THOMPSON-COON WEDDING

Ted L. Thompson of Bandon and Loretta E. Coon of Cottage Grove were united in marriage Saturday evening, June 16, at 8:00 o'clock in Newport at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reinertsen by the Rev. Eldon Wiidamen, pastor of the First Christian church, in a double ring ceremony. The bride wore a sky blue dress suit and a corsage of pink rose buds and baby iris with azalea centers.

Mrs. Florence Grishaber, niece of the groom was matron of honor and wore a navy blue street dress with a corsage of pink carnations. W. H. (Bill) Thompson, brother of the groom was best man.

The room was decorated with fern and fox gloves. At the reception following the ceremony the first two pieces of the three-tiered wedding cake were cut by the bride, after which the groom and his sister, Mrs. Emma Nowlin, served the remainder of the cake and ice cream to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peek of Cottage Grove, the brides parents, Mrs. Lewis Holter and two children of Alsea; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bales of Dorena; Mrs. Mary E. Thompson of Bandon, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hicks and daughter of Portland; Mrs. Emma Nowlin and three children of Tillamook; Mr. and Mrs. K. Thompson and daughter of Langlois; Mr. and Mrs. H. Thompson and sons of Seaside; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson, Rosa Lee Lawrence, Geraldine Driskill all of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Thompson and son, Mr. and Mrs. George Grishaber and sons, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reinertsen and sons, Mr. and Mrs. George Bookhammer, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Coop of Newport and David Allen Coon of Cottage Grove.

Many lovely gifts were received by the newlyweds. The evening was spent in dancing and group singing of old favorite songs.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will make their home in Cottage Grove where Mr. Thompson will work at his trade of agate grinding and jewelry manufacturing.

RAINBOW INITIATION

At the regular session of the Order of Rainbow for Girls Monday evening in the Masonic temple initiation was held for the Misses Laura Porter, Glenna Baldwin and Sharon Peterson and each candidate was presented with a corsage.

Reports were given on the grand assembly held June 21 at Albany. Miss Marjorie Earl, Rainbow Girl in this assembly, is grand worthy advisor, and presided over the assembly which was chosen grand representative. The assembly usually meets for two or three days, but due to transportation, it was held just one day. Those attending from here were Miss Marjorie Earl, Mrs. Guy Earl, Mrs. C. S. Roberts and daughter Helyn.

Plans were made at this time for their annual picnic and swim to be held July 8th. They will meet at the home of Betty and Roberta Bagley at 1:30 p. m. and those wishing to go swimming can do so and a picnic supper will be held in the evening at the Bagley home.

CLUB PLANS PICNIC

At the regular monthly meeting of the Ad Libitum club Thursday at the home of Mrs. Albert Woodard plans were made to have a picnic for the July meeting with the husbands and families of the members as guests. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the tea hour.

D. OF H. PICNIC

On Monday evening the members of the Degree of Honor lodge and their families gathered at the home of Mrs. John Schaffer for a picnic supper and social evening. Initiation was announced for the next meeting, July 9.

SPANISH VETS. AUX. MEET

Mr. and Mrs. George Sweet entertained the United Spanish War Veterans and auxiliary at a 6:30 potluck supper and regular monthly meeting Monday evening at their home. At the business session reports on the various activities for the past six months were given. A report was also given on the placing of flags on the graves on Memorial day. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. William Chapman at Creswell, July 22.

APRIL WEDDING REVEALED

Mrs. Mary Ellen Hunter of Cottage Grove announces the marriage of her daughter, Maxine Hunter, pharmacist's mate third class, WAVES, to Ernest V. Correia, signalmen, second class, United States navy. The marriage occurred April 15, at St. Cyril's Catholic church in Oakland, California, Rev. Father G. J. Francis officiating.

The couple was attended by Wave Adele Lee and Byrnes E. Blevins, United States navy. The bride wore her dress blue uniform, and carried red roses.

