CRESWELL COUPLE WED AT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Miss Bonnie Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finess Powell, and Robert Conrad Welding, USNR, son of Mrs. Antonette Welding, both of Creswell, were married last Saturday afternoon at the parish house of the Catholic church here. The Rev. Louis Sohler officiated. Mrs. Robert R. Wright and Roman Casper, both of Creswell, were the attendants.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of powder blue and her flowers were an orchid corsage. Mrs. Wright was dressed in black with a corsage of gardenias. The double ring ceremony was used.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a short trip north. The bridegroom will report back to Norman, Oklahoma and for a time the bride will be with her people at Creswell.

Mr. Welding is a member of the 1943 class of Creswell Union high school and Mrs. Welding of the 1945 class.

O. E. S. CHAPTER

The regular session of Cottage Grove chapter of Eastern Star was held in the Masonic temple Friday evening, November 23rd. Degrees were conferred upon two sisters, Betty Bone and Miss Mary Lou Thompson, and Jean King Landahl.

Reports were given on visits that were made to Blue River chapter in Eugene and the Creswell chapter.

Announcement was made of the reception to be held Saturday evening, December 8, honoring Sister Ilma Thum, grand associate conductress of Oregon Eastern Star of Oregon and Sister Mary Workman, grand representative of Kentucky.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening with the committee in charge and Susie Wiese, chairman. The next meeting will be December 14 at which time there will be initiation and election of officers.

MRS. KELLY HOSTESS

Mrs. John Kelly was hostess to El Martes club at the golf club house on Tuesday. The afternoon was spent in playing bridge. Mrs. F. L. Grannis and Mrs. Harold Wolfard were guests.

The next meeting will be the Christmas tree and gift exchange on December 11 at the home of Mrs. Claude Kime.

ATTEND WHITE SHRINE

A group of the O.E.S. chapter and Masons went to Eugene Sunday to help in the organization of the White Shrine. Knafle Haynes was elected to the office of Watchman of the Shepherds. The next meeting will be on December 9 to complete the organization.

B. & P. W. Club Hold Winter Initiation

The Cottage Grove Business and Professional Women's club held their winter initiation ceremony on November 26th. Four Eugene B&PW members: Mrs. Genevieve Turnpseed, Mrs. Leone Jensen, Mrs. Greta Buckingham and Mrs. Helen Kilpatrick, conducted the installation, assisted by Cottage Grove members. The following were initiated: Mrs. Pearl Gischler, Grace Smith, Earl Reuf, Gladys Perry, Oris Steel, Kathryn O'Laughlin, Joy Haworth, Gladys Goben, Arlene Johns, Mildred Coier, Mary Rorer, Mildred Taylor, Hilda Walther, Lillian Burnett, Louise Wickendall, Martha Clark, Magna Kammann, and Martha Hicks. Donna Porterfield tap danced, accompanied by Margorie Coier.

The evening began by the serving of a buffet lunch by Mrs. Myrtle Kent and her committee. Entertainment was provided by Helen Judy Hardy who sang two request songs "Indian Love Call" and "Trees." She was accompanied by Ruth Caldwell.

The meeting was concluded by a review by Mrs. Kammann of the benefits to be received by those who take the opportunity of having the T. B. test pictures when the mobile unit comes to Cottage Grove soon. Mrs. Hardy reviewed the progress of the Choral club and extended a further invitation to all old and new members to come out Monday evening at 7:30 to sing. Short responses were given by each of the Eugene guests.

AUXILIARY EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

At the executive board meeting of the Legion Auxiliary held November 16th, the board voted to send the following donations: $5.00 to the hospital Christmas cheer fund, $5.00 Christmas fund for the child welfare, $2.00 gift for "The Yanks Who Gave," $5.00 to Camp Adair for birthdays and phone calls, $5.00 to the hospital gift shop.

At this meeting plans were made for the annual Christmas party. Bernice Coston was named program chairman and Nell Bukowski and Ruth Randall were named on the program committee. The membership chairman reported a membership of forty for the Auxiliary, but the quota has not yet been reached.

It was also announced that Helen Star of Kinnville, district president of the Auxiliary, will make a visit here on December 10th.

HOUSEWARMING — SHOWER

Members of the London 4-H Mothers' club honored Mrs. Joseph Miller Wednesday afternoon with a housewarming and shower. A social afternoon was enjoyed and refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. Those present were Meses. Claris Abeene, Rogenia Patton, Arlie Sugg, Fritz Freeman, Elvis Kelley, Harold Abeene, George Gunn, Maryjo Phillips, Paul Jones, Gale Roby, Verne Shortridge and Leon Morton.

