Local Methodist Youth Fellowship
Host at Fall Rally to Umpqua District

The Methodist Youth Fellowship was host at the fall rally to the Umpqua sub-district at the local Methodist church Friday and Saturday with about 60 young people registering from the following churches: Roseburg, Drain, Westfir, Creswell, Yoncalla, Sutherlin and Cottage Grove. "Crusade for Christ" was the theme for the rally which opened Friday evening with a potluck dinner followed by a recreational hour with special musical numbers by Miss Joyce Iverson, piano solos; Warren D. Laverne, accordion selections, both of Creswell and numbers by the Creswell Methodist church orchestra, with the Rev. Robert Matthews of Sutherlin in charge of the closing of the fellowship hour.

The Saturday activities included classes in the morning by Professor John L. Knight of Willamette university, who took as his topic, "The World Mission;" the Rev. E. M. Tilton of Springfield, led his class on "The Church after the War;" while the Rev. Frank Brown, host pastor, had a class on "Youth Fellowship Organization."

Frete Hendrickson, sub-district chairman of Roseburg, presided over the business meeting Saturday afternoon at which time election of officers was held. The newly elected chairman is Miss Sara Bjorset and the secretary and treasurer is Ross Adkins both of Cottage Grove; worship commissioners, Joyce Iverson and Mary Camp both of Creswell; World Friendship commissioners, Lois Waincott of Roseburg and Joyce Sheffield; community service, Evelyn Guider and Jeanne Lunney of Yoncalla; recreation, Jerry Hielman of Roseburg and John Whipple of Drain. Miss Alma Vick was the outgoing secretary.

The highlight of the rally was the World Friendship banquet and program which followed Saturday evening with the theme "Education Around the World" carried out in the before dinner speeches. Miss Mildred Collier acted as toastmaster and Miss Leslie Brockelbank of Eugene, led the group singing. The banquet dinner speeches were by Miss Evelyn Diamant, Czechoslovakian student at the University of Oregon; the Rev. Mrs. Alice Camp of Creswell, a former missionary to India and Miss Betty Adkins, district president. Following the banquet, the group retired to the auditorium where "The Cavalcade of Music," a drama in three scenes was given.

The rally closed Sunday morning with the church service with Professor John L. Knight of Willamette university speaking on "The Radical Christ."

CreswellCreswell Grange News

The regular meeting will be held on next Thursday evening the 26th and the birthdays will be observed at that time.

Last Saturday was the annual Booster night, at which time a large number of visitors were entertained with a program and eats.

The meeting of the Home Economics club of the Grange met in regular session on Tuesday, the 16th. It was learned at that meeting that the club took in nearly $100.00 at the lunch and dinner held during the day of the fair at Creswell.

Ray Thompson, of Holliston's Garage, surprised himself and all his friends by bringing in a six-foot cougar from a recent hunting trip. As it was the first cougar the gentleman had ever seen in the "raw", it was a happy ending to what might readily have turned out otherwise.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacGilvary, of the Kosy Korner Cafe, spent the week-end in Reedsport as the guests of the Earl Lincolns, who recently bought a restaurant in that city.

The following school activities have been occurring the last week: The parents club of the high school held its first meeting of the year; The Mother's Club of the grade school is sponsoring a program on Nov. 3.

Dorris Sellers broke her arm recently while playing at school.

Mr. Green, of Green's Hardware store, has spent the last week in Portland.

A goodly proportion of our citizens are eating goose and duck this week—the result of good shooting during the season. Deer and antelope steaks have been enjoyed also.

Ed Malone of the Camas Swale Road, who has been quite seriously ill for a couple of weeks, is reported as much improved.
