

Best Wishes

For the New Year

All a board for 1945. Let's go! Let's go forward on the road to cherished ideals and coveted goals—farther than ever before. Forward along the road to happiness!

We cannot see what's beyond the bend of the road, or over the crest of the hill, but we ardently hope that it's something mighty good—FOR YOU!

CHRISTMAS GET TOGETHER ENJOYED

Members and friends of the church met at the Free Methodist parsonage the evening of December 20th for a time of visiting and of social enjoyment. Also for the exchange of gifts, names having been drawn earlier.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. O. Hosman, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beers, Florence, Howard and Ella, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wright and Eugene from Creswell, Mrs. John Ross and Mary Jane, Mrs. Helen Haynes and Miss Vida Beers, George Tarr, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fauts and Dale, Mrs. Garland and daughters Shirley and Stella, Mrs. Rosa Martin, Mrs. Rhett VanSchoick and little son, James Garland, Mrs. Bernice Overton, and the hostess, Rozella Douglas.

Refreshments were enjoyed, and after a very pleasant evening the group was led in prayer by Mr. Hosman, who is class leader for the church. All departed amid many good wishes for a Merry Christmas.

The party served as a farewell for Stella Wilberger, who left on the night train to join her husband who is in military service at present in New Port, R. I.

CAMELLIA CLUB PARTY

The Camellia club held their annual Christmas party Thursday at the home of Mrs. Mary Plunkett. A turkey dinner was served at 1 o'clock after which gifts were exchanged. During the afternoon the names of secret sisters were revealed and names drawn for the coming year. Mrs. Frances Swanson was an additional guest. The next meeting will be December 18 at the home of Mrs. June Johnson.

THE AD LIBITUM CLUB

Mrs. Frank Bradford, assisted by her daughter Betty, entertained the Ad Libitum club Thurs. for the yearly Christmas party. A dessert course was served followed with a social afternoon. Christmas gifts were exchanged and plans made for a turkey dinner New Year's night when the husbands will be guests. The affair will be held at the Alvis Wicks' home. Mrs. Florence Mills was a house guest for the afternoon.

BIRTHDAY CLUB

Miss Goldie Hayes entertained the Birthday club Thursday for the annual Christmas party. A dessert course was served after which gifts were exchanged and a social afternoon enjoyed. Twelve members were present and two guests, Mrs. W. E. Nixon and Miss Hazel Tohlen. The club will hold the January meeting with Mrs. Paul Radtke.

UTOPIA CLUB LUNCHEON

The Utopia club met Thursday for a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Nelson Durham with Mrs. Della Richmond assistant hostess. Special guests for the occasion were Mrs. Howard Mackin of New Richmond, Wisc., and Mrs. Bob Grannis, recent arrival from Corpus Christi, Texas. Following the luncheon Christmas gifts were exchanged and social entertainment enjoyed. Members were presented gifts by Mrs. Richmond club president, and also received gifts from Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, a former member from Portland. During the afternoon club members wrote a letter to Mrs. Umphrey and also sent her a gift. The January meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Loring McLaughlin.

LIONS HAVE CHRISTMAS PARTY

Last Thursday was the annual Christmas party of the Cottage Grove Lions club and the members were entertained with several Christmas carols by the Jefferson school girl's glee club and by Mrs. George Hardy, accompanied by Mrs. H. A. Hagen at the piano. Today the meeting will be in the form of a New Year's party with appropriate new year resolutions. Last Thursday club members drew names and will write a resolution for the name drawn. Visitors at the meeting last Thursday were: L. C. Schroeder, CEM with the navy Seabees and Mrs. Schroeder of Medford.

GITHENS MOTORS ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Githens were hosts to the employees of the Floyd Githens Motors at the annual Christmas party held in the Odd Fellows hall Saturday evening. Turkey with all its trimmings was served to thirty people. After the Christmas dinner, gifts to the employees was presented by Mr. Githens. Group singing and entertainment supplied the amusement for the evening and featuring the entertainment the boss man himself is alleged to have given a demonstration of the hula hula dance.

