"Trip Around the World"

According to a report of the Research club some extensive traveling was done by the members Tuesday evening and we take it for granted they went by plane as they couldn't have made a "Trip Around the World" by any other mode of traveling. They arrived in France at the home of Mrs. Georg Bjorset in time for a salad course served with French bread and punch served in typical French style on a huge table with white tapers in the play room of the basement of the Bjorset home which represented an artist's studio in a wine cellar. The studio was very realistic with placards advertising French airlines, etchings, bottles and tapestries. The hostesses to the members while they sojourned in France, and who also furnished the entertainment, were Mrs. Bjorset, Mrs. Alvis Wicks, Mrs. Nora Small and Miss Eunice VanDenburg, who were dressed as French artists. First the guests were given a lesson in French with the result of four perfect lessons so a drawing was held with first prize going to Mrs. W. C. Martin; 2nd to Miss Lena Zendron; 3rd to Mrs. A. W. Shofstall and 4th to Mrs. Gaylord Davies. Before the visitors left for their flight to Mexico, silhouette pictures were drawn of them by the artists and the resemblance of their models was remarkable.

From France a non-stop flight was made to Mexico where they were greeted at the home of Mrs. W. C. Martin with her assistant hostesses, Mrs. I. A. Hagen, Mrs. Gaylord Davies and Miss Lena Zendron, attired in Mexican costumes. The table and decorations were in keeping with the Mexican customs, using a red and white table cloth and a sombrero centering the table, the trim of which was decked with Mexican fruits and gourds and red and white tapers at either end completing the decorative note. The Mexican dish of real chili was served on multi-colored pottery dishes with iced tea. Mrs. Davies entertained the group with a real Mexican story about Primo Gonzales, followed by two Mexican songs and a Mexican dance.

The last country visited was Holland at the home of Mrs. A. W. Shofstall who was assisted by Mrs. S. T. Rose, Mrs. Verne Williams and Mrs. Stella Baker who were all dolled up in their Sunday best dutch costumes even to the wooden shoes which were left at the door before entering. A profusion of lilacs and tulips, symbolic of Holland, adorned the rooms of this Holland home. Orange Sherbet and Springier cookies, both originating in Holland, and coffee were served the guests. Featuring the entertainment by the hostesses here was a Dutch lullaby in pantomime and a Dutch dance and the evening's entertainment closed with an original humorous story written by Mrs. Vern Williams and read by Mrs. S. T. Rose.

Spoils Shape

Overstuffing your bag will spoil its shape and weaken the fastenings and seams, so carry only what you really need in your purse. At season's end when you want to put your handbag away, stuff crumpled tissue paper inside the bag to hold its shape and store in its own box. To prevent tarnish to silver and evening bags, wrap them in black tissue paper and keep in separate boxes.

GEO. B. WITTERS DIES AT GRANTS PASS

George B. Witters, proprietor of the M. & W. Market, was called to Grants Pass yesterday by the death of his father, George R. Witters, 80, who died at his Grants Pass home Tuesday of a heart attack. Mr. Witters' death was a shock to the family as he was apparently enjoying usual health up until the time of the attack. He had lived in that community since 1917, coming there from Nebraska.

In addition to the son here two other sons and three daughters survive.

Small Business

Of our 646,000 service businesses—barber shops, plumbers, tailors, shoe men, etc.—365,000 (over half) employed no salaried help. Of the remainder, a considerable proportion had only one employee each, with, perhaps, an additional part-time employee for apprenticeship or deliveries.

Thermos Bottle

The world's largest and coldest thermos bottle, maintaining a temperature of 297 degrees below zero, is used in an American shipyard to provide acetylene and oxygen for burners, welders and rod operators.

Or are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. Rom. 6:3-6.
