PUBLIC INSTALLATION
OF D. U. V.

The Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War met Tuesday evening in the armory for the purpose of holding public installation of officers. Out-of-town guests were Laura England, installing officer; Grace Conn, installing guide; Mrs. Davidson, installing chaplain; Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Small and Mrs. Dean, installing color bearers and Miss Cora Kreamer, installing secretary, all of Eugene. O. A. England, a member of the Sons of the Union Veterans of the Civil War, also of Eugene, was present.

Preceding the installation a flag was presented to the Girl Scout Troop No. 94 of Cottage Grove, by the patriotic instructor elect, Bertha Gunderson. Kay Leonard accepted the flag for the 15 Girl Scouts that were present and were accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. Hadley Arthur and Mrs. Frank Miller.

The officers installed were: President, Loretta Safley; junior vice president, Maude Wright; chaplain, Louise Tohlen; treasurer, Hazel Tohlen; three council members, Marie Sorensen, Pearl Safley and Marie Gidney; secretary, Cora Cooley; guide, Mary Tucker; guard, Eva Hatch; assistant guard, May Hogate; color bearer No. 1, Ruth Rose.

Gifts were presented to the department president, Mrs. England of Eugene, and to the past tent president, Marie Sorensen. For entertainment, the Rev. Frank Brown sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. Boyd Allen, who also played two piano selections. Due to the absence of the installing musician and the tent musician, Mrs. Allen played for the installation and the closing exercises. Some of the officers who were absent will be installed later.

Loretta Safley went to Eugene Wednesday night and acted as installing guide for the Eugene tent. A dinner was served at a Eugene cafe preceding the installation service.

OFFICERS INSTALLED BY ROYAL NEIGHBORS

The following officers were installed Tuesday night at the regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors: oracle, Nellie Blackmore; vice oracle, Bessie Fry; past oracle, Hilda Long; recorder, Edna Burleson; chancellor, Alice Breedlove; marshal, Myrtle Neet; assistant marshal, Mae Tennis; inner sentinel, Julia Prescott; manager, Anna Gasper; courage, Anna Gates; modesty, Grace Jenkins; unselfishness, Estella Gates; endurance, Elsie DeYoung; Maude Funk was installing officer and Grace Jenkins, ceremonial marshal.

The state supervising deputy, Mae Logan, was a guest and announced she had appointed Alice Breedlove district deputy. Plans were made for state and district camp meetings.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Julia Prescott and Anna Gasper.

RESEARCH CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING

"Women in the News" was the subject for the Research club Tuesday evening at the city library and an interesting article was given by Mrs. A. W. Shofstall on Lise Meitner, a 67-year-old lady who earned her master's degree at Vienna and is now working in the Nobel Institute in Sweden. She had a large part in the research work of the atomic bomb. Miss Eunice VanDenberg gave an article on Margaret Burke White, a photographer and writer, who started out as an amateur photographer to earn money for schooling and became famous almost overnight. She now wears a foreign correspondent's uniform. She took pictures on the front lines in Russia for Time magazine. Each member answered roll call with a poem. Mrs. H. A. Hagen has invited the club to meet at her home for the January 22nd meeting, the topic to be "Trends in Music."
