoon was Mrs. S. L. Godard at her home which was beautiful with autumn flowers and leaves. "Things to do in the Garden in October" was the study topic and was in charge of Mrs. Alfred Wulff. A guest of the club was Mrs. J. F. Godard.

At the tea hour, Mrs. Godard served refreshments. Mrs. C. K. Haynes will be hostess to the club at the November meeting, the 3rd.

BRIDAL SHOWER FOR FRANCES ADAMS

Miss Frances Adams was the inspiration for a bridal shower Monday night at the home of Mrs. Frank Brown who was assisted by Mrs. Jack Caton, Mrs. Herb Adams and Miss Alberta Adkins.

The coming wedding of Miss Adams to A. C. Tom Henry, Army Air Corps, Douglas, Arizona will be an event of late October.

Pink and white streamers furnished the decorative note about the rooms. The evening was spent in playing guessing games in keeping with the occasion and the honoree was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts. Prizes for the games were received by Mrs. Roy Miller, Miss Carolyn Englund and Miss Joyce Clark.

Guests present were Mrs. Roy Miller, Mrs. Paul Dyksterhuis, and daughter Betty, Mrs. Harold Sandel, Mrs. Caton, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Albert Adkins, Mrs. Brown, the Misses Louise Boyce, Carolyn Englund, Lottie Ann and Joyce Clark, Alberta Adkins and the honored guest, Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the evening.

COUPLE HONORED AT RECEPTION

A reception was held at the Grange Hall in Creswell last Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Joslin. (Mrs. Joslin was formerly Mrs. Clara Doty of Disston route.)

A pleasant evening of games, music, stunts and old time dancing was enjoyed by the 50 guests present. Refreshments were served in the dining room at the close of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Joslin were given a place of honor at a table on which there was a lovely "brides cake".

Congratulations were extended