HARMONY CIRCLE MEETS

The Harmony Circle of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Carl Bone on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Kenneth Hickok lead the devotions. The afternoon was spent in preparing the candy treat for the children's Sunday school Christmas party. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The date and place for the next meeting of the group will be announced later.

IDA WILLIAMS HEADS STAR FOR 1945

Highlighting the social activities of the past week was the installation of officers of the chapter of Eastern Star in the Masonic temple which was decorated in keeping with the Yuletide season. Installing officer was Anna Graham assisted by Louise Caldwell; Barbara Hill, installing marshal; Maxine Ward, installing organist; and June Bird, installing chaplain, with Donna Allen, retiring worthy matron, presiding.

During the business meeting, preceding the installation of officers, the officers gave a degree for Donna Allen, retiring worthy matron and presented her with a gift, junior past matron, Maxine Ward, making the presentation, and Louise Caldwell, worthy patron. At this time Mrs. Irma Thum, member of the credentials committee for the state of Oregon, was introduced and escorted to the east.

Officers installed for the ensuing year were Ida Williams, worthy matron; Earl Hill, worthy patron; Nettie Gawley, associate matron; Ted Taylor, associate patron; Miss Eunice VanDemburg, secretary; Barbara Hill, treasurer; Harriet Horn, conductress; Gloria Arnold, associate conductress; Ruth Smith, chaplain; Elsie Hickok, organist; Faye Vohs, Ada; Mildred Taylor, Ruth; June Mueller, Esther; Delma Graham, Martha; Ruth Thompson, Electa; Vivian Caviness, warder; George McQueen, sentinel. Gladys Hall acted as installing marshal to install Barbara Hill as treasurer.

The incoming officers honored the incoming worthy matron, Ida Williams, with a floral degree and presented her with a gift, after which she presented each officer with a gift. She was also presented with a gavel sent by her husband, Verne Williams, who is serving overseas, the presentation being made by S. L. Godard.

At this time Donna Allen, retiring worthy matron, was presented with a past matron's pin, a gift from her husband, Don Allen serving in the South Pacific, Maxine Ward making the presentation.

The incoming worthy matron announced her committees for the ensuing year. The officers were the recipients of many gifts and flowers.

At the close of the installation service, refreshments were served by the committee.

CHRISTMAS PARTY
Mrs. Kenneth Mickey and Mrs. Paris Breedlove were hostesses for the Christmas party for the Service Guild of the Methodist church at the Mickey home on Thursday evening. Mrs. Wayne Monroe had charge of the devotions using "The Birth of Christ" as her topic. The evening's entertainment was planned by Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. Robert Graham. Several games were played and prizes won by Mrs. W. H. Bacheider and Mrs. Arthur Weinkauf. The members exchanged Christmas gifts and group singing of carols was lead by Mrs. Norman Richards.

The hostesses served refreshments at the close of the evening.

JUSTAMERE GIFT EXCHANGE

At the Justamere club which met recently with Mrs. Warren Hansen, an exchange of Christmas gifts was held and followed by a social evening of cards. The house was beautifully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season.

The next meeting was announced for January 9th with Mrs. Bud Husted.

STEWART FAMILY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. LaSells Stewart entertained with a family dinner and Christmas season gathering. Guests were Lt. Col. and Mrs. Faye Stewart and children Suzanne and Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Chapman and daughter Ann of Baker and Mrs. Loren Stewart and son LaSells of Eugene.

IN ORDER TO PREPARE OUR YEAR-END INVENTORY, WE WILL CLOSE SATURDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 30th AT SIX O'CLOCK AND BE OPEN AGAIN AS USUAL TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 2nd AT 9:00 O'CLOCK WITH A NEW STOCK OF MERCHANDISE.

MAY IT BE
Your Best Year

When all is said and done the eternal quest of human beings is for happiness. Our wish for you in 1945 is for more happiness — more than you have ever known before, whether that happiness be in gainful occupation or the attainment of some long desired goal.

Thank you for having remembered us so generously during the past year.
