Church Activities

The Sunday topic for the Christian Science church service will be "Soul and Body."

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The annual Thanksgiving service, under the sponsorship of the Ministerial Association, will be held on Thanksgiving Day at the local Assembly of God church. The Rev. Mrs. Rozella Douglas will be the speaker of the morning. This service will begin promptly at 10:00 a.m. This service is a community wide service and all are invited to attend and give thanks to God for the blessings he has bestowed upon us.

Special services at the Church of God will continue until Sunday, November 19. Rev. Rowie's messages are deep and inspiring. His topics are announced in a special ad elsewhere in this issue. We invite you to these services. There will be a basket lunch at the church Sunday at 2:30. Rev. Rowie will discuss the subject of church business and government.

"Celebrating Thanksgiving" is the topic for the sermon at the Methodist church this coming Sunday morning. The Vesper hour will present special music this coming Sunday. Tuesday evening, the annual church supper of Thanksgiving will be held in the church. The members and friends of the church are invited to attend this meeting.

"Question With An Answer" will be the sermon topic at the morning worship in the Baptist church by the pastor, the Rev. George E. Hardy. Special music by the vested choir with the solo part by Mrs. H.J. Hardy.

The highlight of our evening services is the inspirational song service led by our chorus choir. The message of the evening will be on "The Man who Confessed." Come and enjoy this happy service with us.

All your people who do not have a church home are invited to join our young peoples groups each Sunday evening at 6:00 for juniors and 6:30 for seniors.

Further arrangements for the carnival-bazaar to be held at the armory, Saturday, November 25, were made recently.

The men of the parish will handle the following arrangements. The beano table will be in charge of Glen Scott, Russell Smith and Leo Waldo; the country store, handling produce, groceries and canned goods, will be in charge of William Bach, John Keb-

Harold O. Welden Funeral Tuesday

Funeral services were held Tuesday at a Portland funeral home for Harold O. Welden, brother of M. V. and Ray Welden of Cottage Grove, who died Sunday in that city. Mr. Welden lived here for a number of years and at one time operated an auto wrecking establishment. He moved to Portland a few years ago. Other survivors are his widow Hazel; a daughter, Mrs. Roberta Phillips, Portland; a son Delmar, U. S. Army; his mother, Mrs. Louise Welden; his sisters, Mrs. Lola Forrester, Mrs. Orpha Verberknoes, Mrs. Hazel Ertler; a brother Floyd all of Portland; two sisters, Mrs. Hannah Christie and Mrs. Dama Ivy, and a brother Charles all of Montebello, Calif.; a granddaughter Juanita Phillips of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Welden and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welden attended the services.

Covered Dish Supper Well Attended

The Armistice covered dish supper served by auxiliary members to veterans and their families Saturday evening in the I. O. O. F. building was well attended with over fifty present. Max Bird, commander of the Calvin Funk post, American legion served as toastmaster at the banquet program and introduced all past commanders of the local post as well as past presidents of the auxiliary.

Brief talks were made by Ace Gregg, past commander of the VFW, and Dr. H. A. Hagen, mayor elect of Cottage Grove. Guest speaker of the evening was the Rev. Louis Sohler, who gave an interesting address on the meaning of Armistice.

Pvt. Vivian McNew with the WACs was among the representatives of the present armed forces.

There was a good attendance also at the dance at the armory, starting at 9:00 p.m., on the same evening. Proceeds of the dance went to the memorial building fund and about $150.00 was netted for this cause.

700 FARMERS YET TO SIGN AAA PROGRAM

About 700 Lane county farmers have not yet filed their reports to performance under the 1944 AAA program, according to Geo. A. Platt of Eugene, chairman of the county committee. Farmers yet unsigned are urged to call at the committee's office in the Public Market building, Eugene, and sign at the earliest possible time. Individual reports must be filed before payment can be made for practice performance.

Flavor and Smell Related
"Flavor and smell are more closely related than most people realize. If one holds one's nose for example an apple tastes much like an onion."
