HANSON-HANDY NUPTIALS

Kathleen Handy and Gustavus Hanson were united in marriage at the Church of God last Sunday, November 4, at 12 noon. Rev. Roy Hutchison read the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends.

The bride wore a midnight blue suit with lighter blue accessories. Both she and her attendant wore beautiful corsages.

They were accompanied to the altar by Mr. and Mrs. Hanson of Drain, brother and sister-in-law of the groom.

The church was beautifully decorated with fern, autumn leaves and fall flowers.

A wedding dinner was served in the kitchen of the church by the ladies of the church to about 40 people. At that time the bride cut the beautifully decorated two-tier wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson left Monday for a trip to Bandon. They will be at home after November 10 in Cottage Grove.

MARY DUFFY PRESIDES

At the Neighbors of Woodcraft regular meeting Tuesday night in the IOOF hall, Mrs. Mary Duffy, guardian neighbor, presided. Mrs. Marguerite Berge's resignation as banker was accepted and Mrs. Mabel Wilson was elected and installed in her place to complete the term. Quarterly reports were given by the banker and clerk.

Plans were made for the next social meeting which will be held Tuesday, November 20, at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Mabel Wilson. Plans were also made for the Christmas social to be December 18 in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cora Bragg.

At the close of the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Julia Bartels. A social evening of cards followed.

Bandon Couple Wed at Church Service Here

The Assembly of God church, beautiful with pastel shades of chrysanthemums, asters and dahlias, was the scene Wednesday evening, November 7, for the wedding of Miss Doris Elaine Neal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Neal, of Bandon and Henry Philpott Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Philpott, of Bandon.

The couple exchanged vows before an improvised altar of white lattice intertwined with ivy and yellow and white chrysanthemums and white lighted tapers in candelabra on either side. The double ring service was read by the Rev. Hilton Park, pastor of the church, before a group of relatives and friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white brocaded satin wedding gown with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, full skirt with long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of wax orange blossoms. She wore three strands of pearls and carried a white Testament topped with a single purple orchid from which fell white satin streamers intertwined with baby white orchids.

Miss Mary Jo Smiley of Corvallis was maid of honor and wore a light blue net formal dress and carried a nosegay of pink button mums. Miss Sylvia Park, in a peach organdy frock, was flower girl and preceded the bride scattering flower petals in her path. The groom's father, Henry Philpott Sr., was best man and ushers were Keith Keller and Fred Frost. Preceding the ceremony Miss Millicent Lewis sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Norman Richards, who also played the wedding marches. Miss Evelyn Panter of Bandon lighted the tapers.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the dining room of the church for the wedding party and immediate relatives of the couple. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier decorated wedding cake, yellow rosebuds and white tapers. The bride and groom cut the initial piece of cake. Presiding at the bride's table were Mrs. W. D. Lovegren, Mrs. Hilton Park and Miss Mary Jo Smiley.

The bride is a senior in the Bandon high school and will complete her school year. The groom is employed in Bandon, where they will make their home after a short wedding trip to Reno, Nevada.

ILMA THUM HONORED
