CLYDE SMITH TAKES BRIDE

The Mt. Tabor Methodist church, Portland, was the scene for the wedding of Miss Irja Joanne Halonen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Halonen of Clatskanie, and Clyde Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith of Cottage Grove. The double ring service was read before a large group of relatives and friends Sunday afternoon, September 2nd, at 1:00 o'clock by the Rev. Lawrence Burdette in an all white setting, using white lighted tapers in gandelabra and tall baskets of gladioli on either side. The wedding day was also the bride's birthday anniversary.

Preceding the service Mrs. Chitwell sang "O, Perfect Love" and "O, Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. Wichersham, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white, dressmaker suit with small calot to match and white accessories. She carried a white prayer book belonging to her sister, Mrs. Elton Andrews, and wore a corsage of purple orchids.

The matron of honor, and the bride's only attendant, was Mrs. Elton Andrews, her sister of Clatskanie, who wore a dress of soft gold silk crepe with matching accessories and carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Best man was Charles Hoskins and ushers were John McGilvra and Calvin Andrews.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Swain. The bride's table was all white with a three-tier wedding cake, lighted tapers and white flowers for decorations. Mrs. Clarence J. Marsh, Longview, Washington, sister of the bride, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Glen M. Andrews served the cake.

The couple left for Victoria, B. C., for a short wedding trip. For going away the bride wore a brown suit with white stripes and matching accessories.

Mrs. Smith attended schools at Clatskanie and is now employed by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company in Portland.

The groom graduated from the local high school in 1933 and was given a medical discharge from the army a year ago and is employed in the office of S. K. F. Ballbearing Manufacturing company, Portland.

The couple will be at home after September 17 at the Nixon apartments, Hall and Broadway, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith, parents of the groom, and Richard, a brother, went to Portland for the wedding.

NEW MEMBERS

At the regular session of the Rebekah lodge Friday night in the IOOF hall, Rena Garoutte was elected to membership by reinstatement and Emma Horton was admitted by transfer from the Junction City lodge and was welcomed into the local order.

The regular quarterly birthday party was postponed from September 21st to October 7th due to the anniversary program. The secretary was instructed to send invitations to the Creswell and Lorane lodges for the September 21st meeting.

The charter was draped in memory of Charlie Conner, who passed away August 21.

Members who made the trip to the Elkton lodge reported a very pleasant time.
