Arletta Roberts, Capt. Drury Exchange Vows

At an impressive candlelight service Saturday evening, October 27, at 7:00 o'clock in the Presbyterian church, Miss Arletta Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Roberts, and Captain George Drury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Drury, exchanged vows before a large group of relatives and friends. The double ring service was read in the ivy-decorated church by the Rev. A. J. Kammann.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a fuchsia dress with black accessories and three strands of pearls and carried her white Rainbow Bible with an orchid on top and from which fell white satin streamers.

Miss Chloris Roberts was maid of honor for her sister and her only attendant. She wore an aqua dress with black accessories and carried a nosegay of chrysanthemums and roses centered by a gardenia.

Captain Donald McMillan of Corvallis, stationed at Seattle, Washington, was best man for Captain Drury. Miss May Crick and Mrs. Curby Rippy acted as ushers.

Preceding the service Miss Marjorie Earl sang "At the Dawn," accompanied by Mrs. H. A. Hagen, who also played the wedding marches.

For going away, the bride wore a green man-tailored suit with black accessories.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Corwin McLean, Captain Donald McMillan, Captain and Mrs. Fred Morse, Professor and Mrs. W. H. Paul, all of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swango of Coburg and Miss Marjorie Earl of Eugene.

The couple left immediately for Portland where they are trained for Maryland and the Aberdeen Proving Ground where Capt. Drury will receive his discharge after spending over three years in the armed forces, a good part of that time being in overseas duty.

The bride graduated from the local high school with the class of 1942 and has been employed at the Irish & Swartz store for the past two years.

The groom graduated from the high school here and also from Oregon State college.

INTERMEDIATE HALLOWEEN PARTY TUESDAY NIGHT

Miss Pauline Dyksterhuis and Miss Pat Wilson were in charge of the games and refreshments at the Halloween party Tuesday evening of the Intermediate Fellowship of the Methodist church held in the church which was decorated for the occasion. The group met at the church where games and singing were the diversion and then split up in two groups and hiked to the Dyksterhuis home on South River Road where the refreshments to the 22 young people were served.

Mrs. Frank Brown, sponsor of the group, chaperoned the young people.

FELLOWSHIP PARTY ON HALLOWEEN NIGHT

The Methodist Youth Fellowship held a Halloween party Wednesday evening in the church Fellowship room with 30 young people present to enjoy the Halloween games in the rooms which had been decorated in keeping with the season. The committee in charge of decorating, games and refreshments served at the close of the evening were Lester Porter, Carroll Miller, Barbara Nelson and Betty Dyksterhuis.

The party closed with the Fellowship circle and singing of songs.

The Rev. Frank Brown, pastor, was present with the group.

RESEARCH PARTY

A costume Halloween party was enjoyed Tuesday night by the Research club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Martin. The husbands of the members were guests. Games in keeping with Halloween were played and refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

EL MARTES LUNCHEON

Mrs. Ralph Saltzman was hostess Tuesday at a luncheon when she entertained the El Martes club. The afternoon was spent with bridge, two tables being at play. Mrs. Charles Hall received high score. Mrs. Hall will entertain the club at a luncheon at the next meeting.

C. A. PARTY WED. EVE

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lovegren were hosts Wednesday evening to the Christ Ambassadors of the Assembly of God church at a supper and evening of Halloween games and fun for the 25 young people present. Besides the regular Christ Ambassador members present were Mrs. Atwood Foster of Salem, Sgt. Floyd Quaglia, home on furlough, and Kenneth Lovegren, with the V-12 group, who is home on leave. Refreshments were served late in the evening and devotional service after which the group departed for their homes.

DORENA GRANGE OBSERVES BOOSTER NIGHT

The annual booster night program of Dorena Grange was opened with the officers seating drill. After the opening of the Bible the regular grange prayer was given by the chaplain. The flag was placed and Wilbur Dodge of the Boy Scouts led in the flag salute after the singing of the national anthem. Master Henry Snauer addressed the group giving special recognition to the charter members of the grange. The following program was presented by the lecturer, Thelma Wicks: Piano solo, "Tumbling Weeds" by Shirley Arne; cowboy songs and music by a group led by Orris Steel; talk "Why I Enjoy the Grange," by Esther Stratton; chalk talk by Eldon Steel; vocal duet, Shirley Arne and Lois Cook; pantomime, "And the Lamp Went Out," violin solo, "Nights of Gladness" by H. S. Joslin, accompanied by Esther Stratton; old time song by Aunt Fanny Goude, and a beautiful tableau "The Harvest," arranged by Mary Arne. During the tableau Shirley Arne and Lois Cook sang a specially arranged song. This was followed by everyone singing "God Bless America."

A social hour followed the program and refreshments were served to all present.

It was a special treat to have Mr. Joslin and his beloved violin on the program. He is a talented musician and his music was enjoyed by all even to the number "The Irish Washerwoman," which he played specially for Mr. Layng. Mr. Joslin is a member of Creswell Grange.
