Does This Look to YOU as if THE WAR WAS OVER?

IN THE SAND AT SAIPAN—Marines equipped for days of fighting crouch low in a shell hole at Saipan with rifles ready for Jap snipers in the underbrush beyond. THIS SORT OF FIGHTING IS STILL GOING ON!

WAITING FOR THE GREEN LIGHT—crouched for protection and ready to spring. These marines are near the northwest end of the Japanese airfield on Peleliu, prime objective of the Leatherneck drive. THIS SORT OF FIGHTING IS STILL GOING ON!

AMTRAC SHELTER—Engaged in the bitter struggle to establish the Peleliu beachhead, Marine Infantrymen carry on the fight from the shelter of an amphibious tractor which brought them ashore. THIS SORT OF FIGHTING IS STILL GOING ON!

HATS OFF to FATHER

June 17th

If it's something in the way of a remembrance for "Him," may we suggest an appropriate and lasting gift? Jewelry such as: Watches, chains, rings, driving glasses, pen and pencil sets, shooting goggles, lodge pins, identification bracelets, watch bands, wallets, etc.

And you know his eyes are not as good as they once were. We can't offer you another pair for him, but we can offer you our services in fitting his eyes with new and modern glasses, if glasses are needed.