Mrs. Correia was graduated from Cottage Grove union high school in 1942, and later attended Good Samaritan hospital's school of nursing, in Portland. She is stationed at the U. S. naval hospital at San Leandro, California. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Anna Correia of New Bedford, Massachusetts. He was graduated from the Catholic boys' school of that city, prior to entering the navy. He is now in San Francisco awaiting orders.

MANY PLAYING GOLF

The usual two-ball foursome was held at the local golf course Tuesday evening resulting in the lowest score played by Miss Belle Burkholder and Junior Langston, who won by one hole and one point under the score made by Frances Hunter and Curtis French who were runners-up. A potluck followed play with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoyt and Mr. and Mrs. George Ross as guests. At the dinner besides those who played in the foursome.

D. U. V. MEETING

A very interesting meeting of the Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War was held Tuesday evening in the Methodist church with initiation being held for Mrs. Clara Woolley. The local tent has outgrown the W.S.C.S. room in the church so it was decided to meet in the league room during the summer months.

Mrs. Marie Sorensen gave an interesting report on the conference held at Coos Bay June 19 and 20. The officers elected who are well known in the local tent were Laura England of Eugene, department president; Mrs. Grace Conn of Eugene, department secretary; Mrs. Mary Furber of Eugene, department counselor; Mrs. Loretta Safley of Cottage Grove, department guide. The installing officer was Ora Cox, past national president of Oregon. The past department officers were honored by acting as the five color bearers. Mrs. Marie Sorensen and Mrs. Mable Doleman also assisted on the installing staff.

Mrs. England has been a great help to the Ida May tent and they are very happy to hear of her election. Mrs. Loretta Safley received the award for having obtained 10 new members in the past year. The local tent received an official invitation from the Eugene tent to attend their meeting June 27 at which time initiation will be held and the members whose birthday anniversaries occurred in the last quarter will be honored.

It was learned that Miss Dorothy Doleman had entered the Portland Sanitarium for an appendectomy.

Refreshments in the form of a decorated birthday cake and ice cream were served to the three members whose birthdays occurred in the last quarter. Those honored by the tent were Mrs. Clara Woolley, Mrs. Ruth Rose and Mrs. Louisa Tohlen. They received gifts from the committee in charge, Mrs. Marie Sorensen, Mrs. Mamie Gidney, Mrs. Mary Tucker, Mrs. Maude Wright and Mrs. Cora Cooley.

CANDIDATES INITIATED

At the final meeting of the chapter of Eastern Star Friday evening in the Masonic temple initiation was held for Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hunter and Mrs. Laverne Watkins. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Akerblade were introduced as newly affiliated members. Dan Stewart, worthy patron of Blue River chapter, Eugene, was a guest and made a talk. Plans were made for the annual picnic to be held jointly with the members of the Masonic lodge and families on July 24 at the city park. Officers of the chapter will be in charge of arrangements. Friday night's meeting was the last until September 28th.

DOUBLE SHOWER

Showers honoring Miss Bethel Gowdy and Mrs. Marvel Geer were the feature of the evening last Wednesday when Mrs. Geer entertained for Miss Gowdy at the home of her mother, Mrs. P. C. Christensen, at a miscellaneous bridal shower. In turn, Mrs. Geer was surprised by the group showering her. Both recipients received many lovely and dainty gifts. The evening was spent socially and with the opening of the gifts. Those present were Miss Gail Lindamood of Eugene, Isabelle Gates, Kathleen Richards, Helen Thomason, Laura Sheetz, Janet Randall, Mrs. P. C. Christensen, the Misses Della Gallo, Marian Balch, Carolyn Englund, Eleanor Culver, the honoree and the hostess, who served refreshments at the close of the evening.

MISS GOWDY JUNE BRIDE

At a simple but impressive candlelight service Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock Miss Bethel Gowdy became the bride of Mervin Wilkinson of Albany at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gowdy, brother of the bride, in Eugene. The Rev. Edward Terry, pastor of the Methodist church of Albany, read the service in the presence of immediate relatives and a few close friends.