NOMINATION OF OFFICERS

At the regular meeting of the Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War Tuesday evening in the armory, the first nomination of officers was held. Those nominated were: President, Loretta Safley; senior vice president, Mabel Doleman, renominated; junior vice president, Maude Wright; chaplain, Louisa May Tohlen, renominated; council member No. 1, Marie Sorensen. Due to the absence of some of the members, four officers will be nominated at the next meeting, December 11.

It was reported that the food sale and bazaar netted the tent approximately $25.00. It was voted to send $3.00 of this amount to the department treasurer for the department.

The second nomination and election of officers will be held December 11. This meeting will be held at the home of Mabel Doleman, beginning at 7:30 when the annual Christmas party will be held. All members are sincerely urged to be there and bring a gift not exceeding 50c. Mrs. Doleman will be assisted by Elsie McClarnan and Maude Wright.

The first meeting in January will be held at the home of Marie Sorensen. This will be the last quarterly birthday party of the year.

Installation is planned for the second meeting in January.

THANK-OFFERING TEA

In spite of the storm a very good number of ladies attended the "Thank-offering tea" sponsored by the Presbyterian Fellowship Guild yesterday at the home of Mrs. H. B. Ferrin.

A feature of the afternoon's program was an informal talk by Mrs. Richard Aguinaldo, who lived in the Philippines for a few years prior to the war, and who has travelled in other parts of the Orient and has a fund of interesting information.

A musical program delighted the guests also, an included piano solos by the Misses Betty Lou Bagley, Mary Ann Hall, and Marjory Coier, a quartet (a cappella) by the Misses Jane Beidler, Pat Kelly, Roberta Bagley and Marjory Coier, and a duet, also accompanied, by the Misses Roberta Bagley and Beverly Benton.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Methodist Missionary Society met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Andrew Brund. Mrs. Charles Cooley led the devotionals and Mrs. S. L. Mackin presented the lesson at which time the book on "The American Indians" was completed. Plans were made for the annual bazaar to be held in the church basement December 12. At this time there will be booths of aprons, fancy work, dish towels, white elephants and harvest. Pie and coffee will be served throughout the day.

Refreshments were served at the tea hour by the hostess.

DAUGHTERS OF THE NILE

The Daughters of the Nile will hold their next meeting on Monday, December 3, at 7:30 in the Masonic club rooms. Call Mrs. Guy Earl, 233J, for reservations.

First Baptist Church Scene of Wedding

In a floral setting of white carnation and pink button chrysanthemums at the First Baptist church on Thursday, November 15, Miss Willa Allen, daughter of Mrs. Laura Allen and the late E. A. Allen, became the bride of Wilbur Hoopes, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Hoopes, before a small group of relatives and close friends, with the Rev. George E. Hardy officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, W. F. Allen. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Chester Allen, played the wedding marches.

The bride wore a soldier blue wool suit and an orchid corsage. She was attended by her sister, Miss Maxine Allen, as maid of honor, who wore an aqua wool dress and corsage of gardenias. Best man was Dale Harris.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hoopes are graduates of the local union high school.

After a wedding trip to California, New Mexico and Colorado, they will live at Silk Creek where they have purchased a place.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

Last Saturday evening Mrs. W. L. Workman entertained informally a group of ladies whose husbands had gone to Coquille to the Shrine convention. The evening was spent with bridge and refreshments were served by the hostess at a late hour. Mrs. Victor Chambers received high score for the evening; Mrs. Schofield Stewart, second and Mrs. Herbert Lombard, consolation.

COVERED DISH DINNER

Constitution club will meet in the Masonic club rooms Thursday afternoon, December 6, at 1:00 for a covered dish dinner. All members of the Eastern Star are invited to attend and each is requested to bring a 50c gift exchange, also a toy for the Shrine hospital.

WOMEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The Women's Bible class of the Methodist church met in the ladies room on Wednesday with 12 present for a social afternoon and piecing blocks for a quilt.

GOLDEN WEDDING TO BE OBSERVED SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly will celebrate their fiftieth of golden wedding anniversary Sunday, December 2nd, at the IOOF hall. They are holding open house from two to four o'clock Sunday afternoon, and friends are invited to call.

DORCAS CIRCLE WEDNESDAY

The Dorcas Circle of the Baptist church met on Wednesday afternoon with a good attendance. In the absence of the president, Mrs. P. J. Bush, no business meeting was held. The work committee had charge and the afternoon was spent in quilting. The next day for work will be on Friday afternoon of this week and all ladies of the church are invited.
