

SOCIETY—

Telephone 159

Avis McDowell Is Yule Bride Of Albert E. Payne

Miss Avis G. McDowell, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. M. McDowell became the bride of Albert E. Payne, son of Mrs. C. W. Partin, Cottage Grove and the late H. H. Payne, Crescent City, California, Wednesday, December 22.

The simple but impressive ceremony took place at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Woodard, sister of the bride, 311 Center street, Oregon City. Rev. Roy Achor read the candlelight service in front of the fireplace lighted for the occasion in the presence of immediate members of both families and intimate friends.

The bride was attired in a dress of soft beige trimmed in chocolate brown with nail-head trim and brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and pink bouvardia. Mrs. Kenneth Woodard was her sister only attendant. She was attired in a rose wool afternoon dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations and bouvardia.

Milton Gaddert of Oregon City was best man.

A small reception immediately followed the wedding. The bride's cake was served by Mrs. E. G. Roth, another sister of the bride, after the initial cut by the bride and bridegroom. The lace covered table was arranged with a centerpiece of white flowers, guarded by white tapers. Assisting in serving was Mrs. H. H. McKinney, Portland, sister of the bride. Three nieces of the bride also assisted who included Mrs. Eugene Walker, Portland; Miss Gwendolyn Woodard and Mrs. Jack Woodard. Miss Grace Tiffany was in charge of the guest book.

After a brief honeymoon the couple will make their home in Portland.

The bride was formerly employed in the offices of the Oregon City Woolen Mills for several years and is now employed at the Foundation Worsted Company, Milwaukie. Her husband, who has been honorably discharged from the US army, is now employed in Portland.

Those attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gaddert, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moeck, Mrs. Cecelia Dugan and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Woodard—Oregonian.

Mrs. Woodard Hostess

The P. D. G. Garden club held their first meeting of the new year Friday afternoon with Mrs. Albert Woodard as their hostess at her home. In the absence of the program leader, a general discussion was held on "What to do in the Garden in January," and plans were made for 1945 gardens.

A guest of the afternoon was Miss Geneva Sayre who was at the Free Methodist church, and who was a prisoner in a Japanese camp for two years. Miss Sayre gave a very interesting talk on her life while a prisoner in the camp.

Refreshments were served at the tea hour by the hostess and the next meeting was announced for February 2 at the home of Mrs. J. A. Schneider.

Double Birthday Celebrated.

A double birthday party was held Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Porter. The honored guests were Mrs. George Watts, mother of Mrs. Porter, who celebrated her birthday Sunday, and Mrs. Emily Stapleton of Coupeville, Washington, whose birthday was on the following Wednesday. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gierau and son Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith and daughter Janita, Rev. Louis Schaller, Laraine and Lenore Porter.

Mrs. Stapleton is leaving to visit her son in Potlatch, Idaho, after spending a month visiting in Cottage Grove with Mrs. Watts.

Methodist Men to Meet.

Next Monday night the Methodist Men will meet in the church dining room for a potluck supper at 6:30 o'clock. A meeting will follow with Weston Allen in charge of the devotional service and Emmett Tedford speaking on "Race Relations" followed by an open discussion and slides on "Race Relations."

Committees Named for Hebron Grange

Hebron Grange met at the community hall on Saturday evening for their monthly business meeting, with C. C. Gilham, newly elected master. Quarterly reports were made by Mrs. Ben Chilson and Mrs. Walter Baker, retiring secretary and treasurer. A report on home economics was given by the home economics chairman, Jeanne Morton, on seven gift packages for hospitalized men and women in the service and treats at the annual Christmas party.

A number of standing committee members and chairmen for the year were named as follows: Walter Baker, legislature; Mrs. Jeanne Morton, home economics; O. M. Patton, Clair Chapman and Alfred White, agriculture. A report on the Latham hot school lunch program, sponsored by the Grange, was given by Mrs. Fred Harris, with a call being made for canned fruits and hemmed dish towels.

O. M. Patton gave his findings on conditions relative to the proposed cooperative marketing plan, with Donald Kabler reporting for Creswell Grange. Henry Snauer and Claude Arne spoke on the reaction of Dorena Grange for the plan. Mr. Arne told of promising future for such a plan to be participated in by all southern Lane district farmers. Mr. Patton was appointed as a member to represent Hebron Grange on a committee to be composed of members from neighborhood granges.

Special guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Arne and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Snauer from Dorena Grange, Donald Kabler from Creswell Grange, Mr. Kabler talked on Oregon crops, paying tribute to the late George A. Hyslop of Oregon State college crops department. A postscript to the tribute was made by Walter Baker, personal friend of the late Mr. Hyslop.

During the lecture hour a piano and whistling solo was given by Miss Alice White and a reading by Mrs. Fred Harris. Following the business meeting refreshments were served in charge of Jeanne Morton.

