discharged under the army's "point system." PFC Hamilton is a veteran of almost six years in the army and participated in the Gilbert, Marshall and Palau Island campaigns. He last was stationed in the Palau at an advanced base. An auto mechanic in civilian life, PFC Hamilton enlisted in the army in November 1939 and received his basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas. He then saw service as a military policeman and field artillery truck driver, until he was assigned to his present unit, an infantry regiment, in November, 1943, just before going overseas. After a brief stay in the Hawaiian Islands, he took part in the occupation of Makin Atoll in the Gilbert Islands and then also saw duty at Kwajalein Atoll in the Marshalls. After Kwajalein it was again Hawaii, but in January of this year he again departed, this time for the Palau Islands. PFC Hamilton last was a heavy mortar crewman. He wears the good conduct medal.

INVESTMENT in War Bonds has helped win the war and was no sacrifice compared to Pvt. Furman L. Smith's. The brave Central, S. C. lad, who has been awarded the Medal of Honor posthumously, stood between two wounded sergeants and 80 advancing Germans, killed 10 of the enemy and littered the field with writhing wounded. Your investment in Victory Bonds will care for his Buddies who were wounded in the same battle.

New Ford Trucks For Pacific Coast

W. C. Patterson, Pacific Northwest branch manager of the Ford Motor company, with offices in Seattle, announced Friday that the first of 1900 trucks scheduled to roll out of the Richmond, California Ford plant for Pacific coast distribution during September came off the assembly line this week. This is the same assembly line that was traveled by more than 49,000 jeeps during the war years.

Outstanding improvements have been made in the new trucks over 1942 models, according to Mr. Patterson. These improvements include motor changes, adjustable seat backs for more driving comfort and windows safeguarded with steel frames. Chassis include the 114, 134 and 158-inch wheelbase models. Approximately 1800 employees are at work in the plant whose peak wartime employment was 2200. Many women are still at work. The new trucks are the first to be turned out of the Richmond plant since the company shifted to war production on March 24, 1942.

Golden Rule Auto Service Addition Is Under Construction

A substantial addition to the Golden Rule Auto Service at the corner of Madison and the Pacific highway is under construction. The new building will adjoin the Golden Rule building on the north and east and will contain 2500 feet of floor space with walls built to the same height of the Golden Rule.

The structure consists of concrete tile and will be used as an office, a display room and will also contain a parts room according to Cecil Beck, owner.

Beck is optimistic enough to believe that he will have a new Nash car to display probably by the time the building is completed.
