MRS. WEINKAUF, MRS. GATES CO-HOSTESSES AT GUILD

Mrs. Art Weinkauf and Mrs. Lester Gates were co-hostesses Thursday evening to the members of the Service Guild of the Methodist church at the Weinkauf home. At this time plans were made to hold a cooked food, dish towel and fluffy duster sale on January 26. Mrs. Weinkauf was appointed chairman of the food sale with Mrs. Wayne Monroe, Mrs. Norman Richards and Mrs. Frank Brown as assistants.

This was also the experience social for the Guild, who had pledged $50.00 for the Crusade for Christ, but they exceeded their pledge and turned in $68.06.

Mrs. Richards gave a very interesting book report on "Who Walks Alone," a story of the lepers in the Philippines.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. Gaylord Davies and Mrs. Bill Jones of North Bend, sister of Mrs. Jack Caton.

The next meeting, January 30th., will be at the home of Mrs. Damon Scott when the new officers will be installed.

Public formal installation will be held January 28 in the temple. Verla Whitlock was initiated into the order at this time. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Orlo Bagley, Rainbow dad, and Mrs. Maxine Ward, mother advisor. It was announced that Darrell Peterson will be the new Rainbow dad.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shay were Mrs. Earl Ishmael and daughter Jeanette and Mrs. Fred Rehm and son Donald of Portland. Additional Sunday dinner guests to celebrate Mr. Shay's 83rd birthday anniversary were Mr. and Mrs. Stacey M. Russell of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cooper of Springfield.

During the afternoon neighbors and friends called to offer Mr. Shay congratulations and were informally entertained with a very clever slight-of-hand performance by Mr. Cooper, who has studied this art for the past four years.

WORLD FRIENDSHIP GROUP RESUMES MEETINGS

The World Friendship Group, composed of high school girls, of the Methodist church held their first meeting of the year at the parsonage Friday evening. Counselors, Miss Dorothy Akerblade and Mrs. Frank Brown, explained the purpose of the organization and Miss Jeanette Workman gave a report of last year's activities. Plans were discussed for the mother-daughter banquet which will be held in the church dining room on February 5. The theme of the banquet will be "World Friendship Around the World" and decorations will be in keeping with the theme. The ladies of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will serve the dinner.

At the business meeting it was suggested that the girls write letters to young folk of foreign countries.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. The next meeting will be held February 1st at the parsonage and election of officers will be held.

HARMONY CIRCLE SOCIAL EVENING

The Harmony Circle of the First Baptist church sponsored a social Friday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. George E. Hardy, at which time the husbands were invited. The theme of the evening was an "Air-plane Trip Around the World." A game was played in connection with each country visited. Mrs. E. L. Clark and Mrs. Ted Johnson were in charge of the entertainment.

At the close of the evening a buffet supper was served with Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. Geo. Hardy in charge.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bone, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cherry, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Weeldreyer, Mr. and Mrs. John Lionberger, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson, Mrs. Alton Long, Mrs. Vernon Doolittle, J. W. Beager, and the hosts, Rev. and Mrs. Hardy.

YONCALLA COUPLE WED

The Church of Christ at Yoncalla was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary Vian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Vian, and Mahlon Main, son of Mrs. Minnie Williams, Saturday morning, January 12, at 11:00 o'clock. The ceremony was read in the presence of a few relatives and close friends, by the Rev. Ballew of the Assembly of God church of Drain. The bride wore a soldier blue wool suit, with hat and veil and accessories of black. Her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. George Meyers, matron of honor, wore a pale yellow afternoon dress and a corsage of pink and white carnations. Mr. Meyers was best man. The bride's mother and the groom's mother wore corsages of pink carnations.

Preceding the service Miss Donna Loyd and Miss Norma Raper sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. George Taylor, who also played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

A wedding dinner was served at the church at noon to wedding guests. In the afternoon a bridal shower was given for Mr. and Mrs. Main.

Mr. and Mrs. Main will make their home at Yoncalla until he enters the army. He spent the past two years in the U. S. merchant marine.

NO-HOSTESS LUNCHEON

The golf course club house was the meeting place for the Utopia club no-hostess and election of officers. This was the 22nd anniversary of the club and the result of the election was: President, Mrs. L. J. McLaughlin; vice president, Mrs. H. B. Griggs; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. S. L. Macklin. The diversion of the afternoon was needlework and visiting.

CAMELLIA CLUB LUNCHEON

Mrs. Mary Plunkett entertained the Camellia club with a covered dish luncheon Thursday which was followed by a social afternoon. Mrs. Mabel Tritt was welcomed into the club as a member. The hostess presented each one with a surprise package. A guest of the afternoon was Mrs. Lloyd Meneer of Sweet Home, house guest of Mrs. Plunkett.

The next meeting, on February 21st, will be with Mrs. Velma Forrester.

TRUSTEE ELECTED AND COMMITTEES APPOINTED

Mildred Anderson, the newly elected noble grand of the Rebekah lodge, presided at the meeting Friday evening in the IOOF hall, at which time Leita Stewart was elected trustee for three years.

The following committees were appointed: Finance: Grace Daskam, Eva Aubrey, and Lottie Asbury; visiting: Mearl McKibbin, Mina Clark and Alice Conner; flower: Susie Schneider, Lucy Bennett and Anna Beidler; decorating: Esther Trunnell, Hazel Culver and Loretta Saffley; condolence: Helen Sherman, Rebecca Barton and Anna Adams; good of the order: Melvie St. Elmo, Minnie Willetts and Shirley Culver; hostess: Zula Hansen, Elsie Curran and Myrtle Kent.

The staff captain, Hazel Culver, announced staff club practice for Friday night, January 25th. She requested all members who do not wish to continue on the staff to please notify her and those who wish to continue are urged to be present at this meeting.

The quarterly birthday party honoring those whose birthdays occurred in the last quarter will be held February 1st. Those who are on the committee to entertain will be those who were entertained at the last quarterly party. It was asked that those who will be on this committee to please call Mrs. Elizabeth Rohde.

Refreshments were served to the members at the close of the meeting by the newly installed officers.

ALL DAY MEETING

An all day meeting of the Hebrew Jolly Workers was held recently at the home of Mrs. Mabel Heath. A covered dish luncheon was served at the noon hour. Besides the regular members, Mrs. Lyle Gamet was an additional guest. The group voted to contribute to the polo drive which is now underway. Florence Keibelbeck was elected reporter at this meeting.

Mrs. Lois Abene will entertain the group at the next meeting, February 20.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A birthday party was given on January 19 for Ronald Macklin celebrating his fifth birthday anniversary. The guests were Ann Boslaugh, Johnnie and Carol Cummings, Sandra, Mike and Robert Gray and Darlene Macklin. The mothers present were Mrs. Boslaugh, Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. Gray and the hostess, Mrs. Macklin. Two large bouquets of daffodils and snapdragons were used in the decorations. Ronnie received many nice presents and the children enjoyed ice cream and birthday cake.

4-H MOTHERS CLUB

At the London 4-H Mothers club last week at the community club house a potluck dinner was served at noon. In the absence of the president, the vice president, Mrs. Mabel Funk, conducted the business meeting. Several new members, Juanita Bemis, Augusta Lynch, Syble Bost, Katie Mae Manning, joined the club. The afternoon was spent in basket making and leather work.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, January 30.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS

The Royal Neighbors met Tuesday evening in the Eagles hall for a social gathering which was preceded by a short business meeting, the camp voting to be hosts to the district convention, March 26th.