The regular social evening of the grange will be held on January 20th, with a business meeting on February 3rd.

World Friendship Group Meets

Miss Lois Welden and Miss Mary Lou Thompson were co-hostesses Thursday evening to the World Friendship Group of the Methodist church at the Welden home. Miss Sara Bjorset, vice president, conducted the business meeting in the absence of the president, Miss Mildred Collier. Mrs. Frank E. Brown, sponsor, led the devotional service, entitled "I Bind My Heart to the Brother Near at Hand." She also led the lesson discussion on Jane Adams' work in Hull House. Refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the meeting. The next meeting will be with Miss Barbara Valentine on February 1 with Miss Barbara Houser assistant hostess.

Odd Fellows-Rebekahs Install.

Joint installation of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs was held Friday night in the I.O.O.F. hall. The following officers of the Rebekahs were installed by Rosa Lewis, installing officer: vice grand, Helen Olson; recording secretary, Grace Daskam; financial secretary, Stella Baker; treasurer, Lauretta Safley. Appointive officers installed were: warden, Alma Porterfield; conductor, Helen Ashbridge; flag bearer, Gladys Henderson; R. S. to noble grand, Vera Zieback; L. S. to noble grand, Vina Smith; chaplain, Blanche Danker; outside guardian, Susie Schneider; R. S. to vice grand, Elsie Currin; L. S. to vice grand, Lottie Asbury. The noble grand, Juanita Woodson, and inside guardian, Mabel Turner, were absent and will be installed at a later meeting.

At the close of the installation service, refreshments were served by the Odd Fellows.

La Comus Club Next Tuesday

Mrs. Guy Earl will entertain the LaComus club next Tuesday at a 1:00 o'clock dessert.

First Meeting of New Year

The first meeting of the new year for the London 4-H Mothers club was held at the clubhouse on Wednesday, with a covered dish luncheon held at noon and a business meeting with election of officers. The annual report of activities and financial reports were given by the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Doran Ritter. She also reported that bonds valued at $1275 had been sold at the club booth during the 6th Bond Drive.

Mrs. Lynch Currin was re-elected president for the coming year; Mrs. George Gunn, vice president and Mrs. Doran Ritter, secretary-treasurer. It was voted to take up a course of study this year, each member to make a report on one 4-H club project during the year. This study will give a better understanding of work being done throughout the nation and aid mothers to show their own children at home how reports should be written, up and give better co-operation in the home club work they are doing.

It was decided that members would work on basketry to use the reed belonging to the club before taking up a new craft project. Members were asked to bring tools for basketry and those not wishing to work with reed to bring their handwork, as only one craft at a meeting will be worked on. Those having quilt chances were asked to bring the numbers to the next meeting when the drawing for the quilt, donated to the club by Mrs. Harry Stump, will be made.

Mrs. Emma Kelley and Mrs. Julian Small were welcomed as new members and 20 members paid dues for this year. Mrs. Minnie Jones was a luncheon guest. Housekeepers for the day were Mrs. Edward Brissette, Mrs. Glen Banton and Mrs. Lynch Currin. Mrs. Lawrence Funk was in charge of the nursery.

The next meeting will be an all day meeting at the clubhouse on January 17th.

Rainbow Officers Elected.

At the meeting of Rainbow Girls Monday night in Masonic temple officers for the coming term were elected. The newly elected officers are: worthy advisor, Juanita Powell; associate worthy advisor, Marie Lombard; Charity, Mary Lou Thompson; Hope, Sara Bjorset; Faith, Lois Welden; recorder, Irene Schaffer; treasurer, Shirley Allen; chaplain, Marjorie Colner; drill leader, Velda Smith; organist, Roberta Bagley; choir director, Joyce Clark; historian, Dixie Neil Bushell; corresponding secretary, Pat Dunlop; keeper of the jewels, Pat Kelly; reporter, Jane Beidler; love, Betty Jane Adams; religion, Ethel Mae Allen; nature, Mildred Collier; immortality, Abigail Trask; fidelity, Helen Smith; patriotism, Winifred Newton; service, Betty Bagley; confidential observer, Carol Hunter; outer observer, Barbara Madsen. Orlo Bagley was elected Rainbow dad.

Initiation was held for Jean Metcalf and the candidate was presented a corsage.

Installation of officers will be held January 22 which will be a formal public installation.

Organizer at Meeting.

The organizer and past state president of the Degree of Honor lodge, Mrs. Ethel Lindholm, was present at the regular business meeting Monday night when they met in the Eagles hall. Initiation was held at this time for Mrs. Josephine DeYoung which was followed by refreshments served by the committee, Mrs. Wilda King and Mrs. Merle King.

