WORLD FRIENDSHIP GROUP

The World Friendship Group of the Methodist church met Thursday evening at the home of Miss Jeannette Workman. The worship service was led by Miss Workman, and was followed by the business meeting. Mrs. Frank Brown gave a report on the discussion on delinquency of juveniles which the Young Adults had at their last meeting, and told of various things of which Mrs. Nichols had spoken concerning this matter. The group voted to adopt a Chinese orphan in China, and support and send it to school for one year. They also voted to send $12.00 to the Methodist Youth Fund. A special fund was set aside, and designated to be put toward payment on a mirror which will be placed above the fire place in the ladie's lounge in the new church.

At the close of the evening, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and Miss Sara Bjorset. Mrs. Georg Bjorset and Mrs. W. L. Workman were guests of the evening.

The next and last meeting of the year will be June 7, and will be a swimming party at Tarzan's followed by a worship service around the camp fire.

1:00 o'CLOCK DESSERT

A 1:00 o'clock dessert was served to the members of the LaComus club Tuesday by Mrs. G. B. Pitcher at her home. Mrs. Nelson Durham was welcomed into the club and presented with a corsage by the members. An additional guest was Mrs. Della Richmond. A social afternoon of cards was spent with high score going to Mrs. H. K. Metcalf. May 22 will be the next meeting date at the home of Mrs. Maude Wheeler.

RELIEF CORPS

The Relief Corps will meet in the I.O.O.F. hall Saturday at 2:00 p. m. All members are requested to be present.

GARDEN CLUB GUESTS

Several members of the Eugene Garden Club were guests Friday afternoon of the P. D. G. Garden club when the club met at the home of Mrs. S. L. Godard, those coming from Eugene were Mrs. Fred Broders, and the Mmes. Bintz, Milford, Carlton and Brunton, who were luncheon guests of Mrs. Godard preceding the meeting. Guest speaker was Mrs. Broders, who spoke on "Landscaping the Home Grounds for Comfort and Beauty." The program committee presented the new programs for the coming year. An added attraction of the meeting was various colors, types and sizes of about 50 varieties of rhododendrons sent to Mrs. Godard by her daughter, Mrs. D. W. James of Eugene. Flower arrangements were also brought by several members which were inspected by Mrs. Broders.

An additional guest was Mrs. J. F. Godard. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the tea hour. Several members of the local P. D. G. Garden club attended the spring flower show by the Eugene Garden club last week in Eugene.

MEETING OF W. C. T. U.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. Witherspoon. Miss Stella Adams led the devotionals and Mrs. Witherspoon was in charge of the program which was a Mother's Day program. There were four guests, Mrs. Lillian Perkins, Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Charles Easterling and Mrs. Addie Hull. Mrs. Easterling and Mrs. Hull became new members. It was decided to meet in the primary room of the Methodist church, at least for the summer.

GUILD INSTALLS OFFICERS

Installation of the new officers of the Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church was held Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Edgar Rickard with Mrs. Gaylord Davies, past president, acting as installing officer. The new officers installed were Mrs. Edgar Rickard, president; Mrs. Jerry Holmes, vice president; Mrs. Oliver Ramalia, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. P. S. Bukowski, program chairman and Miss Eunice VanDenburg, work chairman. Following the installation service, a business meeting was held and at this time Mrs. A. J. Kammann gave an outline of the organization of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Rickard read an impressive article on V-E day. Mrs. Rickard and Mrs. Earl Ballew served refreshments at the close of the meeting. The next meeting will be June 12.

REBEKAHS MEET

At the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge Friday evening, Mrs. Edith Lacky, a former member of the Harrisburg lodge, was admitted by transfer. At this time the second nomination of officers was submitted, the election to be held May 18th. Also at this time initiation will be held. On May 11th, staff practice will be held at the hall.

DAUGHTERS OF THE NILE

Mrs. Roy Short, president of the newly organized Daughters of the Nile, conducted the business meeting Monday night in the Masonic club rooms. The regular business meeting was held and sewing for the Shrine hospital was passed out, which is to be completed and returned at the next meeting, June 4. Hostesses for the evening were Jean Griggs, Ruth Caldweil and Thelma Bagley.

V-E PROGRAM AT SCHOOL

A V-E program arranged by the student council of the Jefferson school, with Mrs. Ilma Thum sponsor, was given Monday afternoon in the Jefferson auditorium. The meeting was presided over by Vernon Coop, president of the student body. The program consisted of the flag ceremony; patriotic songs and short addresses on "What V-E Day Means to Me" by S. L. Mackin, the Rev. Frank E. Brown and Supt. H. B. Ferrin; a solo, "The Recessional," by Miss Virginia Beckman, accompanied by Mrs. H. A. Hagen. School was adjourned for the following day in observance of V-E day.

ESTERS MEETS AT ROSEBURG

Roseburg foresters played host to the Willamette sub section of the Society of American Foresters on April 27. Some 55 foresters and timbermen gathered to hear a discussion of county forest land problems and management. Judge D. N. Busenbark of Douglas county was the chief speaker. His talk was supplemented by the county commissioners of Coos county, and Weldon Kline, Forester for Coos county, all of which proved to be a very interesting meeting. There was a large delegation from the Eugene area and Willamette valley area, including federal, state and private foresters. Ranger Geo. Churchill of the Umpqua National Forest is given the chief credit for making the meeting arrangements and securing the program.

