SOCIAL MEETING OF B. & P. W. CLUB

The Business and Professional Women's club met at the IOOF hall for their regular social meeting Monday night. The following business was transacted: The letter from Mr. Martin, chairman of the March of Dimes, was read and the club voted to send $10.00 for this very worthy cause. The matter of a future meeting place was discussed and Mrs. Knickerbocker appointed the following members to act as an investigating committee: Joy Haworth, Lil Burnett, and Adelia Hatch. They are to make a report at the next business meeting.

Mrs. Max Bird, who is with the United States Employment Service, and has had special training in "Counseling" gave an excellent explanation of what is being done along those lines in our own community.

The next business meeting will be held February 11 at the home of Ruth Bradford, 1130 E. Main. This will be an important meeting and as many members as possible will need to be there.

The following committee served coffee at the close of the meeting: Mrs. Joy Haworth and Mrs. Orris Steele.

MISS DEE BECHOLDT MARRIED RECENTLY

A recent wedding was that of Miss Dee Becholdt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin D. Becholdt, of Cottage Grove, and Avon L. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. King of Alvadore. Members of the immediate families and an aunt and uncle from Idaho were present at the double ring ceremony, solemnized by Paul Collins, minister of the Alvadore Christian church.

The bride wore a light blue wool and rayon dress with corsage of carnations.

Mr. King, who was a staff sergeant in the army air corps, recently returned to the states after 16 months service in Alaska and seven months on Ie Shima. He was in service three years and eight months.

The couple left on a short wedding trip to Washington where they will visit relatives.

REBEKAH STAFF CLUB

At the regular business meeting of the Rebekah Staff club Friday night in the IOOF hall, Lauretta Safley was reelected as secretary.

A letter was read from W. C. Martin, chairman of the March of Dimes campaign, and a contribution of $2.00 voted to this fund. They also voted to have a public card party, the place to be announced later. The committee for prizes and other arrangements is Mildred Anderson, Marie Sorensen, Hazel Culver and Lauretta Safley. In charge of refreshments are Zula Hansen, Eva Hatch and Rosie Currin. There will be a door prize as well as a lucky prize.

At the close of practice the group enjoyed refreshments served by Mildred Anderson, Marie Sorensen and Lucy Bennett.

O. E. S. INITIATES

Initiation was held for three candidates, Mrs. Paul Radtke, Mrs. Bessie Smith and Miss Lottie Lee Lamb, Friday evening by the chapter of Oregon Eastern Star in the Masonic temple. Nettie Gawley, worthy matron, presided at the meeting.

Ruth Schroeder was installed as Esther to take the place of June Mueller, resigned. Louie Caldwell and Ina Godard were the installing officers.

A drill was given, the proceeds to go to the March of Dimes. Refreshments were served by the committee with Gurea Arnold as chairman.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baldwin entertained Sunday evening with a dinner in honor of their daughter Phyllis of Vancouver, Washington on her 19th birthday anniversary and for their son Earl Jr., who is leaving for California soon. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Little of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, Miss Lois Baldwin and Noel Campbell. The evening was spent with cards and games.

N. O. W. TO HOLD ELECTION

The Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet Tuesday February 5 for the annual election of officers. All members requested to be present.

Lt. Com. Jack Godard Wed Sunday

Baskets of white calla lilies, carnations and lighted tapers formed a very pretty setting for the wedding of Miss Jean Guyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Guyer, of Forest Grove, and Lt. Com. Jack Burrell Godard, USNR, son of Jackson Godard of Cottage Grove, on Sunday afternoon, January 27, at 3:00 o'clock, in the First Methodist church in Corvallis. The service was read by the pastor, the Rev. Daniel Stevens, before a large group of relatives and friends.

The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father, wearing a white satin wedding dress with short train, long sleeves and square neck. Her veil fell from a tulle and she carried a bouquet of white gardenias.

The bride's sister was matron of honor and wore a pink chiffon floor-length dress. Mrs. Betty Pittney was bridesmaid and dressed in a yellow chiffon floor-length dress and both carried bouquets of pink rosebuds and gardenias. A small niece of the bride made a dainty flower girl strewing petals in the bridal path.

Russell Godard, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Mrs. Donna Walker sang "I Love Thee" preceding the service and was accompanied by Miss Glenn Walker on the organ. Miss Walker also played the traditional wedding marches.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. A three-tier decorated wedding cake was cut by Miss Bebe; Miss Frances Alexander and Miss Sybil Tucker presided at the punch bowls. Assisting in the serving were Miss Ruth Miller of Cottage Grove and Miss Doris Hill and Miss Beth Bigge. Mrs. Lauren Godard, sister-in-law of the groom, was in charge of the guest book.

For going away Mrs. Godard wore an outfit of black with red accessories.

The bride graduated from Oregon State college in 1943 and Lt. Com. Godard graduated in 1941.

The couple will live in Seattle for the present as Lt. Com. Godard is stationed there.

Those attending the wedding from here were Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Godard, father of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Godard and son Eldon and Miss Ruth Miller.

POTLUCK AND INSTALLATION

A 6:30 potluck supper and installation of officers of the United Spanish War Veterans and Auxiliary was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooley. The Auxiliary officers installed were: President, Mrs. Bertha Rodgers; senior vice, Violet Edwards; junior vice, Nona Bales; chaplain, Martha Cooley; secretary, Helen Sherman; treasurer, Josephine Chapman; historian, Lillian Doolittle; conductor, Evelyn Lee Edwards. The officers who were absent will be installed later.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bertha Rodgers on Bennett Creek.

TUESDAY EVENING CLUB

The Tuesday Evening club held its regular meeting in the library. A feature of the program was a current event quiz and a book was reviewed by Mrs. W. L. Workman entitled "Broome Stages," written by Winifred Ashton. The club voted a contribution to the March of Dimes.
