WEDDING ANNOUNCED

At a dinner held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy McFerrin, they announced the wedding of their daughter, Jean Stubbfield, to Robert Gilliland of Portland.

A quiet ceremony was performed August 16th by Rev. Parcel in the First Methodist church in Vancouver, Washington, after which a reception followed at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Leona Chisman.

Those present at the dinner here were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Chisman, Angela Shearer, Mrs. Alice Brown, Raymond Higginbotham, the bride and groom and the bride's mother.

After a short trip to Newport the bride and groom will make their home in Portland, where Mr. Gilliland is employed by the Union Oil company.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

On the evening of August 21st Miss Dorothy Hubbel observed her 16th birthday anniversary at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Hubbel, when a group of girls met there and were guests of Dorothy at a theater party after which they returned to the Hubbel home for refreshments served at a table centered with a decorated birthday cake and 16 candles.

Guests were the Misses Sharon Peterson, Vada Crosby, Marjorie Coiner, Betty Bagley, Jane Beidler, Bonnie Gleason, Leonore Johnston and the honored guest.

WED FIFTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Erwin observed their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, August 12, with a family reunion at their home, 101 North J street.

On August 21, 1895, Miss Emma Ann St. John was married to Fred L. Erwin at the home of the bride's parents. The Erwins moved to California in 1905, later coming to Oregon and Cottage Grove.

To them seven children were born, of whom all are still living. Those present to celebrate the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Erwin of South Gate, Calif.; Mrs. Kenneth Brewster and daughter Barbara Ann of Burbank, Calif.; Mrs. Albert Chandler and children Freddy and Sharon of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Erwin and children Linda Lee, Jeanne and Donald of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Erwin and children Gene, Ray and Karen of Cottage Grove. Only one son, Bruce of Pasadena, Calif., and one daughter, Mrs. Gene Ford of Riverside, Calif., were unable to be present.

SPANISH WAR VETS & AUX.

The United Spanish War Veterans and Auxiliary met Monday evening for a 6:30 potluck supper and monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Bertha Rodgers on Bennett Creek. The usual routine of business was taken care of following the supper and it was decided to meet with Mrs. Anna Hubbel for the next meeting, September 24.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS

The Royal Neighbors met Tuesday night for a business meeting with Nellie Blackmore, oracle, presiding. Georgetta Funk and Estella Gates served refreshments which was followed by a social evening of bridge with three tables at play. Fern Anderson and Nellie Blackmore received prizes.

NAVY MOTHER'S CLUB

The regular meeting of the Navy Mother's club was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. V. Welden with nine members and one guest, Miss Goldie Hayes, present. The club will meet again next Tuesday with Mrs. Frank Bradford on Knox Hill.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Harpole entertained with a dinner Monday evening honoring Mrs. Martha Marsh on her birthday anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vincent and son, Harold of Creswell; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Warren, Gerald Weatherspoon and Eileen Harpole. Mrs. Marsh was the recipient of many nice gifts.

MARRIED IN ILLINOIS

A wedding of interest to friends here was that of Miss Donna Virginia Clark, niece of Miss C. Melissa Clark, on August 11 when she became the bride of Edward P. Schumacher of Oak Park, Illinois at St. Lucy's church, Oak Park, at a double ring service.

The bride was lovely in a white satin wedding gown, with full skirt, long sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip tulle veil was held in place with a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a white prayer book and gardenias arranged on the top.

A brother and sister of the groom were attendants of the couple.

A wedding breakfast was served to 25 guests at the Plaza hotel in Chicago.

For going away the bride wore a two-piece golden brown suit with matching accessories. They spent a short honeymoon on Lake Michigan and are now at home at 518 Rosewood Ave., Aurora, Illinois.

Mrs. Schumacher graduated from the local high school in the class of 1942 after which she was employed in the office of the marine base at Miramar, California. Previous to her wedding she visited her two aunts, Mrs. Robert J. Wing and Mrs. Albert G. Burke in Chicago.

Mr. Schumacher has attended the University of Chicago two years and plans to complete his college education there. He received a medical discharge recently from the army after three years overseas duty and being wounded. The couple met here three years ago when a group of the army was stationed at the armory.