MRS. VEATCH HOSTESS

Mrs. Sam Veatch entertained the El Martes club Tuesday afternoon at a luncheon served at the golf course clubhouse. The table decorations were in keeping with V-E day and the patriotic scheme color being carried out in the centerpiece arrangement of red and white carnations and blue iris and red, white and blue candles. V place cards were used and a miniature flag at each place, carrying out the patriotic scheme. Mrs. E. R. Husted and Mrs. Harold Wolfard were additional guests. High score for the afternoon was received by Mrs. Victor Chambers. The next meeting will be June 5th at the home of Mrs. Claude Kime. The members will meet for cards in the afternoon and will be joined by their families in the evening for a potluck supper.

PROGRAM AND CAKE WALK

Following the regular business meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club Monday night in the Eagles hall, a cake walk and program were enjoyed. Mrs. Carolyn Hunt was chairman for the cake walk and music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Gardner and son Tommy Busby. The program consisted of a vocal duet by Roberta and Betty Bagley; vocal solo by Barbara Houser with Mrs. Lauise Gardner accompanying both numbers and a cornet solo by Tommy Busby.

At the business meeting it was announced that there will be an executive board meeting at Salem May 12 and 13. Margaret Hickey, national president, who is attending the San Francisco peace conference, will be in attendance at the Salem meeting.

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served at the close of the evening. The next meeting will be May 21st at the home of Mrs. H. B. Breedlove.

The Mizpah class of the Presbyterian Sunday school will meet Tuesday at 2:00 p. m. at the home of Mrs. William Chestnut with Mrs. George Hohman assistant hostess.

CRESWELL COUPLE WED

At a candlelight service at the Methodist church Saturday evening, Miss Beverly Carolyn Traxler, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Traxler, and Calvin Taylor, Y 3/C, son of Arthur Taylor of Creswell, were married, Mrs. C. L. Camp, pastor, officiating at the double ring ceremony. Tulips, irisis, narcissuses, and lilacs were arranged on either side of the rostrum with an arbor and white wedding bells at the background.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Mary Louise Stone played "O Promise Me" as a violin solo, accompanied by Mrs. George W. Ross, and Miles O. Wicks sang "A Little Gray Home in the West" and "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Mrs. Wicks.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress of white rayon marquisette with long train, full skirt with rows of lace and a bodice with a sweetheart neck line. A fingertip veil was arranged in a Juliet cap. She carried a corsage of white and pink rosebuds. Miss Barbara Jo Traxler, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a dress of yellow and carried lavender sweet peas. Miss Bobbie Traxler, youngest sister, was bridesmaid and wore a dress of pink marquisette and carried pink sweet peas. S/Sgt. Robert Taylor, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Misses Carolyn Garmine and Kaye Smith, nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls. The ushers were classmates of the couple, Mrs. Eldon Wilkins, Misses Dorothy Lytle and Melva Miller, and Mrs. A. B. Smith. At the reception following at the Traxler home, Mrs. O. H. Smith and Mrs. Joe Garmine, sisters of the bridegroom, poured and served the wedding cake. Mrs. A. B. Smith was in charge of the guest book. Both the bridal couple are members of the 1942 class of the Creswell high school. Mr. Taylor left very soon for service in the navy. Mrs. Taylor attended a business college in Eugene and has been employed there since. The couple left to spend the remainder of Mr. Taylor's leave at the Traxler cabin at the coast. Relatives present included Mrs. Arthur Taylor Jr. of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Garmire and daughter Carolyn of Pleasant Hill, S/Sgt. Robert Taylor of Spokane, Washington, and daughter Roberta of Pleasant Hill, the O. H. Smith family, Arthur Taylor Sr., Mrs. William Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Allen D. BAPTIST SOCIETY AT LEONA

Several members of the Baptist Missionary Society went to Leona yesterday and met with Mrs. Andriessen. In the absence of the president, Mrs. O. H. Pickens, Mrs. W. C. Martin presided over the business meeting. The afternoon was spent in reports of the annual Oregon Baptist Women's meeting held in Portland by Mrs. Martin and Miss Lena Zendron, who attended the meeting. Refreshments were served at the tea hour

TEACHERS HONORED

The library of the Jefferson school was the scene for a dinner party Thursday evening given by the teachers of the Jefferson and Adams schools honoring Robert Graham, who has served as principal of the Jefferson and Adams schools for the past three years and who has resigned, Miss Ruth Lampkin, whose engagement to Robert Bradford of this city has been announced, and Miss Theresa Gehnert, who has announced her resignation. The color scheme of yellow and lavender were carried out in the table decorations which were iris and lilacs and doilies of the same colors. Miss Scott was in charge of the decorations and Mrs. Grace Cowan and Mrs. Ilma Thum were in charge of the dinner.

Miss Lampkin was presented with a gift from the teachers, the presentation being made by Robert Graham; Miss Gehnert was given a corsage by Mrs. Cowan from the Adams faculty and Mrs. Thum, on behalf of the teachers, presented Mr. and Mrs. Graham with a gift. In addition to the teachers guests included Superintendent and Mrs. H. B. Ferrin, Mrs. Robert Graham, Mrs. Grace Smith, Charles Wert and Bert Trask.

At the close of the dinner, the group was invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ferrin, where a social evening was enjoyed.

DISAPPEARING LUNCHEON

The first of a series of "disappearing luncheons," being sponsored by the ladies of the Presbyterian Aid was given Friday afternoon by Mrs. E. R. Crabb and Mrs. H. B. Ferrin at the home of Mrs. Ferrin. This was a salad luncheon served to 16 guests with a social afternoon following.

There are many more Long Distance calls than before the war and more are in a hurry. But service keeps on being good for most people, most of the time.

Some lines, however, are carrying an extra heavy load and sometimes all lights are lit on a switchboard. Then the operator will ask your help by saying—"Please limit your call to 5 minutes."
