Those students signed up thus far are: Ivan Hoyer and Bob Bauder, trying for panel discussion; Rosemary McCrigger, radio and poetry; Ethel May Allen, poetry; Maxine Blue, radio and humorous; Betty Hood, humorous; June Mendell, humorous; Irene Schaffer, humorous.

Miss Anne Holey, public speaking teacher, is in charge of the local contest.

Miss Hutchison Elected

Hazel Hutchison, senior, was elected state secretary of the Home Economics club by the economics departments of the state, February 26.

Hazel will go to Pullman, Washington, March 1, 2, 3 to attend a high school home economics club regional conference, at which representatives from all western states will be presented.

Refugee Speaks at Joint Assembly

Miss Lea Larber, a German refugee who is attending the University of Oregon, was a guest speaker at the joint girls' league and boys' federation assembly Friday.

"To know Germany you must know its history," said Miss Larber, who then gave a brief history of Hitler's rise in power in Germany. The second part of her speech explained Germany's educational system. Only a selected few are allowed to go to high school and college. Miss Larber stated. Along with education she explained the youth movement. After she finished her talk students plied her with questions for nearly 30 minutes, concerning almost every phase of her life in Germany.

Canteen Questionnaire

Last week canteen questionnaires were handed out to students to find out why there isn't a larger attendance at the Canteen and what improvements can be made so that larger attendance will be in order. The results were as follows: Everyone thinks it is a worthwhile activity; that furniture would make the place look more presentable; that curtains of some sort should be put up so

Creswell

Creswell Grange Meets

Creswell Grange met last Thursday evening with an attendance of 118. The first and second degrees were given to a class of candidates with Mrs. F. DeBerry in charge of the floor work and the tableaux. The tableaux were beautiful indeed and won high praise for Mrs. DeBerry, whose tableau work is an outstanding factor in Creswell Grange work. Mr. and Mrs. E. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. C. Scarborough and Mr. Schofield were obligated in the 3rd and 4th degrees. Sales slip returns netted $3.30 in the past quarter.

Ralph Rogers, E. W. Malone, E. E. Allen and Ed Graham were put on the Cub Scout committee for one year.

Grange members offered the use of their grange club room for the use of the Veterans of Foreign Wars post, just recently organized. The grange feels it an honor to have this grand body meet in their comfortable hall.

Grange members voted the building of four more dining tables as the fast growing membership makes the present number of tables inadequate.

A beautifully made glass case for ribbon awards was presented to the grange by S. A. Valentine. Ten dollars was voted for the Red Cross. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clark, Morris Culver, Mr. and Mrs. David Francis and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Mendorf. There were eleven birthday guests.

The Economic club voted to buy an organ for use in the club room and will also be used by the Juvenile grange and Cub Scouts.

Mrs. B. Jakobs of Corvallis is visiting at the home of Mrs. Parlin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ritchie of Remote spent several days visiting with friends around Creswell.

The Theta Rho club held a skating party Thursday evening. They drew names for "secret pals" also, that evening.

Kenneth Coleman RDM 3/C, left Tuesday for San Francisco, after a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Coleman. Mrs. Delmer Ransdell, his sister, also left at the same time for Camp Roberts to be near her husband, who is stationed there.

Mr. and Mrs. John O. Ohman Soun. 2/C, U.S. Navy of Coos Bay, visited Wednesday evening at the Joslin home. Mr. Ohman is ashore for a short leave. Mrs. Ohman is a niece of Mrs. Joslin. Relatives of the Ohmans gathered for a happy evening together at the Joslin home. They were Mr. and Mrs. William Doty and son Stephen of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. George Stratton of Cottage Grove.

Home Economics club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. I. Kent with Mrs. R. F. Scott and Mrs. G. R. Miller hostesses. Plans were made for helping the Juvenile grange regarding equipment. Mrs. David Francis conducted the program hour. Mrs. Kent and Mrs. Graham sang several southern songs. Mrs. H. S. Joslin in dark costume also sang several songs. The new year books were handed out. Mrs. B. Vaughn will present the next program. Roll call will be "Garden Suggestions."

The regular meeting of the Parents club was well attended Thursday afternoon. The new projector movies presented the story of "Trees of Tomorrow" and several more numbers were a trumpet solo by Mary Wright and solo by Rose Spencer with Joyce Emerson, accompanist. Those interested are asked to keep in mind the following dates schedule of moving pictures in future: March 1, 8, 15, 22 and April 5, 12, 26.

Nineteen members of Evangeline chapter Eastern Star of Eugene were guests of Creswell chapter. Mrs. Alberta McMurphy, past worthy grand matron attended, also Mrs. F. A. Everson, G. N. McDonah and H. W. Taylor were initiated. A group from Westfir and Oakridge and Mrs. Cora Olson of Eugene also attended.

A group of Rebekahs visited the Lorane lodge Monday evening. They were Mrs. A. Mogstad, Mrs. V. Johnston, Mrs. Frank Sly, Mrs. N. Steele, Mrs. C. Ellis, Mrs. R. M. Carpenter, Mrs. N. Skaggs, Mrs. Minnie Henriksen, Mrs. R. F. Scott, Mrs. Enid Graves, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Miller, S. C. Veatch and Mrs. C. I. Kent. Mrs. Kent sang a pleasing solo and Mrs. Sly gave several readings.

Regional Scout Meet Held Sunday

Five representatives of the South Lane district, Boy Scout council, attended the regional meeting held in Eugene Sunday afternoon and evening. Attending from here were Messrs. and Mmes. H. L. Wolfard, N. J. Nelson Jr., Orlo Bagley, and Joe Crick and F. W. Blickle.

In the election of the regional council officers, J. R. Bruckhart was reelected president; L. S. Bee, Eugene, vice president; B. C. Elliott, Roseburg, vice president; Geo. B. Cox, Corvallis, vice president; John J. Rogers, Eugene, honorary vice president; C. E. Lombard, Eugene, treasurer; Howard J. Boyd, Eugene, scout commissioner and Alton F. Baker of Eugene with J. R. Bruckhart, national council representatives. In addition to Orlo Bagley as chairman of the South Lane district, three south Lane men were elected on the council at large: L. S. Hird, Dorena; H. L. Wolfard and Damon Scott, Cottage Grove.

Ralph A. Kinder of Eugene, district commissioner, was presented with the silver beaver award for distinguished service to boyhood.