COOTHORIDES-BALDWIN

Of interest to Cottage Grove friends and relatives was the marriage of Sgt. Lee E. Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee E. Baldwin, to Miss Helen Coothorides of Portland, Oregon. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Coothorides of that city. A double ring ceremony was held at the First Baptist church in Portland on July 30, with a reception at the Coothorides home following the ceremony.

Miss Coothorides attended the Portland schools and also the University of Oregon. Sgt. Lee E. Baldwin attended schools in Cottage Grove prior to his induction into the army.

They will make their home in Eugene where Sgt. Baldwin will attend the University of Oregon as soon as he is released from active service.

AUXILIARY HAS MEETING

The American Legion Auxiliary met in special session Friday evening at the home of Miss Eunice VanDenberg to elect delegates to the state convention at Portland September 6, 7 and 8. Mmes. June Bird and Mary Miller were elected delegates with Mmes. Flora Koch and Jessie Matthews as alternates. Delegates previously chosen by the American Legion included William Koch, Max Bird and George Matthews.

The Auxiliary membership also decided to have a food booth at the South Lane Victory Fair September 15.

64th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Clements of south 10th street were pleasantly surprised Sunday, the occasion being their 64th wedding anniversary when several friends and their daughter and son-in-law gathered at the Clements home bringing a potluck dinner. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in social conversation.

N. OF W. SEPT. 4

The Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold their regular meeting next Tuesday night, September 4, in the IOOF hall.

D. U. V. AT ARMORY

The Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War met in the armory Tuesday evening. An altar flag was presented the Ida May Whiting tent by Mrs. Maude Graham, a sister from Portland, who was a very dear friend of Ida May Whiting for whom the local tent was named, and mother of Mabel Doleman. The present flag will be sent to the new tent at McMinnville.

Two committees were appointed, one to make a survey of the absent members to ascertain if they are ill, the other to serve refreshments at the next meeting, at which time initiation will be held. The president urges that all members be present for this initiation.

TALKS TO METHODIST MEN

About 20 men gathered at their usual camp grounds on Mosby Creek Monday evening for their annual outdoor meeting of the Methodist Men with men from the other churches as guests. After a hearty meal around the tables the men repaired to the bank of the stream for the address by the former pastor, the Rev. E. M. Tilton, of Springfield. The service opened by singing led by S. L. Mackin, followed by prayer by R. L. Cone, after which E. L. Clark, the new instructor of agriculture in the high school, spoke briefly for the Baptists and Superintendent H. B. Ferrin for the Presbyterian church. The address of Rev. Tilton followed. In a very impressive manner, and with the closest attention of his hearers, the speaker issued a challenge to Christian men to stand firm against the rising tide of drink, profanity, and the lax of sex relation.

The service closed with the benediction by the Rev. George E. Hardy. The president, Earl B. Baich, presided over the meeting. All present went away feeling that they had spent an evening of profit.

CLUB MEETS, EUGENE HOME

The O. W. Dinner club was entertained Monday evening in Eugene at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Grube. All members of the club were present and also Mrs. Joe Grube, daughter-in-law, who is a guest in the Grube home. Each lady was presented with a piece of glassware by the hostess which was purchased in Pennsylvania on her recent trip. The September meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Mills.

TWO OCCASIONS OBSERVED

Two occasions were celebrated in one Saturday evening when a group of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Wicks, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown, former residents, now of Toppensish, Washington, and also to observe the birthday anniversary of Mr. Wicks. Centering the dinner table was a bowl of summer flowers and white lighted tapers at either end. Mr. Wicks was completely surprised when a huge decorated birthday cake with lighted candles was set before him, and to add more hilarity to the occasion, he was showered with white elephant gifts.

A social evening of singing and games were enjoyed by the guests. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Bukowski, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Beck, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shofstall, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Adkins, Miss Alberta Adkins, Mr. and Mrs. Wicks and Miss Norma Wicks.

THEATRE PARTY

Mrs. Sam Veatch entertained a group of boys Friday evening, the occasion being her son Bill's birthday anniversary. They enjoyed a theatre party after which they returned to the Veatch home where Mrs. Veatch served ice cream and
