Miss Morton April Bride

Of interest to her many friends was the lovely wedding on Saturday, April 21st, at which Jacqueline Morton became the bride of Lee Diran Johnson in San Francisco. Dressed in white was the bride, and the Swedenborgian Church where Reverend Othmar Rosich officiated for the double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock was decorated with boughs of spring flowers, as was the hope of Miss Sarah Campbell, where the reception was held.

Given in marriage by her father, Mr. Leon Morton, Jacqueline wore a bridal gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a tight bodice, full skirt and train. Wax orange blossoms decorated the shirred tulle cap to which her four tiered three-quarter length veil was attached and she carried a white bride's Bible with white orchids and shower.

Designed with fitted bodice and full shirred skirt was the pink tulle frock of Miss Shirley Vollmer, maid of honor, and she carried an arm bouquet of rose peonies. Showering petals before the bride from a white and silver chiffon basket was Miss Sandra Sue Carlson, niece of the bride and she wore a floor length dress of pale blue chiffron.

Organ music was played and Lt. Katherine Groon sang "I Love Thee Dear," and "Always." Zaven Johnson stood with his brother as best man and ushers were Nick Colleta, Ted Torosian, William Savage and Charles Johnson. Receiving and assisting were Misses Betty McLain and Martha Terrell, who also handed wrapped wedding cake to the departing hundred guests.

The tiered bride's cake, topped with a wedding bell, was cut by Mrs. Elsa Vollmer and the guests toasted the bridal couple with champagne, after which the newlyweds left for a short bridal trip. For her going-away the bride wore a tailored dove gray gabardine suit with black accessories and corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Johnson is well known here, having been raised near Cottage Grove. She graduated from the local high school and in 1943 from Oregon State college where she was affiliated with Sigma Kappa sorority and a member of Mu Beta Beta and Kappa Kappa Alpha honor societies. Following her graduation she spent a year as student dietitian in San Francisco bay area hospitals and at Hammond Army Hospital in Modesto. She is nutrition specialist at Children's Hospital in San Francisco.

T/Sgt. Johnson is attached to the Army Medical Corps at Hammond Hospital. He is the son of Mrs. A. N. Johnson of Fresno.

Those attending the wedding from here were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon M. Morton; Mrs. Stewart Carlson and Mrs. Walter A. Woodard, aunts to the bride; and her niece, Miss Sandra Sue Carlson.

Miss Woodard Bride of Lt. Wiles

Mr. and Mrs. John Farrar Woodard announce the marriage of their daughter Lucille to Lt. Ray D. Wiles, U. S. army air force, Saturday, March 10, at a quiet home wedding at Walla Walla, Washington, where they will make their home temporarily as Lt. Wiles is stationed there as a B-24 pilot. Lt. Wiles is the son of Mrs. Ruth A. Wiles of Denver, Colorado.

The bride graduated from the local high school with the class of 1940, later she was employed at Kem's Drug store and for some time has been working at the Walla Walla air base.

Mrs. Durham Hostess

Mrs. Nelson Durham entertained Utopia club at her home on Thursday afternoon. A dessert was served by the hostess and the remainder of the afternoon was spent socially. Guests were Mrs. Maggie Gross of Prineville, Mrs. C. E. Dillman, Mrs. Kitty Kime, Mrs. Julia Powell.

O. W. Dinner Club

Monday evening the O. W. Dinner club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short. This was the regular monthly meeting and the club will be entertained on May 28 by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith.

Twenty-fifth Anniversary

A number of local people attended the ceremonies in St. Mary's Catholic church, Eugene, April 18, honoring Very Rev. Francis P. Leipzig on the occasion of his twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

Father Leipzig had been in charge of the Cottage Grove Catholic church since 1929 until it was made an independent parish in 1942 with the appointment of Rev. James Maxwell as the first pastor. It was under Father Leipzig's direction that extensive repairs and improvements were made to the church in 1939. He has also spoken a number of times in Cottage Grove in civic and other public affairs.

Tuesday Evening Club

Current topics of interest were reported on Tuesday evening by the members of the Tuesday Evening club when the regular meeting was held in the city library. Mrs. Della Richmond reported on "The Ten Best Drugs of 1945" and Mrs. F. L. Grannis used as her topic "The San Francisco Conference." "La Guardia's Radio Addresses" was reviewed by Miss Mariette Hamant and "What Is Being Planned for You," April Reader's Digest, by Mrs. W. L. Workman; "The Island of Luzon" was reviewed by Mrs. E. E. Cone and "Report on Television" by Mrs. C. W. Roberts. Plans were discussed for the next meeting which will be a theatre party.

Meeting of D. U. V.

A meeting of the Daughters of the Union Veterans was held Tuesday night at the Methodist church. At this time three applications were received for members. A letter was read from the department inspector, Laura England of Eugene, stating she would like to pay the tent a visit May 8. This was voted to hold a special meeting May 1st at which time an application for another member will be submitted and practice for initiation will be held. It is requested that all officers, who will have an active part in the initiation, be present. And all members of the tent are urged to be present May 8th for the visit of the department inspector and initiation.

Convention Plans Completed.

At the meeting of the Rebekah lodge Friday night in the Odd Fellows hall plans were completed for the potluck dinner to be served Saturday at noon for the Lane county Odd Fellow convention to be held here. Announcements were made of the Past Noble Grand club meeting to be held today in the L.O.O.F. hall and of the Staff club which will meet tomorrow night (Friday) in the hall. All members are urged to be present and practice for the coming initiation.

Church Activities

The evangelistic services that have been conducted at the Free Methodist church by Rev. A. R. Monahan of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, closed Sunday evening. Rev. Monahan left on Monday for Los Angeles and will begin a series of meetings next Sunday at Redlands, California. Miss Marcella Amack, who has been assisting with the singing, left Monday for her home in Salem and then to Newport to assist in a meeting. Mrs. Dorothy Ratcliffe and Miss Bernetta Bolt will remain in Cottage Grove for some time to assist Rev. Mrs. Douglas with the church work.

The subject for the lesson topic for the Sunday morning service at the Christian Science church is "Probation After Death."

You are invited to attend the services at the First Baptist church this Sunday. A church with a spiritual message needs spiritual people so come and join with us in prayer for the San Francisco Conference. The morning message by the pastor, Rev. George E. Hardy, will be "Three Great Pictures." A special message in song will be brought by the senior choir.

At the evening service the pastor will conclude his messages on the printed sermons with the topic "Invitation to Family Reunion." Come and bring a friend with you to this evangelist service.

The eleven o'clock sermon topic at the Methodist church Sunday morning will be "Unconscious Influences" by the pastor, the Rev. Frank E. Brown. The regular evening service will be at 7:30 and the Youth Fellowships at 6:30 p. m.

The message for the morning worship at the Church of God will be another taken from "Christ's Sermon on the Mount." At 8 p. m. the message will be, "The Sustaining Power of God." The story hour for the children has been changed from Saturday to Friday, 4 to 5 p. m. This week it will be a missionary topic.

rites for J. E. Gustafson FRIDAY

Rites for John E. Gustafson, 85, a native of Sweden, were held from the Simon chapel in Eugene Friday afternoon. Mr. Gustafson died at his home in Coburg April 17th. He came to the United States at an early age and lived at Minneapolis for a time before moving to Eugene twenty-four years ago.

Survivors in addition to the widow are two daughters, Mrs. H. B. Stav of Saskatchewan, Canada, and Mrs. Arline Jones of Cottage Grove, and seven sons including two well-known here, Melvin and Kenneth, who operated the Gustafson's super creamed store here.