The next regular meeting will be February 12. Carnation club was announced for January 22 at the home of Marie Hogate with Lochie Thompson assisting hostess.

Mrs. Land Hostess to W.C.T.U.

Mrs. C. N. Land was hostess Friday afternoon to the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. T. M. Boyd was in charge of the devotions, using a New Year's subject. The program on "Courage" was presented by Mrs. Elsie Wells. The next meeting will be on Friday, February 2, the place to be announced later.

V. F. W. Auxiliary

The Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary held their meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall Monday. Following the routine business initiation was held for Mrs. Flora Koch. The group will meet again the second Monday in February.

Lt. Jones-Joyce Baldwin Wed

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends was the wedding of Miss Joyce Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Baldwin, and Lt. Thomas Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Kent. The wedding was announced Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin when they entertained at dinner.

The wedding was solemnized in November in Washington when Lt. Jones was home on leave from overseas duty.

Mrs. Jones is a graduate of the local high school with the class of 1943 and since that time has been in nurses training at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.

Lt. Jones graduated from the local high school in 1942 and enlisted in the army air corps in September 1942 and recently returned from 10 months active duty overseas.

They are visiting with her sister, the former Patricia Baldwin, in Seattle and with his sister, Mrs. Ivan Patten at Longview, Washington this week and will leave January 15 for Kingman, Arizona where Lt. Jones is stationed.

Former Couple Observe Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wallace celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their beautiful home on N. E. 27th Avenue in Portland, December 24, 1944 from 2 to 5 p. m. Receiving guests were the two daughters, Miss Ada Wallace and Mrs. Katherine Aust. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace greeted their many friends in a pleasing way. Many beautiful gifts were received and dainty refreshments were served with Miss Joan Aust, a granddaughter, assisting.

Albert W. Wallace and Miss Olevia Hansen were married December 24, 1894, in Cottage Grove at the home of L. F. Wooley by the late Rev. C. A. Wooley of Eugene, pioneer Presbyterian minister of Oregon. Only three of the wedding guests are now living: Mrs. Lizzie Gross, a sister of the bride, residing in California; Charles Cochran of Cottage Grove and Mrs. Hattie Best of Portland. Mrs. Best attended the reception. Mrs. Fannie Goode is a sister of Mr. Wallace and Mrs. Cad Wallace is a sister-in-law, both of Cottage Grove.

Mr. Wallace was born and raised in Cottage Grove, his father being a pioneer minister of Oregon. Mr. Wallace, by trade, was a brick mason.

Altar Society Elects Officers

The election of officers for the ensuing year was the main item of business at the recent meeting of the Altar Society held at the Catholic Rectory. Mrs. Leo Waldeck was named president to succeed Mrs. Glenn Scott; Mrs. D. J. Sullivan as vice president, and Mrs. W. Pynch takes the place of Mrs. J. W. Tarr as secretary. Mrs. Frank Gierau was retained as treasurer.

A towel shower for the parish house was given. It was voted to hold a card party at the parish house January 14th.

Royal Neighbors Install

The Royal Neighbors met Tuesday night at Eagles hall for business meeting and installation of officers. Mrs. Elsie Currin was installing officer and Anna Gates ceremonial marshal for the following officers: oracle, Nellie Blackmore; vice oracle, Bertha McQueen; recorder, Edna Burleson; chancellor, Elsie DeYoung; I. S., Myrtle Kent; O. S., Mary Duffey; marshal, Myrtle Neet; assistant marshal, Fern Anderson; manager for 3 years, Grace Jenkins; musician, Georgetta Funk; selflessness, Estella Gates; modesty, Grace Jenkins; captain, Anna Gates.

At the close of the camp, refreshments were served by Anna Gates and Bertha McQueen.

Elite Club Entertained

The Elite Bridge club was entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Joe Bricher. A 7:30 dessert preceded an evening of bridge with all members present and high score going to Mrs. Fred Hammond. Red carnations were used for table decorations. The club will meet again January 18 with Mrs. Stewart Carlson.

N. of W. Announces Meeting

The Neighbors of Woodcraft announce their social meeting for next Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Maude Wheeler.

Townsend Club

W. E. Masters, president, presided over the business meeting of the Townsend club. T. G. Short, outgoing president, installed Mrs. Ethel Applewhite, chairman on membership; T. M. Boyd, finance; O. E. Erwin, public relations and Elmer J. Kent, publicity. A program of readings, group singing and musical numbers by Mrs. Roy Ewing and Frank Hazen were enjoyed by the group. Refreshments were served at the close of the program.

It was voted to celebrate Dr. Townsend's birthday anniversary in January 15 with special musical numbers and refreshments.

