Miss Helen Olson Bride of Elwyn Rude

The Olson home on Ash Avenue was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Miss Helen Margaret Olson became the bride of Sergeant Elwyn I. Rude, Saturday afternoon, December 1, at 2:00 o'clock.

Preceding the nuptials, Miss Myrtle Kem sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Nettie Gawley, who also played the wedding marches. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Frank Brown before a latticed altar of green, flanked by huge baskets of chrysanthemums. The bride was attired in an afternoon gown of silk crepe, dotted with pink sequins, and wore an orchid corsage. The couple was unattended.

A reception followed with Mrs. N. E. Compton, Mrs. William Thum, Mrs. Earl Hill, Mrs. Charles Shanda and Mrs. Verne Williams assisting.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tier decorated wedding cake topped with bridal couple and silver bell. A bowl of pink and white carnations adorned the table.

Mrs. Rude is the daughter of Olaf Olson and Henrietta Olson of this city. She is a graduate of the local schools and received her Bachelor's degree at the Southern Oregon College of Education. She has taught in the elementary schools of Prineville and Cottage Grove.

Sergeant Rude is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Rude of Bakersfield, California. He received his education in the Bakersfield High School and Junior College. In 1941 he went with the National Guard which became the 144th Field Artillery at Fort Lewis. With his company he made the invasion of Normandy and all campaigns with the 1st Army in Europe with the 980 F.A.B.N. On V-E day he was at Weisenfeldt, Germany and was with occupation forces in France and Germany prior to his discharge in September, 1945.

Before entering the service Mr. Rude was in the employ of the Santa Fe Railroad Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Rude will spend the Christmas holidays in southern California.

SUNSHINE CIRCLE ELECTS

At the all-day meeting of the Sunshine Circle of the Christian church Tuesday in the church election of officers was held. Mrs. Jerry Eastham was elected president; Mrs. Amil Thies, vice president; Mrs. Ralph Aubrey, secretary and Mrs. Addie Hull, treasurer.

Plans were made for a Christmas dinner and program with a gift exchange not to exceed 35c on December 18. The dinner will be served at the noon hour and the program will be presented at 3:00 p. m. Committees appointed were: decorations, Mrs. E. A. Teich, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. McGarvin; kitchen: Mrs. Eastburn, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Ewing. Various members were chosen to assist with the program. All members of the church are cordially invited to attend this fellowship.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Louis Burleson and daughter Donna entertained Thursday afternoon at their home at a miscellaneous bridal shower complimenting Miss Helen Gates, bride-elect of Clarence Peterson of Springfield, whose wedding will be an event of Saturday.

About 20 friends and relatives enjoyed the afternoon of games and refreshments including a decorated cake on which was inscribed "Congratulations to Helen." The honoree received many lovely gifts. Guests included: Mrs. Wayne Gates and children Evelyn, Betty and Jerrold; Mrs. Ralph Geer and son Bobby and daughter Karen Lee; Mrs. Harold Clark, Mrs. Clarence Peterson, Mrs. Nelson Bemis, Donna Burleson, Mrs. E. L. Clark, Mrs. Harland Hickson, Mrs. Eva Hatch and Mrs. Glenn Merrill. Several who were unable to attend sent gifts.

REBEKAH LODGE HAS VISITORS AND ELECTION

The Rebekah lodge had an interesting meeting Friday night in the IOOF hall with several visitors present and election of officers being held. The Elktion lodge was represented by 14 visitors; Springfield with nine and Eugene had two members present. Also Mrs. Jane Alyce Harris from Las Vegas, Nevada was introduced and Lela Johnson was admitted to the local lodge by transfer.

Due to an error the annual homecoming will be January 4 instead of November 30, as was previously reported.

The election of officers was held for the ensuing term with Mildred Anderson being elected to noble grand; Marie Sorensen, vice grand; Grace Daskam, secretary; Stella Baker, financial secretary and Loretta Safley, treasurer.

Friendship, love and truth, "The Three Gates of Gold," was very impressively exemplified with members and visitors taking the obligation. Also "Friendship Road" was portrayed with a flower of friendship being presented to all visitors. Helen Ashbridge, who had been a member of the local lodge, but has moved to Springfield, was presented with a lovely nut bowl from the lodge.

Miss Helen Olson, noble grand, who was married Saturday afternoon, received a standing vote of congratulation from the lodge.

Delicious refreshments were served to a large group of visitors and members in the dining room by the committee.

PROGRAM PRESENTED

At the meeting of the Townsend club Monday night a program was presented consisting of readings by Mrs. May Barton, Mrs. Stella Baker, Mrs. Fanny Goude, Elmer Kent and Frank Hockett. Musical numbers were rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Merrill and Mrs. Nellie Blackmore. An original playlet, "The Missing Teeth," written by Mrs. Elva George, was given by Mrs. George and Mrs. Belknap.

Plans were completed for the 4th district Townsend convention to be held in Cottage Grove at the Eagles hall commencing at 10:00 a. m. December 9th. Dinner will be served by the Royal Neighbors lodge at 1:00 p. m. and the afternoon program, commencing at 2:00 p. m. is open to the public. James Mackenzie, national representative for Oregon, will be the guest speaker.

MRS. SALTSMAN HOSTESS

Mrs. Ralph Saltsman was hostess to the Justamere club Tuesday at a 1:30 dessert course followed by an afternoon of bridge. High score was received by Mrs. E. R. Husted. Special guests besides the members were Mrs. Ray Dukes and Mrs. Claude Benton. On December 18th Mrs. Larry Levens will be hostess to the club at the annual Christmas party.

REPORTS OF GRAND SESSION

Reports of the grand session held in Portland last week of the Neighbors of Woodcraft were given Tuesday night at the regular meeting by Mrs. Anna Graham and Mrs. Ila Keibelbeck, who attended. It was reported that the grand guardian, Mrs. Minnie Hiner, had resigned after 25 years of service. Mrs. Minerva Coddling was elected grand guardian.

Mrs. Mary Duffy presided over the business session. Mrs. Adelia Hatch was reported ill.

It was announced that the social meeting to be held December 18 at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Cora Bragg will be the annual Christmas party and all members are especially invited.

Mrs. Keibelbeck and Mrs. Bragg served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

CORRECTION

In last week's paper Mrs. Cecil Caldwell was given credit for a family reunion of the Caldwell family. Instead of Mrs. Cecil Caldwell, it was Mrs. Ruthie Caldwell who entertained at her home on November 18. All members of the family were present including: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Caldwell and children Robert and Nancy of Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Van Note of Long Beach, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. George Willoughby and children Barbara and Norman of Sweet Home; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dolman of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Skelton and son Douglas, and Louis Caldwell, all of Cottage Grove.