The bride, in a floor-length rose taffeta gown and white orchid corsage, was escorted to a beautiful all-white improvised altar of white carnations, white gladioluses and white tapers, by her little nephew, Jimmy Gowdy. Baskets of spring flowers about the rooms completed the decorations.

At the reception following the bride's table was centered with a two-tier wedding cake, pink sweet peas and white tapers. The bride and groom cut the initial piece of cake. Mrs. D. J. Scholl, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Virgil Gowdy, sister-in-law, served the guests.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ingram of Albany; Miss Zenna Moughmer and Mrs. Lucille White, Eugene; Mrs. Marvel Geer, Guy VanRiper, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Scholl of Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gowdy and family of Eugene.

Mrs. Wilkinson was employed as an accountant at the Daugherty Lumber company for nearly five years. After a short trip the couple will make their home in Albany where Mr. Wilkinson is in the transfer business.

SUNSHINE GROUP

An all-day meeting of the Sunshine Group of the Church of Christ will be held next Tuesday at the church with a potluck dinner at the noon hour. A patriotic program will be given in the afternoon. All members and friends are invited.

DAUGHERTYS ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Daugherty entertained recently the employees of the Daugherty Lumber and Piling companies at a picnic supper honoring Miss Bethel Gowdy, bride-to-be of Mervin Wilkinson of Albany. Besides the employees, Mr. Wilkinson was also a guest. The group presented the couple with a service of sterling silver. A social evening of games and singing was enjoyed by the group.

D. U. V. MEMBERS TO EUGENE

Six members of the Ida May Whiting tent of the Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War attended a meeting in Eugene last night of the Martha Bannister tent which proved to be a very interesting meeting with initiation and introduction of department officers of Eugene and Cottage Grove. Mrs. Laura England of Eugene, newly elected department president, had the honor of giving the obligation to her daughter, Loretta Safley of Cottage Grove, as department guide, which is very unusual for a department president to have a daughter who is also a department officer and be able to install her. They were complimented on this achievement by Norma Pfeiffer, junior past president of the Eugene tent. Goldie Buell of Portland was introduced as department musician. Those attending from here were Marie Sorensen, Cora Cooley, Mary Tucker, Eva Hatch, Loretta Safley and Miss Hazel Tohlen.

RESEARCH PICNIC AND RIDE

Climaxing the season's meetings of the Research club for the year was a picnic supper and hay rack ride at the Alvis Wicks ranch at Culp Creek Tuesday evening. The husbands and families were invited guests of the club at a picnic supper served on the hay rack in the Wicks field, after which the hay rack was filled with straw and the crowd had a hilarious time riding over the fields. Races, games and group singing brought to an end the evening's fun and the final meeting of the club until next fall. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Rose and daughters Gloria and Gayle, Mrs. Rose's mother, Mrs. M. D. Bolin of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shofstall and sons Bobby and Duane, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Hagen and house guests, Mrs. Keith Harden of Okmulgee, Oklahoma and Miss Genevieve Harden of Portland, Mrs. Georg Bjorset, Miss Lena Zendron, Mrs. Stella Baker, Jim Bennett, Miss Eunice Vandenburg, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Coiner and son Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Martin and son Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Wicks and daughter Norma and son Kenneth and Mrs. Wicks' sister-in-law, Mrs. William McCargar and sons Barney and Dean of Salem, guests of Mr. Wicks.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS SOCIAL

The Royal Neighbors met at the Eagles hall Tuesday night for a social evening. Following an 8:00 o'clock dessert three tables of bridge were at play. Mmes. Mary Duffy and June Bird drew prizes. Mmes. Mable Funk and Grace Jenkins were the hostess committee.

The Good Old Summer Time

Calls for less and lighter clothes, which means more cleaning and more laundry. And that's where we come in. We'll do the best we can in giving you the service you want, but of course it won't be pre-war service.

And after the 4th, when all that's left of the celebration is a headache and a few gravy and soiled spots, bring your clothes in, we'll help on this, too.
