INFORMATIVE BUSINESS MEETING

Cottage Grove Business and Professional Women met for a very enjoyable and informative business meeting January 14 at the IOOF hall. Mrs. Ruth Bradford, assisted by Mrs. Mae Whitlock, Dorothy Wert, Veva Collier and Arlene Johns, were in charge. Two musical numbers, Claire de Lune played by Mrs. Helen Hagen and Sunshine of Your Smile sung by Richard Aguinaldo were beautifully presented. Mr. Aguinaldo was accompanied by his wife. Mayor Hagen presented an excellent discussion on the subject "What Cottage Grove Is Doing About Counseling." He spoke particularly of the work of the city council and the planning board, emphasizing the need of planning for a new water and sewage system and for city zoning.

After a short intermission the regular business meeting was held. The following committee was announced to act as a committee to nominate the 1946-47 officers for the club: Lila Graham, chairman, with Eleanor Scott and Marie Carstensen assisting. Mrs. Hatch, girl scout representative, had scout calendars which she sold. The members voted not to be hosts for the next B.P.W. district meeting due to the restricted food catering and hotel service. The next meeting will be a social evening, January 28, at the IOOF hall.

Mrs. George Miller in her Sunday letter to the Register-Guard voices the thoughts of everyone regarding the wild and dangerous speeding of cars and trucks. More than once the writer has fast closed her eyes expecting to figure in a head-on crash or sideswipe with a hurtling car or truck or bus. But might as well try to sweep up the past flood with a broom as stop the fiends—they will keep on speeding, crashing, killing until Nemesis finally catches up with them—if it does.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Borden are the parents of a baby daughter born January 8 at Sacred Heart hospital. The little Miss is named Patricia Mae. Mr. Borden is principal of Creswell union high.

Mrs. I. R. Miller was a Eugene visitor last Friday.

Kablers were also in the path of the flood waters and suffered damage to crops and buildings. But, with his usual "Miles Wicks smiling optimism," none would know but what his heart was light and carefree as ever. Tom Partney was obligated in the 3rd and 4th degrees.

Happy are the families where the government of parents is the reign of affection, and obedience of the children the submission of love.
