JOINT HOMECOMING CELEBRATION

The annual homecoming for the I. O. O. F.-Rebekah lodges was held last Friday evening in the lodge hall. A potluck dinner was served at 6:30. Mrs. W. F. (Mae) Hart of Portland, grand chaplain for the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon and a former member of the Cottage Grove lodge, was the only out of town visitor. Several messages from persons unable to attend were read. During the dinner hour and a short intermission that followed Mr. and Mrs. Ren Gardner entertained with violin and piano music.

Following the banquet the local Odd Fellow lodge put on the second degree for candidates from the Lorane lodge. Five members from Lorane were present.

Later a joint meeting and roll call was held. Each member present and those affiliated with other lodges told when and where they became members. Curtis Veatch was presented with a 25 year jewel. Robert St Elmo made the presentation.

A committee, Mes. Beatrice McCoy, Alma Porterfield and Bertha Gunderson, assisted by one from the men's lodge was in charge of arrangements for the evening.

REBEKAH STAFF ENTERTAIN GIRLS GROUP

The Staff club of the Rebekah lodge entertained Monday evening for the Theta Rho girls for whom they are sponsors. Dinner was served at 6:30. The dining hall was attractively decorated in the Christmas colors and Yuletide motifs. Following dinner the Theta Rho exemplified the initiatory work for Ueta Raymond. Later the group adjourned to the dining hall where the Christmas party and gift exchange was held and a brightly decorated Christmas tree which the Staff club had trimmed was enjoyed. Treats of candy and nuts were served to the girls. The following program was presented by the hostess group: accordion solo. Blanche Decker; vocal duet, Richard and Raymond Lewis; solo, Mrs. Gladys Henderson; vocal selection, ladies of the Staff club; singing of Christmas songs by the assembly.

LA COMUS CLUB

Mrs. Maude Wheeler was hostess Tuesday for the La Comus club Christmas party. Following a dessert course Christmas gifts were exchanged and Mrs. Wheeler, the president, presented each one with a gift and the club gave Mrs. Wheeler a gift. Contract was played with Mrs. Warren Edwards and Mrs. Ruth Woodson holding high and second high scores.

M. P. G. CLUB

The M. P. G. club met Tuesday with Mrs. W. C. Martin for a one o'clock luncheon and social afternoon. Mrs. C. C. Cruson of Portland, Mrs. Benton Schrenk of Albany and Mrs. Charles Adams of Eugene were out of town members present. During the afternoon hours Christmas gifts were exchanged.

DAUGHTERS OF UNION VETERAN

Mrs. Hazel Tohlen and Mrs. Isabelle Miller entertained the Daughters of Union Veterans Monday night at the home of Mrs. Mabel Doleman for a Christmas party. A short business meeting was held and the group voted to petition the state president for a special dispensation granting them the privilege of meeting the second and fourth Mondays of the month. Later Christmas gifts were exchanged and games and singing occupied the evening. Mrs. Nellie Jones was a special guest. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

MR. & MRS. DAUGHERTY HOSTS

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Daugherty entertained the men of the Daugherty Lumber and Piling Companies Saturday night with a turkey dinner. The hours following were spent with various games in the rumpus room of the Daugherty home.

Monday evening the lady members of the office staff were entertained at dinner and a social evening at the Daugherty home. The spacious rooms were festive with attractive arrangements of Christmas decorations.

CARNATION CLUB PARTY

Mrs. Carl King and Mrs. Cleo Morelock entertained the Carnation club for the Christmas party Monday night at the King home. Dessert was served and gifts exchanged around the softly lighted Christmas tree. A short business meeting was held and cards furnished entertainment for the later evening hours. Mrs. Wendell Cochran held high score and Mrs. Clair Hogate low. Mrs. John Lodal, daughter of Mrs. King, was a guest.

METHODIST MEN MEET

The Methodist Men met Monday night at the church in regular session. Plans for a father-son banquet to be held after the first of the year were discussed. It was decided to start the meetings, the third Monday of the month, with a covered dish dinner for the present. Albert Adkins was in charge of devotions; Weston Allen read a current editorial and a round table discussion followed; Mr. Hart, the shop teacher, rendered some selections on his electric guitar and the Rev. Frank Brown sang a solo. The program topic for the January meeting will be "Race Relations" with Emmett Tedford for speaker.

TOWNSEND CLUB ELECTS

W. E. Masters was chosen at the meeting Monday night to head the club during the year, 1945. The other officers will be named and installed on January 1. T. G. Short is the retiring president. Elmer J. Kent gave a report of the district council meeting in Eugene December 17, where plans were discussed for the ensuing year. No meeting will be held on December 25.

B. & P. W. CLUB HOLD CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Business and Professional Women's club held a Christmas party Monday night at the home of Mrs. Alice Breedlove. Various committees appointed assisted the hostess with a dessert course and entertainment which followed. The tables presented a festive appearance with centerpieces of holly, place cards and napkins with Christmas design. The group gathered round the Christmas tree where gifts were exchanged and Christmas carols, led by Helen Hardy and accompanied by Ruth Caldwell, were sung. The remainder of the evening was spent with games. It was reported that Alice Breedlove had been appointed by Constance Weber, Hood River, state president of the Business and Professional Women's clubs, to serve on the nominating committee for state officers for the years of 1945-46. The group will meet January 15 when the topic "International Relations" will be studied and discussed. Ilma Thum, Mary Workman and Ruth Lampkin compose the committee.
