The P. D. G. Garden club will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Martin Foster at Lorane, 1:30 p. m. A guest of the afternoon will be Mrs. Agnes Johnson of Junction City, district vice president of the Willamette district of Oregon Federated Garden clubs.

SUB-DISTRICT MEETING

The local group of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church entertained members of the other Methodist churches at a sub-district meeting held here Friday in the local church. The meeting opened in the morning with Mrs. E. E. Cone, local president, in charge. Mrs. N. E. Compton led the devotional service which was followed by a round table discussion on the work of the W. S. C. S. which was led by the district president, Mrs. Georgia Richmond of Coquille. A covered dish luncheon was served at the noon hour.

At the afternoon meeting Rev. Mrs. Alice Camp of Creswell conducted the devotionals and gave a missionary talk on India, where she served for 25 years as a missionary. She told of her experiences in India and brought the work up to date by telling of the work now being carried on by other missionaries. The Rev. Frank Brown rendered a solo. The round table discussion started in the morning session was carried over in the afternoon meeting.

W. C. T. U. TO MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 in the primary room of the Methodist church.

N. OF W. ATTEND CONVENTION

Several officers and members of the local order of Neighbors of Woodcraft attended the two day district convention held at the I.O.O.F. hall in Eugene last Thursday and Friday. A banquet was given Thursday evening at the Osburn hotel. Adelia Hatch, from the local lodge, was elected district advisor. The officers were honored and presented gifts. Those attending from here were: Adelia Hatch, district magician; Fanny Leabo, district clerk; Anna Graham, grand representative; delegates, Ila Kebebeck and Mabel Sowles; Eleanor Wolfard, senior guardian of local circle, who gave the response to the address of welcome on Thursday morning; Mary Duffy, local guardian neighbor; Jean Thiel, local magician; Fairy Woodson, delegate of Moss Circle No. 485 of Creswell; Mrs. O. W. Blackmore and Mrs. Marguerite Berge.

4-H MOTHERS CLUB

The London 4-H Mother's club met at the clubhouse on Wednesday for a regular all-day meeting. The business meeting was held following a covered dish luncheon. It was voted to rent the clubhouse for the election to be held in June. A number of government pamphlets were read and the sugar rationing program was explained by Mrs. Jeanne Morton.

The day was spent cleaning the grounds surrounding the club house, and this work was entirely accomplished by those attending. Housekeepers for the day were Mrs. Amey Fields, Mrs. Lynch Currin, Mrs. Julian Small. The next meeting will be held on June 6 and will be a special social event. There will be no luncheon, as the members who have invited guests will meet during the afternoon.

MISS BUSH WED

The First Baptist church was the scene Sunday evening at 5:00 o'clock for the wedding of Miss Barbara Etta Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bush, and James E. Spear, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Spear of Houston, Texas. The Rev. H. W. Davis of Eugene, former pastor of the local Baptist church, read the double ring service before the altar banked with mock orange blossoms and peonies and arrangements of tall baskets of day lilies. A large group of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father, wearing a gown of white brocade satin, with long full skirt and train and long sleeves. Her train-length tulle veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of all white, gardenias, stephanotis and sweet peas.

Her maid of honor, Miss Thelma Bjerke, of Coos Bay, wore a light blue taffeta floor length formal and carried a nosegay of pink sweet peas and pink carnations and a carnation and snapdragon in her hair.

The bridesmaids, Miss Willa Allen and Miss Mary Bush, wore identical dresses of light blue taffeta and carried nosegays of yellow snapdragons.

Little Nancy Bjerke of Roseburg was flower girl, was daintily dressed in aqua net with pink ribbons, and preceded the bride carrying a basket of tea roses scattering them in the path of the bride.

Ira Morris RM2/C with the armed guard, stationed at New Orleans, Louisiana, home on leave, was best man. Ushers were W. C. Martin Jr., and Clifford Bush.

Soloist for the wedding was Mrs. Robert Cherry, who sang "At Dawning" and "Always," accompanied by Mrs. Norman Lewis who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church dining room. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Tea roses and tapers also decorated the bride's table. The bride and groom cut the initial piece of cake. Mrs. P. S. Bukowski, aunt of the bride, cut the cake which was served by the bridesmaids.

The bride attended the local high school and graduated from Fort Worth Southwest Bible college.

The groom is stationed at the U. S. Naval Air Station at Alameda, California, where the couple will make their home.