1:30 Dessert

A 1:30 dessert was served to the Justamere club Tuesday by Mrs. E. R. Husted at her home. Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Pat Rickard and Mrs. Arthur Mason. Bridge followed the dessert with Mrs. Stewart Carlson winning high score. Mrs. Walter Hunter will entertain the club at the next meeting, January 23.

Shower for Miss June Rorer

Complimenting Miss June Rorer the employees of the Doleman Dixie Bakery had a covered dish luncheon and bridal shower Tuesday in her honor. A three-tiered decorated bridal cake centered the luncheon table which were seated 18 employees. Miss Rorer was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. She is employed at the Doleman Bakery.

Research Club

Tuesday evening at the city library each member of the Research club answered roll call by answering with an article pertaining to astronomy. The book reviewed was "A Leaf in the Storm" by Lin Yutang which was given by Mrs. L. W. Coiner.

Constellation Club

Mrs. Della Richmond and Mrs. William Petersen were hostesses at a regular meeting of the Constellation club Thursday afternoon in the Masonic club rooms. The afternoon was spent socially and with needle work after which refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Women's Relief Corps

Women's Relief Corps will meet Saturday, January 13 at 2:00 p. m. in Odd Fellow hall. There will be work and all members are requested to be present.

Clearance sale continued on coats, suits, handbags, dresses. Ernest Dress Shop, phone 36. 11c31

Banquet For Choir And Director

Last night L. P. Nebelung, pastor of the Church of Christ, sponsored a banquet in the church dining room honoring the choir and director, Mrs. Herbert Moon, in appreciation for their good work rendered.

At a beautifully appointed table, covers were laid for 31 guests. The table was especially attractive with sprays of five thorn and cedar intermingled the entire length of the table.

Mrs. John VanNortwich was toastmaster for the occasion and gave the address of appreciation with Mrs. Moon giving the response. Mrs. George Hardy favored the group with a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Moon, followed by a reading by Mrs. Ora Read Hemmenway.

Special guests were the Rev. and Mrs. George Hardy, Marvin Harpole and Ernest Wheeler. Other guests included: the choir, Helen Huff, Myrtle Huff, June Eastburn, Lucille Eastburn, Nova Shaw, Dixie Bushnell, Helen Smith, Patty Aubrey, Jean Hosman, Ethel Mae Allen, Mary Decker, Eileen Harpole, Lorene Miller, Shirley Hughes, Elva Thies, Walter Cook, and Bonnie Gleason; Mrs. Herbert Moon, the director; Mrs. John VanNortwich, Mrs. Ora Read Hemmenway, and those who assisted with the banquet: Mrs. Joe Gleason, Mrs. Sam Eastburn, Mrs. Arley Ferguson, Mrs. R. E. Anderson, Mrs. Marvin Harpole, Mrs. Ernest Wheeler.

Presbyterian Aid

At the meeting of the Presbyterian Aid held yesterday afternoon in the church parlors, Mrs. Roy Short, president, was in charge of the business session. At the tea hour, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Georg Bjorset, Mrs. S. L. Godard and Mrs. Eva Hatch.

Mrs. Anderson Entertains Club

Mrs. Fred Anderson was hostess last night at a 7:30 dessert for the La Mercedi Pont club. Her daughter, Miss Arline Anderson, was a guest. Mrs. Earl Ballou will be hostess at the next meeting which will be January 24.

Upholstry

REMODELING

REPAIRING

RECOVERING

All Work Guaranteed

27 SOUTH 6th STREET

Phone 254R

Valentine Day

Is Not Far Away.

See Us for
Valentine Candies
Seals Cards

Brown's Drug Store
Cottage Grove Pharmacy

GOLDEN RULE GROCERY

SHOP THE GOLDEN RULE WAY

Pork & Beans Van Camp's No 2 Jumbo 2 cans 29c

Karo Syrup Blue Label No. 10 Pail 69c

PURE LARD 4 lbs. 59c

SNACK Lunch Meat 12 oz. Can 39c

Grapefruit JUICE A 46 oz. Can 33c

Oranges Med. size Sunkist 3 doz. 95c

Grapefruit Texas Pinks 6 for 39c

ONIONS Boilers 10 lb. Sack 29c

Marshmallow ROLLS

Be Sure and Get Yours Either
Friday or Sunday at

DOLEMAN'S

The Home of Fine Cakes

Discontinuing Hats

All hats regardless of original price, now three dollars.

INVENTORY CLEARANCE SALE STILL IN EFFECT

Special Reductions on All Umbrellas.

The Smart Shop

Lois C. Leonard

Look Boys & Girls

EARN YOURSELF SOME MONEY

$1.00 For the Best Answers $1.00

The Most Important Happenings on the Following Dates January 1 to 15 in the past. Go back as far as you want for this information. Write it out with the date. Sign your name and turn it in to the store not later than January 17th. Any boy or girl 12 years or less.