A busy world out here in our peaceful valley. Fall crops being put in, tractors humming, turkeys being finished off for early market, apple harvest on and many a one down on sore and tender prayer bones gathering the filbert crop. Ma still busy in the kitchen with tag ends of cannings and planning the planting of her treasured bulbs, lily of the valley, crocus, tulips and other bulbs. Grapes hang low and sweet now and the school children carry rosy apples to school either for their own enjoyment or a peace offering to "teacher."

The local War Fund campaign is swiftly shaping up here with L. E. Zinkler general chairman.

Mrs. Blanche Gwyther who has been away for several months visiting in the east returned home last Thursday.

Mrs. Ida Veatch of Portland and Mrs. Lena Veatch of Halsey visited their sister, Mrs. Dora Martin, for a week.

The Christian church sisterhood met and spent the day cleaning the church, with a potluck lunch following a short business meeting. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jno McCullough.

We note a statement in the Oregonian that polio, or infantile paralysis, cases are much below last year's number, a statement made by the state board of health.

This is grand news indeed, and let's ever be on guard and do all we can to stamp out this evil and terrible disease.

The Kenneth Pratt home, sold some time ago to Carl Brownell, is now occupied. The Brownell family is from California and the father is a painter by trade.

Dorcas Circle met last Wednesday at the Traxler home. November 28 has been decided upon for their annual dinner and bazaar. Their next meeting is postponed to October 24 due to other conflicting dates.

Delegates to the Albany W.S.C.S. were elected who are Mrs. H. A. Howe, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. J. M. Walkup, Mrs. Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schwering enjoyed a short visit with their niece, Mrs. J. Jensen of Eugene, the past week.

Mrs. Geo. Hayes and mother, Mrs. E. Harrel, attended the grand chapter of Eastern Star at Portland last week.

Mrs. Geo. Stratton has assisted with the filbert harvest on the Joslin ranch, also bringing additional pickers from Cottage Grove each day.

Stephen Doty of Eugene is spending a week at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. H. S. Joslin, and helping gather filberts.

October 23 is set for election for budget to allow for another instructor in the grade school. The work has become too heavy and another teacher is needed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Walker are now nicely settled in their new home in Cottage Grove. Mr. Walker is in the plumbing business.

The Service club is making urgent calls for help in making robes for convalescent service men and other articles needed for our returning men who are on the casualty lists. Books and good magazines should be left at the Red Cross stations in Eugene as there is also great need for reading matter for soldiers in hospital camps.

Mosby Creek

S/Sgt. Clifford Eastburn of Haan, California, is home with an honorable discharge from the air corps.

Callers Sunday at the Harry Castle home were Mrs. Cloney Seward and son Arthur of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seward and two daughters of North Bend. Mr. Seward is a nephew of Mr. Castle and has been recently discharged from the air corps.
