MILLER-WOODARD WEDDING AT CAMP LEJUNE

The marriage of Miss Joy Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Miller, Santa Monica, Calif., to Pfc. Carlton Woodard, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Woodard, was a social event November 30 at Camp Lejeune, N. C., where the groom is in officers' training school. The ceremony was performed by the Post Chaplain.

The bride, lovely in a white satin gown, fitted style with marquisette yoke in scallop design embroidered in seed pearls, with train, and wearing a Juliette cap with finger tip veil, was given in marriage by her father. Her bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis. Mrs. Norman E. Stow (nee Rosemarie Trucano) was matron of honor. She wore a formal gown of pink satin with a pink veil of shoulder length and carried pink roses. Pfc. Norman E. Stow was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Wilmington, N. C.

Guests from afar attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Santa Monica and Mr. and Mrs. Woodard of Cottage Grove, parents of the united couple.

MRS. HUSTED BRIDGE LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. E. R. Husted entertained last Thursday with a bridge luncheon and shower, honoring Mrs. George McReynolds. Baby blue and pink were colors carried out in the decorative scheme. Place cards were of miniature baby carriage design and dessert was served in containers, replica of baby booties. Card table covers were designed with nursery rhyme print and at the shower Mrs. McReynolds received many lovely gifts. At bridge Mrs. Orlo Bagley held high score.

Guests included Mmes. McReynolds, Bagley, Stewart Carlson, Victor Chambers, Lloyd Griggs, Harold Wolfard, Palmer Johnson, Warren Hansen, Russell Smith, Merle Porter and Walter Hunter.

OFFICERS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Donnell Allen entertained with a 7:00 o'clock dinner Saturday, honoring her staff of officers, Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Allen is retiring worthy matron for the year. Games and music was a pleasant pastime during the evening hours. The Christmas motif was carried out in artistic decorations for the table and rooms. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Miss Shirley Allen.

AFTER 60 YEARS

By Elmer J. Kent

On December 3, 1944 at their home, 1215 Madison Avenue, Cottage Grove, Mr. and Mrs. William Ellsworth Nixon celebrated the anniversary of their marriage which took place at Washington, Kansas, December 3, 1884. With them on this very unusual occasion were their sons, Lee and Hugh, a daughter, Mrs. Viva Lindamood of Beaverton; six granddaughters, Mrs. Eleanor Wolfard, Mrs. Alma Sears, Mrs. Marie Hogate, Mrs. Nina Morgan, Mrs. Maxine Braswell and Mrs. Faye Randall; eleven great grandchildren, Elva Morgan, Larry and Mary Lou Wolfard, Patricia, Jon and Michael Lawrence Kent, Neal and Darlene Faye Hogate, Dale, Jerry and Susan Lea Sears; William Pichard, brother of Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Bessie Starmer, cousin of Mr. Nixon, both of Eugene; Mmes. Lee and Hugh Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kent, Harold Wolfard, Paul Morgan, Mrs. Laurel Kent, Clair Hogate, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pentico, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sears, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hepner and son of Eugene and Miss Frances Moore of Roseburg.

Members of the family unable to be present were a son Ray of San Jose, California; three granddaughters, Mrs. Ruby Blank, Beaverton; Mrs. Alice Lewis and Miss Gail Lindamood of Watsonville, California; two grandsons, Lawrence Kent, U. S. Navy, Hawaii; Donald Nixon, U. S. Coast Artillery, Fort Canby, Washington, one great granddaughter, Beverly Blank and husband, Ralph Blank, state police, Beaverton; C. A. Lewis, U. S. Army, England; Roger Braswell, postal dept., U. S. Army, France; Ray Randall, U. S. Marine Air corps, South Pacific and Max Sears, Bradwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Nixon, known as "Pa and Ma" as they are known to many of us, came to Cottage Grove 30 years ago. During their companionship of 60 years, they have seen many changes take place, from riding horseback to be married to our present day mode of travel by air, the telephone, phonograph, radio, movies and many others. They have experienced much happiness, some hardships and tears, but the love and affection of that pioneer courtship on Kansas prairies has lasted through the years and will ever be theirs.

MR. AND MRS. MASTERS HONORED

The Townsend club honored Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Masters Monday on their 60th wedding anniversary with a covered dish dinner and evening's entertainment. More than 100 attended the dinner and others came later to the meeting. William Mooney, representative for Kansas, was guest speaker and presented an inspiring message on Townsend activities. Elmer J. Kent presided and introduced the speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Mooney are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Brockvogel and family.
