BOY SCOUT ACTIVITIES

Scout Troop No. 60 met Monday at the Jefferson gym under the supervision of Scoutmaster Cliff Roberts and assistant, Rodney Safley. An invitational service was the high light of the evening when the following were awarded Tenderfoot pins: Tom Eddy, Larry Wolfard, Bob Shofstall, Ken Wicks, Bruce Brisbane, Lloyd Hoffman, Robert Cook, Richard Smith, Robert Gasper and Tom Coiner. H. H. Weeldreyer, assisted by the Rev. George Hardy, made the presentation as the boys in an impressive candlelight ceremony took the Scout oath. A number of parents were present for the investiture. The evening closed with a recreational period.

Troop No. 18 met Monday night at the armory under the leadership of their new Scoutmaster, Lester Porter Sr., and assistant, Wayne Baldwin. Art Weinkauf, who has been acting scoutmaster, will remain a member of the troop council. Plans are being made for a Court of Honor to be held in Cottage Grove February 13, the hour and place to be announced in next week's paper. After the business session the boys enjoyed a recreational hour.

FIRE DESTROYS REEDSPORT.

Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the shop and ways of the Umpqua River Navigation company at East Gardiner at 3:00 a. m. January 24th.

S. E. Albin of Newport, who was sleeping in the living quarters of the building was awakened when a small craft crashed to the floor in the adjoining shop when its supports were burned away. Albin, scantily attired, dashed from the burning building just as the roof of the structure caved in.

The boat shop and equipment of the Navigation company was partially covered by insurance. The loss is estimated at $20,000.00.

A deep sea fishing boat owned by Albin was in the shop for overhaul and repairs. It had been there three months and was to have been launched Friday, Jan. 26. It was totally destroyed and was not insured. The boat was valued at $15,000.00.

Green-Eyed Monster
Shakespeare is credited with popularizing green as the color of jealousy because of the lines in "Othello": "Beware of jealousy, it is the green-eyed monster."

Mosby Creek

Mrs. Bert Ball of Escondido, California has been visiting old friends in the neighborhood the past week.

Mrs. Berta McGuire of Walden and Mrs. Geo. Foster of Thornton Corners went to Eugene Tuesday accompanied by Mrs. Violet Duerst and Mrs. Millie Roby who attended the Project Leader's meeting in Eugene.

'Cora Ream of Delight Valley spent Friday night with Bettie Duerst.

Guests this week end at the Bill Bostick and Henry Bostick homes at Blue Mt. were Jim and Jack Bostick of Richmond, California; Al Bostick of Camp Lee, Virginia and wife and son Donnie of Eugene and Adele Bostick, who is attending the University in Eugene.

Pvt. and Mrs. G. Tucker are the parents of a baby girl, Paulita Kay, born one day last week at a Eugene hospital. Mrs. Tucker was Pauline Bridwell.

The R. E. A. has started to dig pole holes up Mosby Creek this last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson have received word from their son, Pfc. Paul Anderson, that he is in Belgium and that the weather is quite cold there.

RURAL MAIL BOXES MOLESTED

On January 31st, the mail carrier found large rocks in every mail box from Cottage Grove to John Dugan's place on highway 99, south of town. All flags were raised and the boxes left open.

Molesting mail boxes is a serious violation of the postal laws and is subject to a fine and imprisonment. Therefore, in order that such violations stop, I ask that patrons help by reporting to me names of persons guilty of this or any other similar act involving mail boxes. Or any information that may lead to the identification of such persons. N. J. Nelson, postmaster.

Wrinkle Out

When wool dresses or coats "rest" on hangers, fasten them so they hang straight . . . not twisted or wrinkled. Give them elbowroom and some of the wrinkles will drop out.

Poisonous Plant

The cocklebur plant is poisonous to hogs, cattle and sheep and especially dangerous in the spring while plants are young and tender.
