Daughters of The Nile Ceremony

Twenty-four women went to Portland last week when they were initiated into the Daughters of The Nile, an auxiliary organization to the Shrine. Those taking the degree were Mmes. Wilbur Workman, Schofield Stewart, W. E. Lebow, Frank Galdabini, Francis Horn, William Petersen, L. J. McCoy, Fred Bressler, James P. Graham, P. S. Bukowski, L. S. Crawford, Jos Arnold, Earl Hill, Nelson Durham, Maude Wheeler, Lloyd Griggs, Orlo Bagley, Jack Maulding, C. E. Brown, Guy Earl, L. Lasater, Matt Smith, H. A. Hagen and Cecil Caldwell. Accompanying them were Mmes. Roy Short, Karl K. Mills, George Jacobsen, Victor Chambers and Herbert Lombard, all members of the group for several years. The impressive ceremony took place Friday night in the Shrine auditorium at the Masonic temple in Portland with a class of 180 women from numerous Oregon cities initiated. Mrs. Workman, a girlhood friend of the Nile queen was selected as candidate to represent the group for the initiatory degrees. Cottage Grove was the largest group outside the city of Portland. Following the ceremony a banquet was served and 650 persons were seated at the tables. Entertainment and dancing followed.

Mrs. Arne Cooley Hill Hostess

The Cooley Hill club met Thursday with Mrs. Rufus Arne. Fifteen members were present. At the business meeting the club voted to contribute $5 to the Red Cross drive when it is launched. The afternoon was spent tying a comforter. The place of the next meeting will be announced later.

Harmony Circle Baptist Church

The Harmony Circle met Thursday with Mrs. A. C. Spriggs. Mrs. Alton Long opened the meeting with devotions. Plans for future weeks of the Sunday nursery school, sponsored by the Circle, were formulated. Tentative plans for the Circle programs of the next few meetings were discussed. The Valentine motif was predominant in decorations at the refreshment table when the hostess served at the tea hour. Mrs. Long will entertain the group for the next meeting.

Presbyterian Aid Society

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society met Wednesday of last week in the church parlors with Mrs. W. H. Daugherty and Mrs. H. B. Ferrin hostesses. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. A. J. Kammann. During the business meeting it was voted to purchase a new stove for the church kitchen. At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served.

Camellia Club Valentine Party

Mrs. Velma Forrester entertained the Camellia club Thursday with a 1 o'clock luncheon and Valentine party. Festive decorations were in keeping with the occasion. A social afternoon was enjoyed and a "secret sister" gift exchange was featured. The club will meet in March with Mrs. B. C. Shattuck for a St. Patrick's party.
