At least we have all survived the usual Hallowe'en pranks—those some of them can scarcely be judged pranks, for many were the work of destructive vandals. Some resulting in injury to citizens, and the destroying and disfiguring of property. Youngsters can't be proud of such actions surely. Surely there were no Boy Scouts in this vandal crowd.

Creswell Grange was well represented at Hebron Grange Saturday night, along with their team of 16 members that gave the third and fourth degree to several Hebron Grange members. County Agent O. S. Fletcher gave a fine movie program, enjoyed by all, especially "potatoes Unlimited." The Hebron members served a bounteous lunch at the close of the meeting. Several other granges were also represented.

The opening of a shoe shop in Creswell will be greatly appreciated. A. M. Glenn of Portland has opened a shop here. We understand he is a son of E. Glenn of Creswell.

The young people of the Presbyterian church enjoyed a skating party at Eugene last Friday. They were served refreshments in the church parlors at their return from the skating rink.

Members of Creswell Grange have been busy working in their grange hall, three days last week. The dining room walls have been newly tinted, the woodwork painted, the rest rooms finished as well as more work done to the stage. The lobby rooms and halls are to be stained and varnished next week. With Mrs. Fred Trumbly as chairman the work has gone ahead and the results most satisfying and the hall fairly shines with its freshly balsomined walls, painted woodwork, crisp fresh curtains and gleaming polished windows.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Doty and son Wm. and Mrs. V. Mitchell were Sunday guests at the H. S. Joslin home.

Mrs. Doty reported a splendid time carnival night at her school last week at Willakenzie. Mrs. Doty is principal of the grade school there.

Grangers are urged to attend this Thursday night's coming session as it will be election night.

Mrs. Dora Martin enjoyed a short visit with a nephew, C. Cleaver of Portland. Mr. Cleaver is doing insurance work.
