Corned Beef
Corned beef originally meant the meat was preserved by dry salting—sprinkled with or embedded in "corns or salt." Corn is an old English word meaning a grain. As dry salting passed out of usage corning came to signify brining.

Church Activities

"Growth in the Early Church," will be the sermon topic for the morning worship at the Church of God. At 7:00 p.m. a set of 38 colored slides, will be shown. The set contains recent pictures of Palestine, showing the spots where Jesus was to have been during his ministry. The set is entitled, "In the Steps of the Master" and is reported by the "Better Book and Bible House" as one of the finest sets of slides it has ever had.

The sermon topic for 8:00 p.m. will be "The Requirements of God." Christian fellowship is very helpful to christian living. Come and enjoy these pictures and unite with us in worshipping the blessed Master.

The subject at the eleven o'clock service is "Studies on Conversion" at the Presbyterian church. Both the senior and the young people's choir will sing. At the five o'clock vesper the subject is "World Christian Fellowship." This is the fourth in a series of studies on "The Cost of World Order." Mr. H. B. Ferrin lead us in a very profitable discussion last Sunday night on the "Political Cost of World Order." Mrs. George Matthews will be the leader Sunday night. On Wednesday nights at eight o'clock, we are at present studying "The High Calling of God to the Present Church." Using as a basis of our study, Paul's letter to the Philippians.

A Spiritual Life Crusade will start in the First Baptist church at the morning worship hour with the Rev. Floyd Arnold, pastor of the Baptist church, St. Helens, Oregon, as the evangelist. These services will continue for two weeks concluding on March 18th. Services will be held nightly except Saturday at 7:30. The public is invited to these services to hear a young man with a youthful message.

A special Communion offering will be taken at the serving of the Lord's Supper Sunday morning for our retired ministers and missionaries.

The Rev. J. R. Stewart, district superintendent of the Free Methodist church, will be guest speaker at the local church at both the 11 o'clock service Sunday a.m. March 4th and at the 8 o'clock evening service.

Communion service follows the morning preaching service. Sunday services at the Church of Christ will include the sermon topic, "The Prodigal Son," at the forenoon worship hour; in the evening the pastor will speak on "Is Baptism Essential to Salvation?" There will also be a baptismal service, Sunday evening.

Conference of Town Country Churches Tues. Well Attended

A most successful conference of town and country Baptist churches was held Tuesday at the First Baptist church. The Conference started at 2:00 with devotions by the Rev. C. Leslie of Lebanon. This was followed by an address by the Rev. C. E. Dunham of Veneta on "Surveying Your Field." Special music for the afternoon session was Mrs. Ted Johnson and Mrs. Charles Johnson singing a duet, following this the Rev. Geo. Hardy gave an address on the "Ministers Tools." The Rev. LeRoy Crossley of Springfield brought an address on "Architecture and Landscaping the Church."

At 6:00 a covered dish dinner was served to over 50 persons and during the dinner hour the Rev. K. B. Daniels, director of the town and country department outlined the work of that department.

The evening session started at 7:15 with devotions led by the Rev. Leslie followed by a stirring address by the Rev. H. P. Sconce on "Rural Evangelism." The main address of the day was given by the Rev. Clarence Stauffer, director of Christian education of the Oregon State Baptist Convention. His most instructive address was on "Christian Education in the Town and Country Church." The conference was very well attended with eight Baptist churches of the Umpqua Association taking part.

Rites for Mrs. H. M. DeLong Held Here On Saturday P. M.

Mrs. Helen McCoy DeLong, 75, died at a Eugene hospital Friday, following a major operation which she underwent a few days previous. Mrs. DeLong was born June 19, 1870 at Fredrickburg, Ohio and had been a resident here since 1910, living in the Cooley Hill section about a mile and a half south of town.

Among the survivors are a son, Donald DeLong of Roseburg; two daughters, Mrs. Jean Woods of Portland and Miss Ruth DeLong of Cottage Grove; a sister, Mrs. S. Warner of Gary, Indiana, and two grandchildren, William Woods with the U.S. navy and Helen Woods of Portland.

Graveside services were held Saturday afternoon at the I. O. O. F. Masonic cemetery with the Rev. Frank Brown, officiating and Mills mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Rate Drops
The venereal rate in armed forces of the United States during the Mexican war jumped from a peacetime norm that hovered around 90, to 161 per 1,000; leaped to 214 per 1,000 during the Civil war; reached a high of 180 per 1,000 during the Spanish-American war; and rose to 107 per 1,000 during World War I. In World War II, the army rate is running less than 30 new cases per 1,000.
