PETERSON-DUGAN HOME WEDDING

Miss Anna Marie Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Peterson, and Alvin D. Dugan, S. K. 1/C U. S. N. R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dugan, were wed Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride. The Rev. Frank Brown officiated performing the ceremony in candle light before a background of greenery with baskets of white chrysanthemums and silver leaves completing the arrangement. The double ring service was read. The bride given in marriage by her father wore an afternoon frock of a pale blue crepe with a finger tip blue meline veil held in place with white gardenias, she wore a double strand of pearls, a gift from the groom, and carried her white Rainbow Bible from which was suspended on white satin ribbon a white orchid and sprays of maiden hair fern.

Mrs. Vinal Randall Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of pale pink faille material and a pink meline veil adorned with pink roses. Her bouquet was of pink roses and carnations formed in a fan shape. Cleal Mackey, uncle of the groom, was best man. Master Billy Randall, in a regulation sailor suit, was ring bearer. Preceding the ceremony Miss Arlene Anderson played "I Love You Truly" and then played the wedding march. Mrs. John Duffy Jr. lighted the candles.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for the relatives and close friends of the couple. Mrs. Vinal T. Randall cut the bride's cake; Mrs. George Bjorset poured; Miss Sara Bjorset and Mrs. Michael P. VanderKley served and Mrs. Julia Powell was in charge of the guest book. Little Miss Ivona Randall passed the groom's cake. The table was centered with pink roses and dainty lacey white chrysanthemums with white tapers in silver candle holders at either end.

For going away, the bride wore a punch colored suit, green coat and black accessories. Her corsage was an orchid. The couple returned this week from a honeymoon and at the end of the groom's leave will go north to Puget Sound where they will reside until he returns to sea duty.
