29th Calapooia Round-up Opens 1st

The 29th annual Calapooia Round-Up will open Sunday, July 1, and continue through July 4th, at Crawfordsville. Advance information indicates a larger attendance than in any previous years. There will be plenty of thrills and spills in the arena with seven races daily on the track. The directors promise that this will be the best Round-Up ever staged by the Calapooia association with the largest prize list ever offered. The famous "Wild and Woolly" dance for visiting cowboys and cowgirls will be held Saturday night, June 30. A feature of this year's Round-Up will be more of those mean Brahma bulls to thrill the crowds. Several champion cowboys will be on hand to compete in the various events.

The Calapooia Round-Up has grown until it is noted as one of the leading round-ups in the west. The increased seating capacity will enable more persons to witness this exciting show, which is a non-profit affair, sponsored by people of the Calapooia valley and Linn, Lane and Benton counties. All money goes for prizes and improvement of the grounds, which accounts for the many improvements added in the last few years.

REV. SOHLER RETURNS

Rev. Louis H. Sohler, pastor of the Catholic church was recently called to the home of his parents at Hillsboro to conduct the funeral services for Mrs. Amelia Amato, the mother-in-law of his brother, Francis and Arthur Sohler. Two days later an uncle, Bernard Pranger, died, and Father Sohler officiated at the funeral.

While he was home his sister, Miss Julia Sohler arrived from Alaska after spending a year on the civilian personnel staff at Fort Richardson, Anchorage, Alaska. Also arrived was Wayne Tupper, a brother-in-law in the Merchant Marine who just completed an eight month voyage to the Pacific battle zones where at one place he was able to witness the land fighting from the ship's anchorage station. As a further coincidence another brother-in-law Gerald Fitzpatrick, also in the Merchant Marine arrived in port as a member of the crew of the troop transport which recently brought a thousand Pacific veterans into Portland harbor. The two funerals in the family and the visits of the three members of the House guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Hagen are two of Mrs. Hagen's nieces, Mrs. Keith Harden of Okmulgee, Oklahoma, and Miss Genevieve Harden of Portland.

Austin McReynolds Named New Forester

Austin D. McReynolds of Medford has been named as Oregon forester for the West Coast Lumbermen's association and Pacific Northwest Logger's association, Edmund Hayes, chairman of the Oregon joint committee, announced last week.

McReynolds, for 10 years identified with the Oregon state forestry department in supervisory capacities, and at present state warden for the important Medford district, will succeed Walker B. Tilley, who early this year accepted a forestry post in India. He will be stationed at Eugene.

The seventh war bond drive ends June 30th. Don't delay buying those bonds today.

'Sandwich Combination'
Honey and peanut butter make a favorable combination for filling sandwiches and spreading on toast. Mix honey and peanut butter just before using, because the mixture soon hardens. The popular flavor and high-quality protein, energy value and B-vitamins of peanut butter make it a good food in soups, main dishes, and desserts as well as in sandwiches.
