Waring, George Coulouris and Marjorie Riordan. Fanny Skeffington, beautiful but flighty heroine of a motion picture which encompasses 26 eventful years extending from the first World War to the outbreak of the present conflict, is a character wholly unlike that ever essayed before by Bette Davis.

Produced by Philip G. and Julius J. Epstein, these celebrated Hollywood brothers also prepared the screen play. Vincent Sherman directed. The original score was composed by Franz Waxman and expert make-up effects obtained by Perc Westmore.
