INSTALLATION PLANNED
At the regular meeting of the Theta Rho Girls Monday evening in the I.O.O.F. hall plans were completed for the installation services to be held at the next meeting when Miss Joyce Land will be installed president; Miss June Malcolm, vice president; Miss Joyce LaBlue, recording secretary; Miss Greta Bender, financial secretary and Miss Pat Sorensen, treasurer. The refreshment committee for installation will be the Misses Greta Bender, Joyce Land and Thela Murrell.

BUTTON CLUB ENTERTAINED
Mrs. W. L. Workman entertained the Eugene Button club last Thursday with a 1:00 o'clock luncheon. Being Flag day, her decorations were in keeping with the day, using as a table centerpiece red, white and blue sweet peas and flags and each guest was presented with a corsage of red carnations tied with patriotic ribbons. An additional guest was Mrs. Herbert Lombard. Mrs. Workman was assisted in serving by her two daughters, Elizabeth and Jeanette. The regular business session and program followed the luncheon.

SHOWERS FOR MEMBERS
Showers were the feature of the evening at the last A.V.H. Bridge club with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bushell being the honorees. The ladies of the club presented Mrs. Bushell with dainty shower gifts and the men followed suit with a shower for Mr. Bushell, both recipients receiving many lovely gifts. The shower and social evening was preceded by a potluck supper. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Teeters were guests of the evening. The next meeting will be a picnic supper, the place and time to be announced later.

METHODIST MEN MEET
The regular monthly meeting of the Methodist Men was held Monday night in the dining room of the church with a potluck dinner preceding their meeting. Thirteen men were present including Pfc. Fred Bosley, a member who has been in the south Pacific in the armed forces for the past 37 months, and is now home on furlough. The devotional service was conducted by Ransom Cone and three of the men presented the program. Jack Godard spoke on "Our Responsibility to God;" Ethan Coston discussed "Our Responsibility to the Church" and Howard Taylor talked on "Our Responsibility to Our Pastor." Election of officers was held for the coming year with Earl Balch being elected president and Ransom Cone, secretary. Appointive officers will be chosen later.

CLUB PICNIC DINNER
A picnic dinner was enjoyed by members and guests of the Social Twelve club at the home of Mrs. W. A. Hemenway. Guests were: Mrs. Della Richmond, Mrs. Ilma Thum, Mrs. Arthur Woolcott, Mrs. Clyde Roberts and Mrs. A. J. Kammann. This was the last meeting of the season. Mrs. Job will be hostess to the group in September.

FINAL CLUB MEETING
The final meeting of the season of the Degage club was held Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Jesse Denney entertained with a dessert and afternoon of bridge. Mrs. George Watts, mother of Mrs. Merle Porter, was a guest. A picnic will be held later by the members and then disband until fall.

REBEKAH SESSION
The regular session of Rebekah lodge was held Friday night in the Odd Fellows hall at which time plans were made for those having birthday anniversaries in the first quarter to entertain those having birthdays in April, May and June. Those who had birthdays in the first three months are to contact Mrs. Minnie Willets. The degree captain announced practice for June 22, the regular meeting night, and urged all members to be present. On July 12, installation of officers will be held in the I.O.O.F. hall.

MIZPAH CLASS
Mrs. A. J. Kammann entertained the Mizpah class of the Presbyterian Sunday school Tuesday afternoon with 15 of the members present. Mrs. Minnie Willets, president, was in charge of the business session. At this time $3.00 was voted to be sent to Sheldon Jackson school in Alaska and it was decided to have a rummage and cooked food sale September 8. On July 17 the class will have a picnic at the park. Mrs. Kammann served refreshments at the tea hour.

LADIES BIBLE CLASS
Mrs. Charles Arnold was hostess to the Ladies Bible class of the Methodist church Wednesday at an all day meeting and basket dinner in her yard. Eleven members were present for the meeting and dinner and two guests, Mrs. Harry Wynne and Mrs. Lettie Knickerbocker. Mrs. Arnold led the devotionals and Mrs. Elsie Wells gave a reading. A business meeting followed with the election of officers for the ensuing year with the following results: president, Mrs. Charles Arnold; vice president, Mrs. Grace Daskam; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Elsie Wells; assistant treasurer, May Hogate; class teacher, Mrs. J. D. Monroe and assistant teacher, Mrs. Pearl Saffley. The members reported 15 calls on the sick and shut-ins and four bouquets were given out. The time was spent in tying and completing a quilt.

HARMONY CIRCLE
The Harmony Circle of the First Baptist church met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. George Hardy, 11 members being present. Mrs. Josephine Lovegren led the devotional service and Mrs. O. H. Pickens was guest speaker, giving a talk on missions. It was decided not to meet in July, but will have a joint meeting with the Missionary Circle in August, the date and place to be announced later. Mrs. Hardy served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

SOCIAL MEETING N. OF W.
The Neighbors of Woodcraft met socially Tuesday evening with Mrs. Mary Duffy for a dessert and evening of cards. Three tables of bridge were at play with Mrs. Anna Schoen and Mrs. Fanny Leabo receiving high honors.

6:30 POTLUCK
The United Spanish War Veterans and auxiliary will meet Monday evening at 6:30 for a potluck supper and monthly session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sweet.

UNUSUAL WEATHER DOESN'T HAMPER FOURSOME
The usual two-ball foursome was held Tuesday evening, June 19th regardless of the "unusual" hot weather, with the best attendance so far. Nine holes were played by part of those present, and the remainder waited until Belle Burkholder and Kenneth Mickey, partners, and Earl Hill and Margaret Mickey, the other couple in the foursome, had finished the first nine; then all those present, twenty in all, sat down to a bounteous repast. At that time Walter Hunter and Merle King, partners, and Earl Hill and Mrs. Mickey had each tied with the same low score. The reporter was unable to learn who won out in the final play-off, when others finished their last nine holes. Come out and enjoy the fun, and the potluck dinners. All who play golf are welcome. Play should begin at 7:30 p. m. but it is usually six before we all arrive, so don't hesitate to come even if you can't make in by 5:30.

Latham
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams spent Thursday in Eugene visiting with Mrs. Hammericksen and their three grandchildren. Mrs. Hammericksen and Margie and Sandra continued to Portland. Mark came with the Williams to visit awhile.
