

How can a motor oil save gasoline?

Much gasoline loss is caused by gradual ring and cylinder wear. Gas mixtures then "blow-by," compression is reduced, performance gets rough. RPM Motor Oil slows this wear 'way down—sticks right on hot or cold metal surfaces, insures cold motors against extra starting wear, protects critical hot spots on long runs. For more mileage, less wear—use Standard's RPM Motor Oil.

PRAYER & SELF DENIAL MISSIONARY MEETING

"Week of Prayer & Self-denial" was observed at the Methodist Missionary meeting Wednesday when the group met at the home of Mrs. Ransom Cone for an all day meeting. Mrs. Pearl Safley was in charge of the morning program and was assisted by Mmes. Chas. Akerblade, Maude Wright, H. C. Rose, Ethan Coston, C. N. Land, Walter Sorenson and N. E. Compton. A generous offering was received for the needy in Europe.

A covered dish luncheon was served at noon. At the afternoon meeting Mrs. Akerblade led the devotionals on "Peace." Mrs. Paul Means, a returned missionary, gave the address of the afternoon on "Looking Forward."

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Andrew Brund.

EXPERIENCE SOCIAL

The Baptist Dorcas Circle met at the home of Mrs. A. C. Spriggs for their regular meeting and experience social on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. P. J. Bush led the devotionals and presided at the business meeting. Orders were taken for Christmas cards. The singing was led by Mrs. George Hardy.

Mrs. W. C. Martin reported on the Women's mid-year Missionary meeting at Portland on Tuesday of this week. Mrs. Hardy accompanied her to Portland and sang at the meeting.

Mrs. Hardy had charge of the games of the afternoon. Mrs. Pickens' side won over Mrs. Bush's in money raised by the experience social. The money was raised in many novel ways and there was much merriment as they were related.

Delicious refreshments were served at the tea hour by the hostess.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

A miscellaneous bridal shower was given for Mrs. Bryce Eastburn, nee Miss Mary Decker, a recent bride, Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. S. T. Eastburn. About 20 friends enjoyed a social evening of games and Mrs. Eastburn was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening to Mmes. A. B. Cook, R. B. Putman, Charles Eastburn, Lewis Conley, Herbert Moon, W. W. Hilleman, Nick Barton, granddaughter Sandra Sue Jenkins, Mmes. Marvin Harpole, H. J. Cochran, Larry Kellogg, Frank VanNortwick, J. W. Eastburn, Carl Bone and the

REBEKAHS RECEIVE INVITES

At the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge Friday night in the IOOF hall three invitations were read from different lodges, an invitation from the Lorane lodge to visit them October 27, an invitation from the lodge at Brownsville to attend their convention October 29th and the Eugene lodge asked the local lodge to visit them on November 7th at which time initiation will be held.

The Staff captain asked that all members who have a permanent place on the staff to please be present Friday night, October 26, and that all members who are interested in the staff are asked to attend.

It was reported that the next meeting, November 2nd, a 6:30 potluck supper will be held and all members and families are invited.

At the IOOF-Rebekah antique party held Thursday evening in the hall Mrs. Henrietta Olson received the prize for the oldest antique, which was a gold button between 500 and 600 years old. Mrs. Olson said as near as she knew only two of these gold buttons were made at that time and she is the possessor of one. A committee was appointed to purchase a prize for Mrs. Olson.

ALL DAY MEETING

The London 4-H Mothers club held an all day meeting at the club house Wednesday. In the absence of the president, the business session was conducted by Mrs. Doran Ritter. Plans were made to redecorate the interior of the club house and members will meet next Tuesday at 1:00 o'clock with their husbands to put on a new ceiling.

At the next regular meeting members will paint the woodwork and all were asked to wear work clothing and bring a paint brush.

A Halloween party for members and their families will be held at the club house next Wednesday evening. No one will be admitted who is not in costume. Mrs. Arlie Sugg was appointed in charge of the games; Mrs. Maryjo Phillips, refreshments and Mrs. Doran Ritter for prizes.

The "rolling can" was opened and found to contain $3.77. Members were asked to bring their numbers sold to be used for the Cottage Grove cannery building fund. A full-sized bed sheet will be awarded at the number drawing.

During the afternoon members worked on handwork. The next meeting will be November 7th and members are asked to be there by 10:00 a.m.

CARNATION CLUB

The Carnation club was entertained Monday night at the home of Mrs. Lochie Thompson. Guests besides the regular members were Ruth Thompson and Katie Peterson. At cards, Bernadine Layton received high score. The next meeting will be with Merl King, Bonnie Schaffer assisting.

Creswell

Creswell Grange meets October 25 when work in the 3rd and 4th degrees will be given. Birthday guests are Mmes. C. I. Kent, G. Bryant, E. Allen, James Smith, Roy Smith, D. Sanger, F. P. Clack and Mildred Vaughn, M. O. Wicks, Miss Elsie Anderson, Warren La Vorne, Frank Gardner, Mrs. Frank Vick.

The Home Economic club met at the grange hall last Tuesday with 19 members present. Plans were completed for finishing the dining room walls, also a committee appointed for making a quilt.

A committee was also appointed for entertaining the Pomona grange next month, and the club voted to discontinue the Polyantha for a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coe of Portland, former Creswell residents, called on old friends one day last week, on their way back after a vacation at the beach.

Mrs. L. B. Dersham left last Friday for an extended visit with relatives at Sterling, Colorado. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Kerr, who will make a short visit there.

The Tri-Y club met Thursday evening with Peggy Scruggs, enjoying a pleasant evening and a talk by Carolyn Sage.

The Gay Lumber & Timber Co. is busy with installing new and up-to-date electrical equipment in their mill. Must be they expect the strike to end—some time.

The Parents' club meets Thursday afternoon, October 18, at the school house, and patrons are asked to make it a point to attend, as it will be an important meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Joslin and Mrs. Bernice Schroeder spent several days at the coast last week. Mrs. F. B. Clock of Portland is visiting with old friends in Creswell. Mrs. Clock is a former resident here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Howe are happy to hear their son, PFC Norman Howe at home again, after nearly three years' army service overseas, and carries the purple heart, five gold stripes, five battle stars and his pre-Pearl Harbor service stripe.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Currin and daughter, Mrs. Betty Jobe and little baby son of Eugene were visitors at the H. S. Joslin home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Doty, son Stephen and Mrs. Violet Mitchell of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. George Stratton of Cottage Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Blu Vaughn, Miss Margaret, enjoyed a Sunday dinner at the Joslin home, complimenting Mrs. Vernice Schroeder of Butte, Montana, who is visiting at the Joslin home.

Lt. Margate Itschner, army nurse who has been a guest at the L. E. Zinkler home, left to report at Camp Beale, Calif. Lt. Itschner has seen service in foreign theaters of war.

Creswell Eastern Star met last Thursday with guests from Blue River and the Roger Park chapter. The West Fir members served refreshments.

Mrs. F. L. De Berry is the new assistant at Creswell post office in place of Mrs. J. Mortensen, who resigned recently. Donald Black is also helping at odd hours.
